OWNERSHIP/ADMINISTRATION

JEFFREY LURIE

Owner

On May 6, 1994, NFL owners voted to approve the sale of the Philadelphia Eagles from Norman Braman to Jeffrey Lurie. This approval came exactly one month after Lurie had reached an agreement to purchase the club for what was then the highest sum ever paid for a professional sports franchise. "It has been a life-long dream to own a professional football team," Lurie said following the owners' approval. "To own one in one of the greatest sports cities in America - Philadelphia - is the culmination of that dream."

Long before his purchase of the Eagles was final, Lurie had begun analyzing how best to turn this franchise into a Super Bowl winner. During that process, he tapped into the knowledge and experience of prominent persons in various professional sports leagues, each of whom had pieced together highly successful franchises and subsequently won numerous championships.

Once the 1994 season was complete, Lurie made swift and bold changes, clearly putting his stamp on the Eagles organization and pointing the franchise in a new direction. From the start, Lurie clearly defined the mission of the organization - to win the Super Bowl. While he noted that the Eagles had experienced a degree of success in recent years, reaching the early rounds of the playoffs in the late '80s and early '90s, he steadfastly said it wasn't the type of success he was interested in. In fact, Lurie wanted to see the pieces put in place that would lead to a number of championships.

The youthful, energetic Lurie personally began laying the groundwork for his club's future. In the process, Lurie took four major steps, moves that many observers feel will make the Eagles a playoff contender in 1995.

On February 2, 1995, Lurie made perhaps the biggest of those moves when he hired San Francisco's dynamic defensive coordinator, Ray Rhodes, as the 19th head coach in Eagles' history, replacing Rich Kotite. Lurie wanted a coach who would be able to build and lead his organization to Super Bowl championships. In Rhodes he found a man who is no stranger to a winning tradition. In his 12 seasons as a 49ers assistant, the Niners earned postseason berths 10 times, advanced to the NFC Championship Game seven times, and won an unprecedented five Super Bowls.

Said Lurie, "Ray Rhodes represents the epitome of who and what I wanted to bring to the Eagles. The discipline, the winning tradition that Ray brings, as well as his ability to relate to players and his ability to recruit players is outstanding. Football in the '90s is very much about talent evaluation, recruiting, about having the ability to motivate players, the ability to command the respect of players, and having a disciplined, businesslike approach. Ray has been part of an organization, the 49ers, that represents very much the way I feel football organizations should be run. He brings that with him in many more ways than you can put on paper."

The second significant move came when Lurie and Rhodes signed the NFL's premier free agent catch of '95, two-time Pro Bowl running back, Ricky Watters. Just last year, in only his fourth NFL season, Watters was an integral part of San Francisco's Super Bowl season as he accounted for over 1,500 all-purpose yards.

One month later, Lurie and Rhodes put into practice the type of bold, aggressive moves Lurie had vowed his organization would make when he purchased the club. On the two days of the NFL draft, April 22-23, the Eagles made seven trades, the biggest of which saw the Birds swiftly and decisively move up in the first round in order to select highly coveted defensive end Mike Mamula with the seventh pick overall. Indeed, the Eagles constantly orchestrated deals, moving up and moving down but never sitting pat, all in an effort to obtain the players they wanted.

The fourth step Lurie made was the hiring of the widely respected Bob Ackles as the club's director of football administration. Ackles, Dallas' director of player personnel in the early 1990's, helped lay the foundation for the turnaround of the Cowboys as an NFL power and for their back-to-back victories in Super Bowls XXVII and XXVIII.

In addition to hiring Ackles, Lurie oversaw the further restructuring of the player personnel department, a process he began on May 17, 1994, his first official day as owner, when he said, "The top priority is for us to become the best organization in terms of information gathering and talent evaluation. Toward that end we will certainly increase the scouting capacity on both the college and pro levels."

To help facilitate this information gathering process Lurie also modernized the club's computer systems. Evidence of such is the new opponent/player analysis software programs now used by both the coaching and scouting staffs, as well as the new editing capabilities installed in the club's video operation.

Shortly after taking over the reins of the Eagles, the 43-year-old Lurie described his philosophy of ownership as "a partnership - a partnership between the city, the fans, and the team. I understand that NFL football is a form of entertainment," he said, "but I am also aware that nothing is more entertaining than winning."

The Birds' owner is certainly familiar with entertainment, having served as the president and chief executive officer of Chestnut Hill Productions, a Los Angeles-based film company, since forming it in 1985. Chestnut Hill has produced several movies, including the HBO hit, Blindside, and the widely acclaimed State of Emergency. Among the other films produced by the company are Sweet Hearts Dance (1988) starring Susan Sarandon and Don Johnson, I Love You to Death (1990) with Kevin Kline, Tracey Ullman, and William Hurt, and V.I. Warshawski (1991) featuring Kathleen Turner.

In addition to his film work, Lurie's other business interests include, among others, international publishing, specialty retailing, and movie exhibition through his investment in Harcourt General and its majority ownership of the Neiman Marcus Group and G C Companies.

Prior to entering business, Lurie was an educator, serving as an adjunct assistant professor of social policy at Boston University, and before that as a teacher at Westford (MA) Academy where he founded that school's alternative education program. As a student, he earned a B.A. from Clark University, a Master's in psychology from Boston University, and a Ph.D in social policy from Brandeis University. In his doctoral thesis, Lurie examined the depiction of women in contemporary film.

Lurie's interest in social issues remains ongoing. As such, he and his wife, Christina, are very active in the local Philadelphia charitable community. Another Lurie project underway entails his co-authoring The Dreaming of America, which explores the parallels in the political and economic history of the entertainment industry with that of the United States at large. He is also co-writing a book about the information superhighway.

Lurie currently serves as a member of the NFL's Expansion Committee and is a key figure locally as a member of the Executive Committee of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a director of the Autism Research Foundation in Boston and has served as a trustee of Clark University.

Born September 8, 1951, in Boston, MA, Lurie grew up in nearby West Newton. He now resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and their two children.

MIMI BOX
Vice President-Chief Financial Officer

Mimi Box joined the Eagles' staff in 1983 as business manager and was promoted to vice president-chief financial officer in July, 1986.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Box, 44, worked for the Internal Revenue Service for 11 years. From 1972-79, she was a special agent in the criminal investigation division of the IRS. During the next three years, she served in two managerial roles in the Mid-Atlantic Regional office and the Wilmington District office.

Born in Philadelphia (12/21/50), Box attended the Academy of Notre Dame de Namur in Villanova before enrolling at Drexel University, where she earned a business administration degree in 1972 and played four years of varsity basketball.

Mimi and her husband, Bob, reside in West Chester, PA, with their children Lauren, 14, and Daniel, 11.

JOE BANNER
Vice President-Administration

In his inaugural press conference as the Philadelphia Eagles owner on May 17th, 1994, shortly after taking possession of the club, Jeffrey Lurie announced the hiring of Joe Banner.

"Joe is a very intelligent and very dedicated guy who will provide this club with a great deal of vision," said Lurie. "He has an extremely diverse background and will be able to help us in so many areas. Joe has been a member of the media, he has worked extensively with high-profile, highly successful community-related organizations, and has a proven track record in business."

In his role as Vice President-Administration with the Birds, the 42-year old Banner (2/13/53) works with the owner in a wide variety of areas and is involved in major facets of the club's day-to-day administration. During his first year with the club, Banner aided Lurie in the hiring of head coach Ray Rhodes, the restructuring of the player personnel department, as well as in modernizing the club's computer systems on all levels, especially the video department's new computer editing capabilities. In addition, Banner also assists in contract negotiations and the management of the club's salary cap.

Banner also was instrumental in the formation of the Eagles Youth Partnership, an organization that will serve as a direct link between the Eagles and the Philadelphia community in the areas of education and child health. In 1995, Banner, a longtime advocate of public service, was appointed by President Bill Clinton to a panel of ten judges nationwide who in turn selected the 15 recipients of the prestigious, 1994 President's Service Award.

After graduating from Denison University in 1975, Banner became a sports producer and reporter at Philadelphia radio station WCAU-AM 1210 (now WGMP). After several years, he left the broadcasting industry and started his own business, Designers Clothing, Ltd. The company prospered and grew under Banner's guidance and in 1992 he sold the business.

In January, 1993, Banner began working with Lurie in the latter's quest to purchase the New England Patriots. When that transaction did not materialize, Lurie - again with the aid of Banner - successfully pursued the Eagles.

At the same time, Banner, who has a long history of community service, particularly through his devotion of time and effort to non-profit organizations, was extremely involved with groups such as Big Brothers, Children's Hospital of Boston and City Year, a youth based organization that functions like an urban Peace Corps. City Year, in fact, is the program on which President Clinton is basing his National Service Program.

Banner and his wife, Helaine, reside in Philadelphia with their daughter, Jill, 6, and their son, Jason (11/4/94).

JEFFREY AUERBACH
Vice President
Business Development & Broadcasting

On June 30, 1994, Jeffrey Auerbach was named to the newly created position of Vice President-Business Development & Broadcasting for the Philadelphia Eagles.

The 35-year old Auerbach, a top executive in the entertainment industry as well as a two-time Emmy-winning producer/writer, has brought a wealth of management level and creative experience to the Eagles front office.

"I'm extremely pleased to add Jeff to the Eagles' front office team," said owner, Jeff Lurie on the day Auerbach was hired. "It was not easy to lure a multi-talented guy like him away from the entertainment industry, but he is exactly the type of person who can add a lot to this franchise. Jeff's knowledge of the entertainment and broadcasting industries, as well as his business acumen, can put the Eagles at the forefront of these new growth opportunities. When I first bought this club I said that I wanted the Eagles to be as aggressive in the front office as we were on the field. With that in mind, it is a real coup of sorts to be able to add a dynamic, aggressive executive like Jeff to the front office."

In only his first year in the NFL, Auerbach has been able to strengthen the franchise's ties with members of the corporate and local business community, developing bold new partnerships with such companies as Miller Brewing, Wawa, Boscov's, Starter, and Doubletree Hotels. In addition, Auerbach negotiated a new long-term radio pact with Infinity Broadcasting's WYSP Radio this spring, giving the Eagles the most lucrative local radio rights deal in NFL history. While developing these and other new business opportunities, he also has been able to augment already existing revenue generating operations through his stewardship of the Eagles' marketing & sponsorship and Penthouse Suites departments.

Auerbach's impact on the Philadelphia business scene was duly noted by the Philadelphia Business Journal which named him to its "40 Under 40" list, highlighting the city's forty fastest-rising executives.

After starting his professional career in a studio mailroom in 1983, Auerbach quickly ascended the corporate ladder serving as President & Chief Operating Officer of Blake Edwards Television from June of 1989 through January of 1993, and then as President & CEO of The Auerbach Company in Los Angeles. In those roles, Auerbach was responsible for the development, production, sales, distribution, and marketing of motion pictures, made-for-television movies, series and specials. Moreover, Auerbach has an extensive background in negotiating licensing fees, distribution agreements, and talent contracts.

During his career in the entertainment field, Auerbach also served as Executive Vice President of Symphony Pictures, a production company owned by renowned actor Martin Sheen. It was with this company that Auerbach earned his first Emmy Award in 1986 as writer/producer of "Babies Having Babies," the highly acclaimed drama on teenage pregnancy for CBS television. His second Emmy came three years later for his teleplay "No Means No," a CBS drama on teenage date rape, which he also directed. Altogether, these two productions garnered a total of 12 Emmy nominations and won 6 of the coveted awards. Among Auerbach's numerous other production credits is the highly acclaimed TNT movie, Nightbreaker, a project he produced dealing with the above ground nuclear testings of the 1950s. That project was nominated for several Cable ACE awards and won Grand Prize at the Houston Film Festival.

A native of both New York City and Ft. Lauderdale, FL, Auerbach graduated from the University of Arizona where he was a center on the Wildcats' football team and a teammate of former Eagles' fullback Hubert Oliver.

BOB ACKLES
Director of Football Administration

On May 15, 1995, owner Jeffrey Lurie hired the widely respected Bob Ackles as the club's director of football administration. In this role, Ackles will oversee the club's player personnel operations, including college and pro scouting, and the negotiation of player contracts. He also will be responsible for the video, training, and equipment staffs.

"I'm very pleased that we were able to attract one of the most talented and respected executives in the National Football League," said Lurie the day Ackles was brought on board. "In the NFL of the '90s, the backbone of winning championships is information gathering and talent evaluation in both the pro and college areas. Organizations win championships and Bob is someone who can come in here as an administrator and an organizer and contribute in a significant way to help this team win championships. Bob's been successful in both the NFL and the CFL for many, many years. He has helped build a Super Bowl winner in the Dallas Cowboys and a Grey Cup winner in the British Columbia Lions."

Ackles, 57, brings a wealth of football knowledge and experience to the Eagles. Most recently, he spent three years in the Arizona Cardinals' front office, serving first as that club's director of college scouting from 1992-93 and then as assistant general manager last season under Buddy Ryan, the former Eagles head coach.

Ackles first joined the NFL ranks in 1986 when he was named as the Cowboys' first-ever vice president of pro personnel. Three years later, he was promoted to vice president of player personnel and helped lay the foundation for the Cowboys' dramatic resurgence as an NFL power. His efforts to acquire talent through several trades, waiver acquisitions, and Plan B free agency provided an infusion of top draft picks and players. Those efforts were rewarded in 1991 when, following an 11-5 regular season, Dallas earned a berth in the playoffs. Just one year later, the Cowboys would claim the first of their back-to-back Super Bowl victories.

"I think the Philadelphia Eagles and Jeff Lurie made a great hire in Bob Ackles," said former Cowboys head coach and current FOX-TV broadcaster Jimmy Johnson. "When I first left college and went into professional football, Bob was a very close associate. We went through a lot of trials and tribulations in all the trades and the moves we made in the organization in obtaining talent. And Bob was very instrumental in helping me obtain that talent. When it came to scouting I think Bob helped me more than anybody during my tenure with the Dallas Cowboys. I think he'll do a great job with Philadelphia."

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ackles spent 11 years as general manager of the CFL's Lions and became recognized as one of that league's most respected and accomplished administrators. Under his leadership, the Lions became one of the CFL's winningest teams, moved into a new stadium, and built a training facility. In his last season with BC, the Lions won the Grey Cup, the CFL's equivalent of the Super Bowl.

Ackles first joined B.C. as a water boy at the age of 15 and over next 34 years, performed virtually every administrative duty in the organization from equipment manager to general manager.

A native Canadian, Ackles was born in Sarnia, Ontario, near the United States border. Raised in Toronto, and Vancouver, British Columbia, he played organized hockey (goalie) for 12 years.

Bob and his wife, Kay, reside in the Philadelphia area. Together they have two married sons, Steve (33) and Scott (30) and three grandchildren.

SARAH HELFMAN

*Executive Director
Eagles Youth Partnership*

Sarah Helfman was named the Executive Director of the Eagles Youth Partnership by owner Jeffrey Lurie on June 12, 1995. The mission of this new nonprofit charitable organization is to improve the quality of life and enhance opportunities for children and youth in the region through education and health partnerships.

The 32-year old (10/17/62) Helfman has devoted much of her career to working with young people. RAY RHODES

Head Coach

On February 2, 1995, Philadelphia Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie made Ray Rhodes the 19th head coach in the 63-year history of the franchise. The 44-year old Rhodes, who most recently served as San Francisco's defensive coordinator, joined the Eagles after helping coach the 49ers to that franchise's unprecedented fifth World Championship in 1994. In fact, Rhodes was an assistant on all five of the 49ers' Super Bowl winning teams, making him one of only four men in NFL history to have served on the staffs of five Super Bowl champions. The others to have earned that distinction are also from that same 49er staff - George Seifert, Bobb McKittrick, and Bill McPherson.

"Ray Rhodes truly represents the epitome of who and what I wanted to bring to the Philadelphia Eagles," said team owner Jeffrey Lurie. "The discipline, the winning tradition that Ray brings, as well as his ability to relate to players and his ability to recruit players is outstanding. In addition, Ray has an uncanny knack for evaluating talent.

"Football in the 90's is very much about recruiting, about having the ability to motivate players, the ability to command the respect of players and having a disciplined, businesslike approach to football. Ray has been part of an organization, the 49ers, that represents very much the way I feel football organizations should be run. He brings that with him in many more ways than you can put on paper."

In Rhodes' 12 seasons as a Niners assistant, the team earned postseason berths 10 times and advanced to the NFC Championship Game on seven occasions. A former wide receiver and defensive back with the New York Giants and 49ers in the 1970s, this Texas native moved into the coaching ranks with San Francisco in 1981. Over the next 14 years, including 12 with the 49ers, Rhodes meticulously prepared for the day he would become an NFL head coach. Along the way, he learned not to simply strive for success, but to expect it.

That degree of expectation was evident on Rhodes first day on the job in Philadelphia when he said, "It's all about winning. There's no substitute. I'm here to produce, I'm here to bring a championship to Philadelphia....I didn't come here to be .500, I didn't come here to make the playoffs, I came here to win a championship. That's the way I was brought up. I was brought up to expect to win. I didn't get into this business to be just an average guy. I want to win a championship. I've been around winning championships. I've been around situations where the only thing that matters is winning. It was expected ... and I want to bring that same attitude to Philadelphia."

With San Francisco's explosive offense receiving much attention throughout the 1994 season, Rhodes - who re-joined the 49ers on February 9, 1994, after a two-year stint as Green Bay's defensive coordinator - quietly orchestrated a stellar defense filled with many new faces. In fact, of that unit's 11 starters, six were new to the team in '94, including veteran free agent acquisitions Ken Norton, Jr., Gary Plummer, Rickey Jackson, and Deion Sanders, as well as a pair of rookies in Lee Woodall and Bryant Young. That reshaped unit went on to rank 2nd in the NFL against the run and 8th in overall defense while racking up 35 takeaways and five defensive touchdowns.

Prior to his most recent stint with San Francisco, Rhodes spent two seasons as the Packers' defensive coordinator under fellow ex-49er assistant Mike Holmgren. In 1993, Rhodes' second year in Green Bay, the Packers defense flourished, helping lead the team to its first playoff appearance since 1982, and sending a pair of Packer defensive players to the Pro Bowl for the first time in 15 years. In all, Rhodes took a unit that had ranked 10th in the NFL in '91 and elevated it to the #2 overall ranking in just two seasons.

When Rhodes ended his 7-year NFL playing career with the Niners after the 1980 season, he joined Bill Walsh's 49er coaching staff as an assistant secondary coach and made an immediate impact. In 1981, Rhodes' first season as an assistant, the Niners won Super Bowl XVI with three rookies starting in the defensive backfield - cornerbacks Ronnie Lott and Eric Wright, and safety Carlton Williamson. The following year, Rhodes was promoted to defensive backs coach, a position he held through 1991. During that period, he developed four Pro Bowl defenders, Lott, Williamson, Wright and safety Dwight Hicks.

Born 10/20/50 in Mexia, TX, Rhodes attended Mexia HS after transferring from Dunbar HS following his sophomore year. As a collegian, he spent two years as a running back at Texas Christian University before transferring to the University of Tulsa, where he was converted to a wide receiver and defensive back. Selected by the New York Giants in the 10th round of the 1974 NFL draft, he played wide receiver in his first three NFL seasons, including 1975 when he led all NFC receivers with a 20.7 yards-per-catch average. Two years later, however, Rhodes was switched to defensive back by the Giants and won a starting job at cornerback. In 1979, he was sent to San Francisco as part of a four-player trade that also saw Tony Dungy, presently the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator, sent from the 49ers to the Giants.

Rhodes is the third African-American head coach in modern NFL history, following the Raiders' Art Shell (1989-94) and Minnesota's Dennis Green (1992-present). In addition, he is one of seven former San Francisco assistants now serving as an NFL head coach. The others, with years as a 49er assistant listed in parentheses, are the 49ers' George Seifert (1980-88), Minnesota's Green (1979, 1986-88), Green Bay's Mike Holmgren (1986-91), Tampa Bay's Sam Wyche (1979-82), Denver's Mike Shanahan (1992-94), and the Raiders' Mike White (1978-79).

Rhodes and his wife Carmen reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ. They have four daughters: Detra (11/4/70), Candra (5/25/76), Tynesha (9/10/79), and Raven (5/23/85).

Q & A WITH RAY RHODES

The following is an excerpt from Ray Rhodes' first press conference as Eagles head coach on February 3, 1995.

On his coaching style: "I'm going to bring a winning attitude, a very positive approach... It's easier for me to bring this in because I've been a part of five world championships. I've been there. It's not hearsay. It's something I've been a part of...."

On why he chose Philadelphia instead of the Rams: "The commitment from Mr. Lurie. He's very committed to getting [it] done. He wants to win a championship. It reminds me of the commitment that [49ers' owner] Mr. [Eddie] DeBartolo has. When we had conversations during my interview, Mr. Lurie and I shared some of the same thoughts as far how we feel about situations. He's committed to winning, I'm committed to winning. Together, I think we can get it done."

On the qualities he exhibited as an assistant that will make him a successful head coach: "As an assistant coach, you're able to get a real good feel for the pulse of a team, the players and the coaches. I had a good rapport with the players from a coach's standpoint. I'm the coach and they're still the players, true enough - but I knew if a guy was ready to play, if he was having personal problems or whatever ... things that, as a coach, you have to have a feel for. I really think I had a good feel for the players and what they were able to do."

On how long he has been ready to be a head coach: "If you look at the 49ers' past rosters, you see quite a few guys from those staffs who are head coaches now. Coach [Bill] Walsh and Coach [George] Seifert do a good job of grooming their coaches. Everything is open in San Francisco. There's a lot of interchange between coaches, management, scouts...."

On whether he was always driven by the desire to be a head coach: "I've always wanted to be a head coach. I'm prepared to be a head coach. I've had a game plan that I've been working on for the last three to four years, during which time I've had people and situations in mind. We've discussed things ... we've been breaking down [teams and players] in the NFL. This is a project that's been going on with a couple guys I'm planning to bring with me. We've broken down tapes of all NFL teams and we've looked at the best plays teams run. I have everything the 49ers have run since 1981 on tape. [Head coaching] is not something that I just came into today unprepared ... it's not something that came up overnight...."

On whether he feels well-prepared in the area of talent evaluation: "I think that's my strong suit. You can talk with Bill Walsh, with George Seifert, Carmen Policy, Eddie DeBartolo and you can ask them about Ray Rhodes and what his strong points are. I think they'll say drafting people and free agency; he knows talent.' I can find talent. I can find people who can play...."

On how he wants to build chemistry: "Winning breeds chemistry. When you're winning, everybody's going to be fine. You just need to breed that. Everything else comes together. One of the things about our [49er] locker rooms is that we had a lot of unselfish players.... That's important. I'm not an ego guy and I don't want our players to have egos. One of the things I'm going to tell players when I meet with them is 'Leave your ego outside. When you come to work, set the ego by the door and be one of us.... Now when you leave, you can pick it back up and take it home with you.' Around our organization, we want to make sure the egos are left outside and that we all are fighting for the same goals - winning championships. There's not a whole lot of room for big egos in this business."

On what constitutes a "Ray Rhodes-type" player: "We're talking about guys who are winners. We want to go out and build a team of winners - guys who have been with winning programs, guys that know how to win, have been in pressure situations and can handle that.... I don't want to bring in a lot of guys who come from losing programs because winning breeds winning ... and the same can be said about losing.... I want guys on the sideline who can't wait to get in the game and make something positive happen. As far as negative attitudes, we don't get involved with that."

On whether he looks at the Eagles as a team that needs to rebuild: "I wouldn't say rebuild. I would say re-tool. I'm not a guy that's here to rebuild....It's like a big puzzle, and all the things I'm looking for are pieces. I'm trying to get the right pieces together. It's a little similar to what we did last year in San Francisco with our defense. We were looking for pieces, pieces of a puzzle, and putting those pieces together."

On being an African-American head coach: "One thing there's going to be a lot of talk about [out there] is me being an African-American and the 2nd or 3rd black coach. That doesn't matter to me. The most important thing is that Mr. Lurie went out and hired me as the best available man. That's what's important. He felt good enough about me to hire me as the best available coach. And that's what I can be judged on. I don't want to be judged on any other thing but being the best available coach...."

On his relationship with former 49ers head coach Bill Walsh: "Bill has been a very big supporter of Ray Rhodes... [he] gave me my first NFL [coaching] job, so I'm very indebted to Bill Walsh. I respect him a great deal because of what he's accomplished. Here's a man who really set the foundation for the 49er organization. The 49er organization still is a reflection of Bill Walsh because he established what's there now. And that's 15 or 16 years of having winning seasons. So Bill Walsh is a special person to me."

On his knowledge of Philly fans: "Any time you play in a great city like this that has a great fan base, it's a tough crowd because they want to win. When we win in this stadium - which we will do - you're going to find the best fans in America. It's all about winning. If I were a fan in the stands and things aren't going right, I'm going to boo.... That's what it's about. That's football. You want to see a good product on the field and want to see a winning situation."

1995 ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL CALLAHAN

Offensive Line

Bill Callahan was named as the Eagles new offensive line coach on February 13, 1994. The 38-year old Callahan (born 7/31/56) spent the last five seasons coaching the University of Wisconsin's offensive line, a unit largely responsible for the Badgers' resurgence as a Big 10 and national power.

Over the past two seasons, Wisconsin linemen earned nine 1st team All-Big 10 honors on units selected by the media and by the conference's coaches. Among the Badgers named to those All-Big 10 teams were Joe Panos, a 3rd round pick of the Eagles' in '94 and the club's starting right guard, and center Corey Raymer, a second round pick of the Redskins in '95, who last season became UW's first consensus All-America in 13 years. Wisconsin's strong offensive line play over those same two seasons enabled the Badgers to top 5,000 yards of offense for the first time ever in 1993, and again in 1994. In that same span, the Badgers averaged 251 and 241 rushing yards per game, respectively, their second and third best outputs in school history.

Prior to serving at Wisconsin, Callahan spent 1989 as the offensive coordinator at Southern Illinois where his unit set 18 school marks. Before that, he served a two-year stint (1987-88) as offensive line coach at Northern Arizona. Callahan began his coaching career at Illinois, serving first as a graduate assistant and then as a full-time assistant from 1982-87, coaching a variety of different positions including tight ends, offensive line, quarterbacks, and special teams.

A Chicago native, Callahan received a B.A. degree from Illinois Benedictine where he was a three-year starter at quarterback and an NAIA honorable mention All-America pick in 1976-77.

He and his wife Valerie reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their four children, daughters Cathryn and Jaclyn and sons Brian and Danny.

GERALD CARR

Wide Receivers

Gerald Carr, 35, comes to the Eagles after spending the last 11 seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks. Most recently, he spent the 1992-94 campaigns as the quarterbacks coach at the University of North Carolina. During that time, he was responsible for the development of Tar Heel quarterback Jason Stanicek who set school records in virtually every passing category.

After beginning his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Illinois in 1981, Carr spent '83 - '85 at Davidson coaching receivers and defensive backs. He then tutored quarterbacks and receivers at Akron for three years before moving on to Washington State as receivers coach from 1989-90 and then the University of Arizona as quarterbacks coach in 1991.

A native of Davidson, NC, Carr (born 6/28/59) starred at North Mecklenburg HS before moving on to Southern Illinois (1977-80) where he played quarterback and earned a degree in administrative science. He is a cousin of Mel Hoover, a wide receiver with the Eagles from 1982-84.

Carr and his wife Vanessa reside in Sicklerville, NJ, with their two daughters, Ashonti and Miteya.

JUAN CASTILLO
Offensive Assistant

Juan Castillo joined the Eagles' coaching staff on March 1, 1995, as an offensive assistant. In this role, he will work closely with coordinator Jon Gruden and the offensive position coaches, assisting in game-planning, the studying of game tapes of the Eagles and their opponents, and with various on-field responsibilities.

Castillo comes to the Eagles from Texas A&M-Kingsville (formerly Texas A&I University), where he was the Javelinas offensive line coach since 1990. During that time, Castillo aided in the development of five Division II All-America offensive linemen, including tackle Earl Dotson, who was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the 3rd round of the 1993 draft. He also served as a summer coaching intern for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1994), Seattle Seahawks (1993), and Buffalo Bills (1992).

A former linebacker with Texas A&M-Kingsville and the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers, Castillo began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Javelinas before spending 1986-89 on the staff at Kingsville (TX) High School.

The 35-year old Castillo (born 10/8/59) is a native of Port Isabel, TX. He and his wife, Zaida, reside in Moorestown, NJ, with their two sons, Gregory and John.

JON GRUDEN

Offensive Coordinator

One of the first moves Ray Rhodes made when he took over the Eagles' head coaching reins in February was to name Jon Gruden as the club's new offensive coordinator. The NFL's youngest offensive coordinator at age 31, Gruden will be responsible for all aspects of the offense, including the implementation of the "West Coast" offense made famous by the San Francisco 49ers of the 1980s and '90s and successfully adopted by the Green Bay Packers.

Gruden, considered by many NFL coaches and executives as one of the finest young offensive minds in the game today, spent the past three seasons with the Packers. The Tampa, FL, native first joined the Pack's staff as offensive/quality control coach in 1992 before being promoted to wide receivers coach in 1993.

Prior to joining the Packers, Gruden enjoyed a rapid ascent through the coaching ranks, making five different coaching stops in a five-year span. He first served as the passing game coordinator at Southeast Missouri State for one year before moving to the University of the Pacific in 1989 where he coached wide receivers. He then became an offensive assistant with the San Francisco 49ers during the '90 season and worked closely with current Green Bay head coach Mike Holmgren, then the 49ers' offensive coordinator. In 1991, Gruden joined then-head coach Paul Hackett's staff at the University of Pittsburgh to tutor the Panthers' wide receivers.

A degree of Gruden's early success in football may be attributed to his being born into a football family — his father, Jim, is a regional scout for the San Francisco 49ers and formerly served as the backfield coach under John McKay with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Born 8/17/63 in Sandusky, OH, Jon went on to the University of Dayton where he was a three-year letterman as a quarterback before graduating in 1985 with a degree in communications. He then began his coaching career by spending two seasons (1986-87) as a graduate assistant at the University of Tennessee.

Jon is married to the former Cindy Brooks, a one-time cheerleader at Tennessee. The couple resides in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their son, Jon David II (1/19/94).

DICK JAMIESON

Running Backs

Dick Jamieson begins his first season with the Eagles after being named the club's running backs coach on February 13, 1995.

The 57-year old Jamieson (11/13/37) most recently served as running backs coach at Rutgers University from 1992-94. In addition to an extensive coaching background at the collegiate level, Jamieson spent six seasons as an assistant with the St. Louis Cardinals, coaching running backs and quarterbacks from 1980-84 before being elevated to offensive coordinator in '85. During that time, he was instrumental in aiding the development of talented running backs Ottis Anderson and Stump Mitchell as well as Pro Bowl quarterback Neil Lomax. He then spent the 1986-87 seasons as the Houston Oilers running backs coach, overseeing a group that included future Pro Bowler Mike Rozier.

In addition to his stint at Rutgers, Jamieson also tutored quarterbacks and receivers at Missouri from 1973-77 before posting an 11-11 record in 1978-79 as a head coach at Indiana State. Later, following his stints with the NFL's Cardinals and Oilers, Jamison returned to the collegiate level serving as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Northwestern from 1990-91.

A native of Peoria, IL, Jamieson was a standout quarterback and baseball player at Bradley University from 1955-58. After leading the nation's small colleges in total offense, Jamieson signed a baseball contract with the Pittsburgh Pirates and spent 1958-59 with that organization. In 1959, he returned to football as a backup to Hall of Fame quarterback Johnny Unitas with the Baltimore Colts before spending 1960-61 with the AFL's New York Titans.

Jamieson and his wife Rosalie reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. Together they have three children - Jeff, Tim, and Judi and four grandchildren. His brother is ABC-TV News correspondent Bob Jamieson.

CHUCK KNOX, Jr.

Defensive Assistant

Chuck Knox, Jr. joined head coach Ray Rhodes' Eagles coaching staff on March 10, 1995, as a defensive assistant. In that role, he will work closely with coordinator Emmitt Thomas and the defensive position coaches, assisting in game-planning, the studying of film of the Eagles and their opponents, and with various on-field responsibilities.

The 30-year old Knox (2/19/65) comes to the Eagles from the Los Angeles Rams, where his father, Chuck, Sr., was head coach for the past three seasons. In 1994, the younger Knox served as the Rams running backs coach and, in that role, worked closely with Pro Bowl RB Jerome Bettis. Prior to that he spent the '93 season as a Rams coaching intern, aiding the offensive assistants with computer analysis of opponents and with the Rams' self-scouting procedure.

As a junior at Orchard Park (NY) High School, Knox was a teammate of current Philadelphia Phillie, Dave Hollins. Knox was the club's leading rusher while Hollins was an all-league quarterback. After his father became the coach of the Seattle Seahawks the next season, Knox transferred to Bellevue (WA) High School for his senior year and earned all-state honors. He then was a three-year letterman at the University of Arizona from 1985-87.

Knox and his wife, Anfreia, reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ.

DANNY SMITH
Special Teams

Danny Smith, who spent the past eight years as an assistant at Georgia Tech, begins his first year overseeing the Birds' special teams. During his tenure at Tech, Smith served as the Yellow Jackets' assistant head coach from 1992-94, and also tutored running backs (1987-91), wide receivers (1992-93), and defensive backs (1994), in addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator last year.

In 1990, Smith's fourth season as an assistant with the Yellow Jackets, Bobby Ross' Tech squad went 12-0 to earn the national championship (UPI) as the nation's only undefeated major college team.

Before joining the staff at Georgia Tech, Smith coached at The Citadel (defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach, 1984-86), William & Mary (defensive backs and ends, 1980-83), and Clemson (defensive backs, 1979). Smith, now 40 (11/7/54), began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Edinboro (PA) State, where he received his bachelor of science degree in elementary and special education in 1976. He then spent two years at his former high school, Central Catholic, in Pittsburgh, PA, where he tutored current Miami Dolphin quarterback Dan Marino.

Danny and his wife, Elaine, reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their two daughters, Erin, 15, and Courtney, 11, and son, Jason, 5.

EMMITT THOMAS

Defensive Coordinator

On February 7, 1995, just four days after becoming the Eagles head coach, Ray Rhodes named Emmitt Thomas as his defensive coordinator. In Thomas, Rhodes found a man much like himself - a Texas native and former NFL defensive back who went on to earn multiple Super Bowl rings as an assistant coach.

No stranger to the Eagles and the NFC East, the 52-year-old Thomas spent the last 14 seasons as an assistant in the division, first with the Cardinals (1981-85) and then with the Redskins (1986-94).

After spending his first season with the Redskins tutoring wide receivers, Thomas spent the next eight years as Washington's secondary coach (the first six of those under head coach Joe Gibbs, the last two under Richie Petitbon and Norv Turner, respectively).

In Thomas' tenure with the 'Skins, the team made five playoff appearances, won two NFC titles, and captured victories in Super Bowls XXII and XXVI. Under his guidance, the Redskins also finished among the top five in the NFL in interceptions twice from 1991-94.

Before joining the Washington staff, Thomas coached the Cardinals receivers from 1981-85. In 1984, his pass catchers, led by Pro Bowler Roy Green, ranked first in the NFC in receptions. Thomas' first coaching experience came as defensive backfield coach at Central Missouri State (1979-80).

Born June 3, 1943, in Angleton, TX, Thomas went on to become a quarterback and receiver at Bishop (TX) College (1963-65). He then signed with the Kansas City Chiefs as a free agent and made a successful transition to defensive back.

In his 13-year playing career with the Chiefs (1966-78), Thomas played in five Pro Bowls and in Super Bowls I and IV. He twice led the NFL in interceptions and finished his career with 58 INTs, including one in Kansas City's Super Bowl IV victory over Minnesota. In fact, Thomas holds the distinction of being the last AFL player to record an interception with his INT in the closing moments of that Super Bowl (the AFL and NFL merged the following year).

The father of two children, Derek and Debra, Thomas and his wife, Jacqui, reside in Voorhees, NJ.

MIKE TRGOVAC

Defensive Line

Thirty five-year old Mike Trgovac (pronounced TER-guh-vak) spent the last three seasons as an assistant on Lou Holtz's staff at Notre Dame, where he vastly improved the Fighting Irish's defensive line and sent two players on to the NFL. Trgovac became the Notre Dame defensive line coach in 1992 and was promoted to assistant head coach a year later after the Irish's defensive front flourished under his guidance, tripling its sack total from the previous year with 36.

In 1994, he saw a pair of his players selected early in the NFL draft as San Francisco took tackle Bryant Young with the seventh pick in the first round and Chicago grabbed tackle Jim Flanigan in the 3rd round. As an NFL rookie, the well-prepared Young started every game for the Super Bowl champion 49ers, whose defense was under the direction of then-coordinator Ray Rhodes, now the Eagles head coach.

Prior to his stint in South Bend, Trgovac served as the defensive line coach on staffs at Colorado State (1990-91), Navy (1989), and Ball State (1986-88) after beginning his coaching career by spending two seasons as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Michigan.

As a collegian himself, Trgovac started three seasons at middle guard for Bo Schembechler's Michigan defense from 1978-80. He twice earned All-Big 10 honors, was a second team All-America selection as a senior, and was a member of three Big 10 championship teams.

Trgovac went on to graduate from Michigan in 1982 with a degree in education. Today, he and his wife, Angela, reside in Marlton, NJ, with their daughter, Jordan.

JOE VITT

Linebackers

Although a newcomer to the Eagles coaching staff in 1995, Joe Vitt is no stranger to the NFL or to the Philadelphia area. A native of nearby Blackwood, NJ, Vitt returns to the Delaware Valley this year with 16 seasons of NFL experience. Most recently, Vitt spent the last three years with the Los Angeles Rams as the assistant head coach/secondary coach under Chuck Knox.

Now 40, Vitt first broke into the league as the weight training coordinator for the Baltimore Colts (1979-81) before joining the Seattle Seahawks in the same capacity in 1982. One year later, when Knox was made the Seahawks head coach,

ASSISTANT COACHES

Vitt became the club's special assignments coach and saw his duties expanded. He then went on to work under Knox, primarily with Seattle's secondary for the next eight seasons.

Born 8/23/54 in Syracuse, NY, Vitt became a three-year letterman at linebacker for Towson State University in Maryland after attending Highland Regional High in Blackwood, NJ. Today, Joe and his wife, Linda, reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their two children, Joe Jr., (15) and Jennifer (13).

TED WILLIAMS

Tight Ends

Ted Williams, who coached in the college ranks for the past 15 years, is now in his first season overseeing the Birds' tight ends. The 51-year old Williams most recently served as secondary coach at the University of Arizona in 1994. Prior to that, he spent three years (1991-93) as offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Washington State and the previous 10 as an assistant on Terry Donahue's UCLA staff, tutoring the Bruins' linebackers from 1980-86 and running backs from 1987-89.

During his tenure at UCLA, the Bruins went to eight straight bowl games and Williams aided in the development of All-America linebackers Ken Norton, Jr., and Carnel Lake, and heralded running backs Gaston Green, Eric Ball, and Mel Farr.

After serving more than a decade as a football coach, teacher, and athletic director at Compton (CA) High School, Williams was named head coach at Los Angeles City College in 1980 but a short time later accepted an offer from Donahue to join the Bruins' staff.

A high school basketball and baseball star himself at Centennial High in Compton, Williams earned a place in the Cal Poly Pomona University baseball Hall of Fame. A 1966 graduate of CPP with a degree in biological sciences and physical education, Williams went on to earn a Master's degree, a second undergraduate degree in zoological science, and his teaching-administration credentials from Cal State Los Angeles in 1968.

Born in Lyons, TX, (11/17/43) Williams and his wife, Theresa, have two sons, Daryl, 25, and Donald, 8, and a daughter, Terri, 23.

MIKE WOLF

Strength and Conditioning

Mike Wolf, 29, joined Ray Rhodes' coaching staff as the Eagles' strength and conditioning coordinator after spending the past three seasons as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Minnesota Vikings.

Wolf began his career as a graduate assistant strength coach at Vanderbilt (1988-89). He then served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Lehigh University (1990) and as an assistant at Penn State for one season prior to joining the Vikings.

Wolf attended Penn State from 1984-87 and played guard, center and tackle for the Nittany Lions. As a senior, he began the year as the team's starting center but suffered a season-ending hamstring injury midway through the campaign.

A native of Allentown, PA, (5/15/65) Wolf was an all-state center at William Allen High before going on to Penn State. Wolf then earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science from Penn State and a master's degree in health promotion and exercise science from Vanderbilt. His brother, Joe, a standout offensive lineman for Boston College, is entering his seventh season in '95 as member of the Arizona Cardinals.

Mike and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Marlton, NJ.

BARON BAPTISTE

Peak Performance Specialist

Baron Baptiste was named to the newly created position of peak performance specialist by Eagles' owner Jeffrey Lurie on April 26, 1995.

In this position, Baptiste, one of the leading specialists in dynamic stretching and injury prevention, will oversee the team's stretching regimen and will also be responsible for the players' nutritional intake.

The son of Walt Baptiste, a former Mr. America and Mr. Universe, Baron has taught classes on high performance nutrition and peak training specialties. A native of Beverly Hills, CA, Baptiste has designed a "power stretching conditioning workout" - a rigorous, super flexibility and strength-building series of poses designed to transform and increase joint mobility, agility, muscle flexibility, coordination and mental focus.

Baron has worked with entertainers like Raquel Welch, Ali McGraw, Helen Hunt, Paula Abdul, Lolita Davidovich, Shirley McLaine, and athletes such as John McEnroe, Ken Norton, and Kareem Abdul Jabbar.

Baron and his wife, D'Ana, reside in Gladwyne, PA, with their son, Luke (1/22/93).

CHUCK BANKER

Director of Pro Personnel

On July 5, 1994, new Eagles owner Jeffrey Lurie named the highly respected talent evaluator, Chuck Banker, to the newly created position of director of pro personnel.

"With the salary cap in place and with free agency being what it is today," said Lurie, "a key way to increase your chances of winning championships is to be the best at gathering and evaluating information on player personnel. The addition of a respected football man and talent evaluator like Chuck to the pro-scouting side undoubtedly makes us a better club."

In this role, Banker, a veteran of 14 NFL seasons as an assistant coach and scout, works with Bob Ackles, the club's director of football administration, and is responsible for the evaluation of pro players and for making recommendations that will aid the club in the acquisition of veteran talent through free agency, trades, and waivers.

A native of Prescott, AZ, Banker's first stint in the NFL was as an assistant coach with the St. Louis Cardinals from 1980-85 under then head coach Jim Hanifan. Banker then spent the 1987-88 NFL campaigns as a special teams coach on Joe Gibbs' Washington Redskins staff, and helped guide that club to a Super Bowl victory over Denver following the '87 season. From 1989 through the spring of '94, Banker served as a scout with the Redskins who captured another NFL title in that span by defeating the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXVII.

The 54-year old (3/12/41) Banker was born in Prescott, AZ, and attended Monrovia (CA) High before graduating from Westminster College (UT) with a degree in physical education. He currently resides in Moorestown, NJ, with his three children, Christy, 22, Sara, 20, and Bryan, 18.

JOHN WOOTEN

Director of College Scouting

A success on a variety of levels in the NFL — as a player, a scout, and as an executive — John Wooten now begins his third season directing the Eagles' college scouting department.

Immediately prior to joining the Eagles, Wooten, one of the highest-ranking minorities in the NFL, spent a year as the league's director of player programs, overseeing the league's services with regard to continuing education, financial planning, offseason internships, and family assistance.

Before working at the league office, Wooten spent 16 years with the Dallas Cowboys, beginning as a scout and eventually ascending to the rank of director of pro personnel. Wooten headed the Cowboys' player personnel department from 1989-91 and is widely credited with helping rebuild the Cowboys into a Super Bowl winner through key drafts and trades. In his tenure as personnel director, Dallas drafted such stars as quarterback Troy Aikman, center Mark Stepnoski, and fullback Daryl Johnston. Former Cowboys head coach Jimmy Johnson, in particular, credited Wooten with also orchestrating trades that enabled Dallas to draft defensive tackle Russell Maryland and star running back Emmitt Smith.

Wooten's stint with the Cowboys followed 10 years in the NFL as a player and another as a player agent. Drafted by Cleveland in the fifth round in 1959, Wooten started nine seasons at guard for the Browns under head coaches Paul Brown and Blanton Collier and one season with Washington. So great was his impact on the Browns, he was named to the organization's all-time team by Cleveland fans in 1979. During his playing days, Wooten was selected to two Pro Bowls and, in 1965, was named all-pro while helping Cleveland to a 27-0 thrashing of Baltimore in the NFL Championship Game.

As a prep star, Wooten lettered in football and, as a basketball center, led Carlsbad (NM) High to two state championships. He then went on to an All-America career at the University of Colorado and, in 1989, was named to that school's all-century team.

The 59-year old (12/5/36) Wooten and his wife Beverly reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. They have two daughters, Gina and Lynette, and one son, John David.

BILL BAKER, Jr.
West Region Scout

Although Bill Baker enters his first season with the Birds' scouting staff, he is no stranger to the NFL after having spent the last 10 years as a regional scout with the New Orleans Saints.

The 41-year old Baker (8/2/53), who will be responsible for scouting the West region of the country for the Eagles, was an outside linebacker for the University of Arizona before accepting a coaching position at Purdue in 1978. In 1982, he became director of college scouting for the United States Football League's Arizona Wranglers. He then spent 1983 with the Michigan Panthers and 1984 with the Oakland Invaders as director of college scouting for each club.

His father, Bill, Sr., a scout with the Kansas City Chiefs, has had two tours of duty as a talent scout for the Eagles (from 1975-81 and again from 1984-87).

He and his wife, Sally, reside in Boise, ID. He has one son, Bill (Bo) III.

TODD BRUNNER

Northeast Region Scout

Todd Brunner enters his second season as a full-time member of the Eagles' scouting staff. After two years of assisting the player personnel department in various manners, Brunner now serves as the club's college scout in the northeast.

After a standout playing career at Lehigh University, Brunner earned a Master's Degree in Education/Sports Administration from Temple in 1993, while also serving as a graduate assistant on the Owls 1991 coaching staff. As the starting quarterback for the Engineers in 1989, Brunner set several school records and still ranks first on Lehigh's all-time list with a career completion percentage of 60.2%. Prior to attending college, he lettered in football and basketball at Lawrence (NJ) HS.

The 26-year old Brunner hails from a football family. His father, John, is currently an area scout with the San Francisco 49ers after serving as an assistant coach at Detroit, Green Bay, Tampa Bay, and Minnesota. His brother, Scott, is a former NFL quarterback with the New York Giants, Denver and St. Louis.

Todd and his wife, Nancy, reside in Florence, NJ.

JAKE HALLUM

Southeast Region Scout

After serving as a regional scout for National Football Scouting the past three years, Jake Hallum became a member of the Eagles' player personnel department in June and will function as the club's regional scout in the Southeast portion of the country.

Prior to joining National, with whom he scouted the states of Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Mississippi, the 56-year old Hallum had been a coach on the college level for 24 years. After serving as head coach at Morehead State (KY) from 1968-71, he went on to Maryland and served as the Terrapins' offensive line coach from 1972-81. He then served as an assistant at Kentucky (1982-89) before spending 1990-91 at Arizona State as an offensive line/tight ends coach.

Hallum was a guard and linebacker at Newberry (SC) College (1957-60) and earned his master's degree from Murray State in 1965. He coached high school football at his alma mater, Pickens (SC) HS (1960-62), Hopkinsville (KY) HS (1962-66), and Paul G. Blazer HS in Ashland, KY (1966-67).

Jake and his wife, Mable reside in Cypress, TX. They have two children, Todd (31) and Bart (27). He was born 11/2/38 in Liberty, SC.

DAN SHONKA

Midwest Region Scout

Shonka is in his second year with the Eagles after joining the club as a regional college scout in 1994. The 42-year-old (9/19/52) native of Cedar Rapids, IA, came to the Eagles with a wide range of football experience. Shonka spent 1987-93 as an area scout for National Football Scouting, a service to which 14 NFL teams, including the Eagles, subscribe. He also spent a year (1983) covering the midwest region for the USFL's Philadelphia Stars (1983).

Shonka's coaching resume includes stints as a highly successful head coach at New Mexico Highlands (1984-86), Independence (KS) Community College (1981-82), and Highland (KS) Community College (1980). The University of Iowa grad helped turn around the football program at all three of those schools, each of whom had experienced a 1-8 campaign the year before his arrival. In fact, his New Mexico Highlands squads set over 50 team, conference, and NAIA records. Prior to that, Shonka was an assistant at Purdue (1977-78) and Rice (1976).

Dan and his wife, Peggy, are co-publishers of College Football Preview, an annual national sports magazine for small college football. Shonka has also been active in greyhound adoption programs nationally and has helped get over 400 retired racers homes over the past seven years.

Dan and Peggy reside in Cedar Rapids with their two children, Sarah (10) and Teddy (6).

JEFF SMITH

National Scout

Entering his 16th season as an NFL scout, Jeff Smith begins his first season with the Eagles player personnel department as a national scout responsible for evaluating draft-eligible players throughout the entire country.

The 48-year old Smith spent the last two seasons with Denver as the Broncos' director of college scouting. In that role, he coordinated all phases of the Broncos' college scouting operation. Prior to that, he was a member of the Dallas Cowboys' scouting department from 1984-92, working with current Eagles director of football operations, Bob Ackles, and current Eagles director of college scouting, John Wooten.

Smith first entered the NFL ranks in 1980 when he became a full-time scout with the Seahawks after spending the previous four seasons grading film on a part-time basis for Seattle, while coaching full-time at Mercer Island (WA) HS. He began his coaching career at South Mercer (WA) Junior HS in 1970.

After two years as an offensive tackle with Washington State, Smith transferred to the University of Hawaii. He later returned to WSU, where he earned his degree in science education and mathematics.

Smith was born in Williamsport, PA (5/20/47), and grew up in Clarkston, WA, where he attended Clarkston HS. He and his wife, Ann Bixby, reside in Dallas.

VIC RAPP Pro Personnel Scout

Vic Rapp enters his first season with the Eagles player personnel department after 10 years as an assistant coach on the NFL ranks. By the joining the Birds, the 59-year old Rapp (12/23/35) will reunite with Eagles' director of football administration Bob Ackles, who had served as the general manager of the CFL's British Columbia Lions during Rapp's tenure as the their head coach. With the Birds, he will assist director of pro personnel Chuck Banker in scouting and evaluating players throughout the league.

Out of pro football for the past two years, Rapp's most recent stint in the NFL came in Chicago (1989-92), where he served as the Bears wide receivers coach. Before joining the Bears, Rapp was a running backs coach with the Detroit Lions (1987-88), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985-86), and Los Angeles Rams (1984). He received his first NFL job with Houston in 1983 as a running backs/tight ends assistant.

As the head coach of the B.C. Lions from 1977-82, Rapp guided his teams to a 55-42-4 record, while leading the Lions to two conference championships.

An outstanding guard and linebacker at Southwest Missouri State, Rapp accepted his first college position at Arizona (1965-66) as an offensive line assistant. He then moved on to Missouri (1967-71) to handle the passing game before joining the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos as their offensive coordinator (1972-76).

Born in Marionville, MO on 12/23/35, Vic and his wife, Carol, reside in the Philadelphia area. They have three daughters, Rhonda, Paula, and Marla.

OTHO DAVIS

Head Athletic Trainer

Otho Davis, a certified and licensed athletic trainer, is one of the most highly respected men in his field. Now in his 23rd year as head trainer for the Philadelphia Eagles, Davis' skills have been continuously recognized by the National Athletic Trainers' Association which has named him "Professional Trainer of the Year" five times (1977, 1978, 1980, 1981, and 1987) and inducted him into the Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame in 1981. On May 1, 1993 Davis was also enshrined into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame - Philadelphia Chapter. In 1982, he received the Distinguished Service Award for Sports Medicine from the American Orthopedics Society for Sports Medicine. His other honors include having been inducted into the Southwest Athletic Trainers' Association (Texas and Arkansas) Hall of Fame in 1987 and being a member of "Who's Who in the East." He is also a member of the Kent State University Hall of Fame and an Honorary member of the Kent State Varsity "K". Davis also holds memberships in various professional organizations, including the International Narcotic Enforcement Officers Association.

Davis was also nominated in April, 1993 by the Professional Football Writers Association (PFWA) for the Horrigan Award. This honor is bestowed upon the league or club official or player for his qualities and professional style in helping pro football writers do his or her job.

Davis formerly served as the charter president of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society. From 1971 to 1989 he also was the executive director of the NATA, an organization whose national headquarters office building in Dallas is named in his honor.

Davis is a member of the Board of Advisors of the Ed Block Courage Award which honors a player from all 28 NFL teams each season who, in the eyes of their teammates, best displays courage. He also is a member of the Board of Governors of the Maxwell Football Club and a past member of the executive committee of the Professional Athletic Trainers' Society.

A native of Elgin, TX, Davis, 61 (2/8/34), attended South Park High in Beaumont (TX) and later earned a B.S. degree in physical education from Lamar University in 1957 and an M.A. degree in 1964 from Kent State, where he was head trainer from 1957-1965. Prior to that, he served in the U.S. Army Medical Service Corp from 1954-56 with the United States Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas and was trainer for the Beaumont (TX) "Exporter" baseball club in 1956.

Davis became head trainer and assistant professor of physical education at Duke in 1965 before joining the Baltimore Colts in 1971 as an associate trainer and the Eagles in 1973 as head trainer.

With the Eagles, Davis, who was named to CBS' 1993 All-Madden Team, supervises a training facility and program that rank among the best in professional sports, using state-of-the-art systems for training and rehabilitation practices. He also is very active in the education of young trainers and has established a unique program to give outstanding prospects an opportunity to work on the professional level. In 1995, Davis will be assisted by Spencer Gantt, a 25-year old, 1994 graduate of Texas A&M-Kingsville University and by Jonathon Salazer of Penn State, Andrew Wetstein of C.W. Post University, and Jason Dean of Salisbury State.

Davis and his wife, the former Mary Louise Buzzeo of Lynbrook, NY, reside in Blackwood, NJ. Together, they are the parents of five children: Mark, 38, Harry Roy, 32, Richard, 30, Tom, 26, and Denise, 37.

DAVID PRICE
Assistant Athletic Trainer

David Price, a product of Otho Davis' intern program for athletic trainers, is beginning his 10th year as Davis' assistant. As a licensed and certified athletic trainer, he is responsible for the management and treatment of injuries, institutes preventive therapy, and oversees players' rehabilitation programs. Along with Davis, Price has also been instrumental in updating the Eagles' training room with the latest computer systems and methods for tracking players' injuries and upgrading state of the art rehabilitation equipment.

Prior to joining the Eagles on a full-time basis, Price served as head trainer for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL from 1983-85. During that time, the club won two Championships and finished in second place once.

A native of Quakertown, PA, Price received his B.S. degree in health and physical education with specialization in sports medicine/athletic training from Lock Haven (PA) University, where he starred at linebacker for three years during the fall and was a student trainer for the winter and spring sports programs.

Price, 35 (1/28/60), broke into the NFL as an intern under Davis during the 1981 training camp and spent the 1982 season with the Eagles as an assistant trainer.

As a Certified Athletic Trainer, Price belongs to the National Athletic Trainers Association. He also belongs to the Professional Football, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey Athletic Trainers Societies. Price is single and resides in Blackwood, NJ.

ARTHUR BARTOLOZZI, M.D.
Orthopedic Consultant

Dr. Arthur Bartolozzi was named the Eagles' team physician and orthopedic specialist on February 15, 1995 by owner Jeffrey Lurie.

Bartolozzi, who brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in orthopedic medicine to the Eagles, has been the head orthopedic surgeon for the Philadelphia Flyers since 1990. The 39-year old Bartolozzi (1/7/56) also works as the team physician for the Philadelphia Freedom soccer club, team orthopedic surgeon for Rowan (NJ) College, and assistant team physician for the United States National soccer team.

Bartolozzi, who is currently the chief of Sports Medicine at the Rothman Institute in Philadelphia, also serves as a staff orthopedic surgeon at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. In addition, he serves as an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery at Thomas Jefferson University in Philadelphia and as an instructor in the department of physical therapy at the University of Delaware.

A native of Trenton, NJ, Bartolozzi received his A.B. degree in chemistry from Brown University in 1977 and then went on to earn his M.D. at the University of California-San Diego in 1981. He has since had postgraduate training and fellowship appointments at both the University of Pennsylvania and at UCLA.

Bartolozzi resides in Philadelphia with his wife, Terry, and their two sons, James and Arthur.

JAY MOORE, M.D.
Team Internist

Jay Richard Moore, M.D., begins his eighth season as an internist with the Eagles. Moore, 60 (5/6/35), has been in private practice of internal medicine and nephrology at Graduate Hospital in Philadelphia since 1971.

Born in West Chester, PA, Moore went on to receive an A.B. degree from Harvard in 1957 and an M.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1961. He served his internship, residency, and nephrology fellowship at Graduate Hospital (1961-1969), during which time he served as a flight surgeon in the USAF from 1963-65. Dr. Moore was on the clinical faculty at Penn's Medical School from 1968 through 1983, and has received several awards for excellence in teaching at Graduate Hospital.

DAVID GREENWALD, Ph. D
Player Relations Consultant

In September of 1992, Dr. David Greenwald joined the Eagles as the club's player relations consultant, a position previously held by Dr. Lem Burnham who left the Eagles to become the director of player relations for the National Football League.

Greenwald came to the Eagles with an extensive background in the field of psychology, including 20 years of clinical experience. He currently serves as the clinical director of the Crossroads Center for Psychiatry and Psychology, in Doylestown, PA. He also has a private practice in Philadelphia.

A native of New York, NY, Greenwald attended New Lincoln High School before earning his B.A. in sociology from Brandeis University and his Ph.D. in clinical psychology from Adelphi University.

With the Eagles, Greenwald serves as the team's psychologist as well as coordinator of NFL player programs which include continuing education, financial planning, offseason internships and family assistance.

The 48-year-old Greenwald (6/8/47) resides in Carversville, PA with his wife, Wendy, their son, Abe, 19, and daughter Anna, 15.

PRO CAREER: With a Pro Bowl selection and two 1,000-yard seasons on his resume, Barnett has clearly established himself as one of the NFL's premier wide receivers ... a true deep threat, 10 of his 23 regular season touchdown grabs have covered over 46 yards ... similarly, 22 of his 260 career receptions (one out of every 11.8 catches) have gone for 35-or-more yards ... indeed, Barnett has flourished as a pro receiver despite coming from run-oriented Arkansas State ... 1990: By the end of his rookie year, this 3rd round draft choice (the 77th selection overall) had emerged as a star ... hauled in 8 TD passes, including a 95-ydr. from Randall Cunningham @Buf. - the 2nd longest play from scrimmage in Eagles' history and the longest in the NFL in '90 ... began playing in the nickel and then shuttled in plays with starters Mike Quick and Calvin Williams before making his first pro start in game 4 when Quick rested his knees ... took over the starting role opposite Williams in game 6 when Quick was placed on Injured Reserve ... at season's end, ranked 2nd on the club in both receiving yds. (721) and TD receipts. ... his 8 TD receipts. tied Bobby Walston for 2nd on the Eagles' all-time list among rookies behind Williams' 9 ... recorded three 100-yd. rec. games (including a season-high 114 yds. vs. Minn.), and made his first TD receipt. on a 21-yd. pass from Cunningham vs. Colts ... also turned in the first 2-TD day of his career @Phx. ... 1991: Began the season on a tear, catching a 75-yard TD pass on opening day; added a 70-yarder @Cleve. and never looked back ... was the club's receiving leader in terms of receptions (62) and yards (948) while hauling in 4 TD passes ... flourished as a long-ball threat despite the merry-go-round at QB where injuries put 5 different passers in the lineup over the first 8 games ... registered then career-highs of 8 receipts. and 146 yds. @Cleve. ... was the first Eagle receiver to have consecutive 100-yard outings since Mike Quick in '86 ... 1992: Earned his first Pro Bowl berth after finishing 67-1,083-6TD receiving, making him the first Eagle to top the 1,000-yard receiving mark since Mike Quick in '85 ... those numbers also placed him 5th in both the NFC and NFL in receiving yards and 8th in the NFC in receptions ... his team-leading 67 included a 9-161 day @Sea. ... at Phx., had a career-high 193 yds. on 8 catches, incl. 17 and 71-yd TDs, the 1st of which he set up with a 51-yd catch ... vs. Den., was 5-102-1TD as he and Calvin Williams became the 1st pair of Eagle WRs to each top the century mark in rec. yds. in the same game since Harold Carmichael and Mike Quick did it vs. Wash. on 9/11/83 ... starred in a Wild Card playoff game @NO. going 4-102 rec. with 57 and 35-yd. TDs ... on the 2nd TD, Fred outleaped two Saints in the end zone to narrow NO.'s 4th-qr. lead to 3 and ignite the Birds' comeback win ... missed most of the preseason with a left shoulder separation suffered in practice ... 1993: Coming off a Pro Bowl season,

VETERANS

Barnett inked a 3-year pact on 8/31 and got off to a good start with a 7-76 receiving effort on opening day vs. Phx ... three games later, was leading the Birds in re-cpts. & rec. yds. (17-170) when he tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee @NYJ ... the injury, which ended his season, occurred when he was tackled by Eric Thomas & Brian Washington after a 2nd qtr. 21-yd reception ... subsequently had surgery performed in LA on 10/7 by Dr. Clarence Shields ... 1994: Made a remarkable comeback from the knee injury that cut short his '93 campaign and showed his customary speed and explosiveness en route to leading the club in every major receiving category - catches (78), yards (1,127), and TDs (5) ... posted personal career-highs in receiving yds and receptions. In fact, his 78 re-cptions were the 3rd most in Eagles' history and the most ever by a Birds' wide receiver ... only TE Keith Jackson (81 catches in 1988) and RB Keith Byars (81 in 1990) caught more passes in one season for the Eagles ... Barnett's best outing came vs. Ariz. (11/6) when he made a career-high 11 catches for 173 yds. and 2 TDs ... that effort also marked the 13th 100-yd game of his career and (including postseason), his 4th multiple-TD-catch game as a pro ... his other top outing was a 5-187-1TD effort vs. Hou. on Monday Night Football that included a 54-yd catch and two 53-ydrs, one of which went for a TD ... for the year, four of his five TDs covered 47+ yds. (in order, 49, 53, 47, and 50 yds.).

COLLEGE: His career totals in both receptions and receiving yards (95-1,571) broke Arkansas State's 22-year old records held by Gerald Jumper (93-1,396) ... flourished despite playing in a run-oriented offense, scoring 9 TDs ... as a senior was 38-643-4TDs receiving ... led the Indians in receiving as both a soph. & jr. ... redshirted in 1985 and lettered in track.

PERSONAL: Fred and his wife, the former Jackie Jeffries, were married on 6/19/93 and reside in Philadelphia, PA ... Jackie is an accomplished ballet dancer ... in March of '94, Barnett made a one-night, guest appearance as an actor in the Philadelphia stage production of "The Will Rogers Follies," playing the role of aviator Wiley Post ... will be seen this year in FOX-TV's Under the Helmet series of public service announcements, urging youngsters to "stop the violence" ... Fred also has appeared in PSAs for the Boy Scouts, Boys/Girls Clubs, the PA Special Olympics, and the United Negro College Fund, the latter of which honored him as the Eagles 1992 player of the year ... majored in law enforcement ... did not play football until his senior year at Rosedale (MS) High because his mother Earlean, thought it was too dangerous ... still earned all-district and team MVP honors as a WR (5-60-4TDs) and DB (7 INTs), in addition to handling the kicking duties ... was a two-time MVP in basketball and set a state high jump record (6'11") ... born in Shelby, MS, and raised in Gunnison as the oldest of four children, brothers Dwayne (a junior WR at Mississippi Valley State) and Marcus, and sister Joanna ... comes from an athletic family - his father Fred, Sr., played amateur baseball; his uncle, John Barnett, was a RB with the LA Express (USFL); and his cousin Tim Barnett was a receiver with the KC Chiefs from 1991-94 ... enjoys the theatre, ballet, bowling, tennis, golf, and music ... also plays the drums.

College: UCLA

Height: 6-5

Weight: 285

Born: 1/28/70

Free Agent: 1993

Year Eagle: 3

PRO CAREER: Was one of 3 rookie free agents to make the Eagles roster in 1993 after leading the squad that preseason with 3.5 sacks ... was on the active roster but did not play in games 1 & 3 and was deactivated in game 2 ... then played special teams before seeing his first extensive action on defense at the LDE spot vs. Mia. when he replaced injured starter Mike Flores in the 4th qtr. ... was then used as an extra pass rusher in the final 5 games ... 1994: After putting in endless hours of hard work in the offseason, had what looked to be a promising season cut short at the start when he tore the posterior cruciate, anterior cruciate, and medial meniscus ligaments in his left knee in training camp on 7/24 ... subsequently had surgery performed in L.A. by Dr. Clarence Shields, the same doctor who successfully operated on QB Randall Cunningham and WRs Fred Barnett and Jeff Sydnor in '93 and got them back on the field in '94.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons at UCLA, recording 105 career tackles and 6.0 sacks from his defensive end position ... had 42 stops, including 4.0 sacks as a senior ... joined the Bruins as a transfer after playing one season at Pittsburgh where as a true freshman he split time at DE with fellow Eagle, Burt Grossman.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ ... majored in history ... was an all-state linebacker/fullback and first baseman at Brearley Regional High in Kenilworth, NJ ... born in Elizabeth, NJ.

RANDALL CUNNINGHAM, QB

College: UNLV

Height: 6-4

Weight: 205

Born: 3/27/63

Draft: 2, 1985

Year Eagle: 11

Year NFL: 11

PRO CAREER: In his 10 years as a pro, Cunningham has proven to be one of the most talented and versatile QBs of all time, if not the most exciting ... has repeatedly thrilled audiences and confounded opponents with not only a rifle arm and outstanding running ability, but with an uncanny knack for improvising and creating big plays when none seemed possible ... begins the '95 campaign ranked #1 in NFL history for rushing yards by a QB, and #2 in Eagles annals in all major career passing categories (see box on page 44) ... has appeared in three Pro Bowls, won the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL player of the year twice, earned comeback player of the year honors and was runner-up to Joe Montana in the Associated Press' league MVP voting on two occasions ... 1994: With 3,229 passing yards, Cunningham topped the 3,000-yd mark for the 4th time in his career and joined Ron Jaworski as the only Eagles ever to throw for 20,000 yards in a career ... started the first 14 games and finished the year 490-265-3229-13-16TDs passing and 65-288-3TDs rushing ... always a dangerous runner, he was particularly lethal in 3rd-n-1 situations where his 11-11 effort was tops in the NFL ... entered the year trailing only Jaworski in most of the team's career passing categories and, at season's end, had closed the gap in each area ... got off to a solid start, throwing for over 300 yds in consecutive games for the first time in his career with 344 yds. @ NYG and 311 vs. Chicago ... that Bears game also marked the 15th time in his career that he threw for 3-or-more scores ... had the NFC's longest completion of the year, a 93-yd toss to Herschel Walker @ NYG (9/4) ... tied an Eagles record held by Jim McMahon and Norm Snead with 10 consecutive completions (vs. Dal. 12/4) ... also etched his name into the record books @ Dal (10/16) with an 80-yd quick-kick — the 2nd longest boot of his career, it is also tied for the 3rd longest in Eagles history ... saw an impressive string end with the Birds home loss to Cleve. on 11/13 — prior to that the Eagles had won the last 20 regular season games at The Vet started by Randall ... after having his '93 campaign cut short by a leg injury, dispelled questions about his durability — in fact, before Bubby Brister took over as the starting QB in games 15-16, Cunningham had been the only QB to take every one of his team's offensive snaps in '94 ...

1993: Was named NFC offensive player of the month for the 2nd straight September, but just four days later suffered a fractured left fibula when hit by the Jets' Scott Mersereau & Marvin Washington in the 2nd qtr. of game 4 ... with RC's season ended, Dr. Clarence Shields (who had operated on his left knee in '91) performed surgery in LA, affixing a plate to the fracture site ... the injury followed a Sept. in which he led the Birds to a 3-0 mark (just as he did in '92), including consecutive come-from-behind wins in the final seconds @GB & vs. Wash. ... in his super Sept., RC was 97-66-68.0%-761-4-5TDs with a 91.5 passer rating ... the injury came a week after #12 played one of his finest games ever ... it was in game 3 vs. Wash. that he was 39-25-360-2-3TDs passing/5-49 rushing en route to Miller Lite NFL player of the week honors ... RC was phenomenal in the 4th qtr. of that game, leading the comeback by going 13-17-163-0-2TDs through the air ... on the final drive, he marched the Birds 83 yds in 1:50 and hit WR Calvin Williams with a 10-yd TD strike with :04 left to play; it was the 3rd C'gham-to-Williams TD of the day (the others covered 80 & 9 yds) ... the week before @GB, #12 was 29-23-79.3-209-2TD passing and rallied the Birds to 13 pts. in the 4th qtr. ...

1992: After enduring nearly 10 months of rehabilitation on his surgically repaired left knee, helped lead the Eagles to the playoffs for the fourth time in five years ... earned comeback player of the year honors from Pro Football Weekly and 2nd team All-NFL acclaim from the AP ... fired 19 TD passes and ran like the Ramblin' Randall of old while racking up 549 rushing yards ... began in brilliant fashion, struggled a bit at mid-season, but rebounded to lead the Eagles to the playoffs ... finished the year 384-233-60.7-2,775-11-19TDs passing and as the Birds' third best rusher and the league's best ground gainer among QBs, 87-549-6.3-5TDs ... was superb through the first 3 games, leading the Eagles to a 3-0 start and earning himself NFL player of the month honors for Sept. ... during that period, was 72-53-704-73.6%-0-8TDs-141.2 passing and posted a better than 70% completion rate in each outing ... in fact, going back to 1965, no Eagle QB had ever had back-to-back games over 70%, let alone 3 straight ... at Wash., rushed for 39 yds to move past Fran Tarkenton (3,674) and become the NFL's all-time leading rushing QB ... in terms of passer ratings, ranked 4th in the NFC and 5th in the NFL with an 87.3 mark, trailing only 49er Steve Young (107.7), Falcon Chris Miller (90.7), Cowboy Troy Aikman (89.5) and Oiler Warren Moon (89.2) ... took every snap until being replaced by Jim McMahon for the 2nd half of game 8 @Dal. and all of the following game vs. the Raiders ... returned to the lineup @GB and a week later @NYG threw for 2TDs ... had the 2nd best career rushing day of his career (12-121-2TDs) vs. Minn. on 12/6 and then a huge day @Sea., going 44-27-365-1-0TDs through the air & 8-38-1TD on the ground ... 1991: Enjoyed his best preseason ever and looked primed to put together his finest season as a pro ... then suffered a season-ending knee injury on opening day @GB ... the injury occurred on the first play of the 2nd quarter and the Eagles' 11th play from scrimmage as he was hit by LB Bryce Paup while unloading an incomplete pass to Fred Barnett ... the hit tore the medial collateral and posterior cruciate ligaments in his left knee ... had surgery performed in L.A. on 9/4 by Dr. Clarence Shields, the same surgeon who had operated on his right knee when the QB was a senior in high school ... this time, Shields fused the medial collateral back together and replaced the posterior cruciate with an Achilles tendon from a cadaver ... 1990: In his finest season, was named the NFL player of the year by NFL Films and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... also received the Bert Bell Award from the Maxwell Club as the league's MVP, thus becoming only the second player in history to win that award more than once (Colts' QB Johnny Unitas did so three times) ... also received NFL offensive player of the year honors from Pro Football Weekly and NFC player-of-the-year honors from Football News and the NFLPA ... for the second time in his career, was AP's runner-up to 49ers QB Joe Montana as league MVP and trailed only the Oilers' Warren Moon as AP's offensive player of the year (in '88, he was runner-up for these same two honors to Boomer Esiason and Roger Craig, respectively) ... was named All-NFL and All-NFC by numerous other organizations ... was voted to the Pro Bowl as the backup QB but started for the third straight year, this time in Montana's absence ... one of 4 Eagles' captains, he also was voted offensive MVP by his teammates after becoming the first Eagles' QB to throw for 3,000 yds. in three consecutive seasons ... led the NFC with 30 TD passes (2nd in NFL behind Moon) and fell just short of Sonny Jurgensen's club record of 32 ... also ranked among the top QBs in passer rating (91.6, 2nd in the NFC/5th in the NFL), comp. % (58.3, 3rd/7th), yds. (3,466, 3rd/6th), TD % (6.5, 1st/2nd), and INT % (2.8, 3rd/9th) ... after being shut out on opening day, threw at least one TD pass in 13 straight games and two-or-more in 10 of those ... had a career-best streak of 138 attempts without an INT (3+ games) from 10/15 through 11/12 ... again led the club (for the 4th straight yr.) and all NFL QBs (for the 5th consecutive yr.) in rushing with a career-high 942 yards ... fell just 26 shy of Bobby Douglas' NFL record of 968 rushing yds by a QB (1972) ... his 942 rushing yds ranked 4th in the NFC and 9th in the NFL overall ... top runs were a 52-yd TD vs. N.E. (the longest run of his career) and, a 17-yd TD run vs. G.B. on which he hurdled a defender at the goal line ... for the second time in his career, was the NFC off. player of the month in Nov. after leading the Birds to a 4-0 record, this time with these #s: 102-59-815-1-10TDs passing and 29-249-2TDs rushing ... had one of the best all-around games of his career vs. N.E., running for 124 yds and 1 TD (the 5th highest NFL total ever for a QB) and throwing for 240 yds & 4 TDs ... as such, he became the first QB ever to throw 4 TDs and rush for 100+ yds in a game and only the second QB to pass for 200+ yds and rush for 100+ yds in a game (Tobin Rote did it twice 11/22/51 and 10/12/52) ... made his 100th career TD pass (12/2 @Buf.) a memorable one as he avoided a safety by Bruce Smith, scrambled, and threw the ball 60 yds into the wind to Fred Barnett who then completed a 95-yd scoring play (Cunningham's career longest and the 2nd longest in Eagles' history ... 1989: Was hindered somewhat with top pass catching targets Mike Quick and Keith Jackson sidelined by injury much of the year ... still used his outstanding ability to engineer key rallies ... was the NFL's leading rusher among QBs (11th in NFC overall) and the first QB in modern NFL history to lead his team in rushing three straight years ... had the best passing game of his career @Wash. (9/17) where he turned a 20-point deficit into a victory with career-high passing figures for yds (447 - an Eagles' record), compl. (34), and TDs (5, including three in the 4th qtr.) en route to NFL offensive player-of-the-week honors ... threw for 401 yds on a team-record 62 atts. @Chi. (10/2) ... ran for 2 TDs and led two 4th qtr. TD drives in a 20-19 comeback win vs. NYG (10/8) ... truly was a triple-threat with a key 91-yd punt - the longest in Eagle history and the then 3rd longest (4th entering 1995) ever in the NFL - in a big victory @NYG 12/3 ... was voted to the Pro Bowl as an alternate but started the game in the absence of Joe Montana, Don Majkowski, and Jim Everett ... 1988: Capped an outstanding season by being selected as a starting QB in the Pro Bowl and was MVP in that game ... also received the Bert Bell Award as the NFL player-of-the-year from the Maxwell Football Club and NFC P.O.Yr. honors from the Washington TD Club ... was Associated Press' runner-up to Boomer Esiason as NFL MVP and to Roger Craig as the league's offensive player-of-the-year ... set Eagles' single-season passing marks for atts. (560 - 1st, NFC), comps. (301 - 2nd, NFC), and yds (3,808 - 2nd, NFC) ... also had a personal-best 6 rushing TDs and became the first NFL QB to lead his team in rushing yds two straight years since the Packers' Tobin Rote (1951-52) ... led Birds to victories by engineering late 4th qtr. rallies @Pitt., vs. Dal., and in OT @NYG ... was named NFC offensive player-of-the-week after a brilliant effort in his first-ever Monday Night Football game - when he set his then single-game passing highs for comps. (31), yds (369) and TDs (3, tie) - in a 24-13 win over NYG (10/10) ... was NFC player of the month in Nov. after leading Eagles to a 4-0 record while accounting for 81.5% of their total offense (1,096 of 1,369 yds) ... had an 18-game TD pass streak (the longest of his career) broken @Cleve. ... 1987: In his first full season as a starter, was selected by his peers as the 1st alternate at QB to the NFC Pro Bowl squad and by teammates as the Eagles' offensive MVP ... ranked 6th in the NFC with a passer rating of 83.0 ... threw 118 straight passes without an INT (incl. 3 full games and 2 OTs), the 2nd longest such streak of his career ... also was the leading rusher among NFL QBs and the first QB to lead his team in rushing since Bobby Douglas (968) led Chicago in 1972 ... led consecutive come-from-behind wins @StL and vs. Wash. - at StL (11/1), earned NFC off. P.O.Wk. honors after throwing 3 TD passes, incl. the 9-yd. game-winner to Gregg Garrity with 0:50 to play that capped a 70-yd drive; vs. Wash., threw for 3 TDs and capped the day with a 74-yd drive culminating in a 40-yd TD pass to Garrity with 1:06 to go ... 1986: Spent first half of the season as Birds' 3rd down-and-long specialist at QB before starting 5 of the final 6 games in place of Ron Jaworski who injured a finger while attempting a pass vs. NYG ... led Eagles in rushing TDs and finished 2nd in rushing ... in those 5 starts, was impressive as a passer (83-150-55.3-4-5 TDs) ... had 110 rushing yds vs. Det. (11/16), then the 2nd highest total ever by an Eagles' QB (Jack Concannon ran for 129 vs. Pitt. 12/4/66) ... 1985: Was the Eagles' 2nd round draft choice, the first QB and 37th player chosen overall ... started games 2-5; rushed for 90 yds vs. Rams in his first pro start (9/15) ... threw his first career TD pass at Wash. (9/22), a 17-ydr to RB Earnest Jackson.

COLLEGE: Was only the third quarterback in NCAA history to throw for over 2,500 yds. in three straight seasons (John Elway and Doug Flutie preceded him) ... progressed from 4th-string as freshman (when he considered on his own a switch to wide receiver) to starter by the second game of his sophomore season and went on to set every Pacific Coast Athletic Association and UNLV passing record, including comp. pctg. (57.9), comp. (614), yds (8,290), and TDs (60) ... as a punter, posted a 45.2-yd career avg. and was a 1st team Kodak/Coaches All-America pick as a junior ... chosen All-PCAA 1st team QB and punter three straight years ... was the first two-time PCAA player of the year (1983-84) ... caught a 10-yd TD pass from current Chargers' WR Vance Johnson in East-West Shrine game.

PERSONAL: Was married to Felicity de Jager on 5/8/93 ... the couple resides in Philadelphia during the season and Las Vegas, NV, in the offseason ... donated $100,000 to St. John's Baptist church in Camden, NJ, in Jan., 1990 — the money was then used to build a gym adjacent to the church and dedicated in memory of former Eagles all-pro DT Jerome Brown ... was featured in the Eagles' 1992 United Way public service announcement; he also did a similar spot for the United Negro College Fund in 1991 ... in '95, will be featured in FOX-TV's Under the Helmet PSA series, urging youngsters to "stop the violence" ... hosted two Philadelphia-area shows entitled "the Randall Cunningham Show" in '89 - one on TV (KYW, Ch. 3) and one on radio (WIP, 610 AM) - but limited himself to just TV the last five years (WCAU, Ch. 10) ... was a guest on "The Arsenio Hall Show" three times ... is a member of the "Quarterback Club" operated by NFL Properties, the league's licensing and merchandising arm ... has had a candy bar named after him - The Randall Bar - as well as potato chips ... an avid golfer, he teamed with Eagles center David Alexander and golf pro Lee Elder in June '92 to win the Cadillac NFL Golf Classic at Sawgrass (FL) Country Club ... majored in recreation/business ... formerly operated a sign painting business out of his NJ home and now owns a business handling endorsements and promotions called "Scrambler, Inc." ... born in Santa Barbara, CA, and was a football (All-America), basketball, and track performer at Santa Barbara High ... followed in the footsteps of his brother, Sam, a star RB for USC and the New England Patriots ... credits Sam (the best man in his wedding) with being a strong influence in his life ... as a youth, spent endless hours with all three older brothers at a local Boys' Club - Anthony played LB at Boise State, Bruce was a DB at UNLV.

Randall Cunningham's 79.3% completion rate at Green Bay on 9/12/93 was a career high while his 76.9% effort three weeks later at NYJ (10/3/93) marked the tenth 70%-plus game of his career. The Eagles' record in those games is 9-1.

ANTONE DAVIS, T

College: Tennessee

Height: 6-4

Weight: 335

Born: 2/28/67

Draft: 1, 1991

Year Eagle: 5

78

PRO CAREER: Was chosen in the first round of the 1991 draft by the Eagles who, on draft day, switched first round picks with the Packers and gave up their 1992 first round selection in order to move from the 20th spot overall to the 9th in '91 ... a right tackle in his first 3 pro seasons, Davis was switched to left guard in 1994 but is slated to be back at RT this fall ... 1991: Started 15 games at right tackle and earned NFL all-rookie team honors from Pro Football Weekly and College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... his blocking in the second half of the season helped the Birds' resurgent running game double the output of their opponents after mid-season ... started all but game 7 vs. N.O. ... 1992: Showed remarkable improvement as he settled comfortably into the right tackle spot and helped the Eagles' rushing attack rank 1st in the NFC and 2nd overall in the NFL ... started 15 regular season games and both playoff games and helped RB Herschel Walker rush for 1,000 yds ... a knee injury @Wash. sidelined him for the following game vs. Phx. ... 1993: The Birds' starter at right tackle, he was a dominant force in the running game and improved his pass blocking dramatically ... joined center David Alexander as the only Eagles offensive linemen to start all 16 games ... was particularly sharp in games 1-4, 6-7 & 10-16 when he held his opponents at bay, allowing only a half-sack ... 1994: Made the switch from RT to LG, a spot he had not played since his sophomore season in college ... the move was part of a 3-man lineup change by then head coach Rich Kotite. In addition to the move of Davis, '94 first round draft pick Bernard Williams was put at LT while the former LT, veteran Broderick Thompson was moved to his more customary RT position ... Davis started the first 14 games at LG there before giving way to Joe Panos.

COLLEGE: Was a consensus All-America selection and a two-time 1st team All-Southeast Conference pick as a right tackle at Tennessee ... as a senior in 1990, teamed up with All-American Charles McRae (Tampa Bay's 1st rnd. pick in '91), to give UT one of the best tackle tandems in college football history ... as a sophomore, switched from defense to offense and started at left guard before becoming a fixture at right tackle at mid-season.

PERSONAL: Pronounced AN-tone ... he and his wife Carrie, reside in Voorhees, NJ, during the season and Knoxville, TN, during the offseason ... has a degree in city planning and has taken graduate courses at Tennessee where he received the Chancellor's Citation for his outstanding contributions to the community ... is active with Big Brothers/Big Sisters, American Cancer Society, and the New Jersey State Police "Just Say No" program through which he speaks to students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol ... born and raised in Fort Valley (GA) ... is the youngest of seven children ... attended Peach County (GA) High where he lettered three seasons in football ... was responsible for nominating Woody Freeman, one of his elementary school teachers at Fort Valley Middle School, who was selected as the NFL Teacher of the Month for December, 1993 (the NFL Teacher of the Month Program was created in 1990 by Commissioner Paul Tagliabue and the member clubs to honor teachers who had a positive influence on NFL players).

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1991 (16/15), 1992 (15/15), 1993 (16/16) 1994 (16/14); TOTALS: (63/60). PLAYOFF GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1992 (2/2).

	BYRON EVANS, LB College: Arizona Height: 6'2" Weight: 235 Born: 2/23/64 Draft: 4, 1987 Year Eagle: 9 Year NFL: 9	56
---	--	-----------

PRO CAREER: After coming into the NFL with a reputation as a hard-hitting middle linebacker, Evans spent many offseason hours learning the intricacies of the Eagles' defense and made himself into a real quarterback on that side of the ball ... he first mastered the complicated "46 Defense" of former head coach Buddy Ryan, and then the defense implemented in 1991 by coordinator Bud Carson ... along the way, Evans combined that hard-hitting style of play with his growing knowledge of the game to become one of the top MLBs in the NFL ... then, with the departure of Reggie White through free agency and the death of Jerome Brown, Evans stepped up as one the leaders of the Eagles' defense in '93 and finally began to receive the national media attention he so richly deserved ... 1987: Originally was the Eagles' 4th round draft pick (the 93rd selection overall) ... played in all 12 non-strike games mostly on special teams ... started for injured MLB Mike Reichenbach vs. Miami and retained #1 role for final two games, leading Birds with 9 solo tackles vs. Jets and intercepting a Jim Kelly pass vs. Buff. ... 1988: After taking over the starting MLB role and leading the team in tackles through 5 games, gave way to Reichenbach, who at that time possessed a greater knowledge of the "46 Defense" ... 1989: Regained #1 MLB role after extensive off-season study increased his ability to lead the defense ... was called the Eagles' most improved player and the NFL's hardest hitting MLB by Buddy Ryan ... led team with 184 tackles and had three games with 20+ stops, incl. a career-high 22 tackles @Chi. (10/2) ... recorded 3 INTs, caused 2 fumbles, and recovered 3 more ... 1990: Although he didn't get the national recognition he deserved, Evans showed that he was rapidly becoming one of the best MLBs in the game ... finished 2nd on the club with 112 tackles ... also was one of 4 captains ... intercepted a Phil Simms pass vs. NYG on 11/25 and went 22 yds. for his first career TD ... was Eagles' defensive player of the game on 11/12 vs. Wash. after making 11 tackles and deflecting a Stan Humphries pass that was INT'd by Reggie White ... 1991: Finished the season ranked fifth on the team with 111 tackles ... helped the Birds become only the sixth team in NFL history to finish a season ranked #1 in the NFL across the board vs. the pass, the run, and overall in terms of fewest yards allowed ... made a season-high 15 tackles vs. S.F. and registered his only interception @Phx. off Tom Tupa ... was a defensive co-captain along with Reggie White ... 1992: Put together a year many felt deserved a berth in the Pro Bowl ... his fine play was, however, recognized by Pro Football Weekly which named him to its 1st team All-NFC squad ... the club's leading tackler with 175 stops, he also tied for the team lead in forced fumbles (3) and INTs (4) ... set up 2 TDs vs. Dal. (10/5) - one with an INT off Troy Aikman and one with a forced fumble ... two weeks later he prevented a Redskins' score, intercepting a Mark Rypien pass in the end zone ... vs. Phx. (10/25), made a season-high 20 tackles and forced a fumble that led to an Eagles' TD in a 7-3 win ... at Dal., made 13 tackles and his 3rd INT of the year (off Aikman) ... made two more big plays @GB with a forced fumble that led to a FG and a 4th qtr INT off Brett Favre that nearly sealed a win (before 2 Birds' fumbles helped GB stage a comeback) ... he then tipped a Rypien pass in game 15 vs. Wash. that William Thomas INT'd at the P19 to help clinch a playoff berth ... 1993: Would have finally been on his way to the Pro Bowl were it not for a broken arm that sidelined him for 5 games and stifled what might have been his finest year as a pro ... at the time of his injury after 7 games, Byron led the club in tackles with 71 ... when the season closed, Evans still ranked 2nd in tackles with 109 while also contributing 1 interception, 3 forced fumbles, & 2 fumble recoveries ... made his biggest tackle @NYJ where he leveled QB Boomer Esiason short of the sticks on 4th down in Eagle territory to seal a 35-30 win ... on 10/31 vs. Dal., played all but one 2nd half series after fracturing his right arm ... the injury, however, did sideline him for games 8-12 ... returned to action vs. Buf. and to the lineup a week later ... paced the team in tackles in each of the final 3 contests and made big plays - recovered a fumble vs. NO to set up a TD, and @SF returned a Steve Young fumble 30 yds for a TD, forced a fumble, and registered an INT off Steve Bono ... 1994: For the 2nd straight year, Evans, who Eagles' RLB William Thomas has called "the quarterback of the defense," had a Pro Bowl-type season cut short due to injury ... this time, a leg injury sidelined the Eagles' defensive captain and leading tackler for the final 6 games ... Evans suffered a fractured right tibia and a torn medial collateral ligament as well as damage to the medial and lateral meniscus cartilage while attempting to tackle Cleveland's Leroy Hoard (11/13) ... two days later, Evans had surgery performed in L.A. by Dr. Clarence Shields, the same doctor who operated on teammates Randall Cunningham and Fred Barnett in '93, and on Mike Chalemski in '94 ... prior to being injured, Byron was leading the team with 82 tackles and creating big plays - like his deflection of a pass by Washington's Gus Frerotte that FS Greg Jackson intercepted for a 55-yd. TD.

COLLEGE: Was a 2nd team All-America and 1st team All-PAC 10 selection as a senior at Arizona ... also was PAC-10 defensive player of the year and a finalist for the Butkus Award as the top college linebacker in 1986 after leading the conference in tckls (196) for the second straight year ... was NCAA def. player of the wk. after his 29-tckl, 1-sack, 2-forced fumble effort vs. USC ... also was Aloha Bowl def. MVP ... as a junior recorded 118 tckls and was Sun Bowl def. MVP vs. Georgia.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Philadelphia, PA, during the season and his hometown and birthplace of Phoenix, AZ, in the offseason ... over the last five off-seasons, arranged a weekend youth sports camp in Phoenix and enlisted the help of several Eagles' teammates as well as members of the Cowboys and Cardinals; over 800 boys and girls attended the camp this past March ... majored in liberal arts ... wants to be an actor when his playing days are over ... the 6th of 8 children to Dorothy Scott; brothers Clifford and Veryl, and sisters Connie, Cynthia, Crystal, Corliss, and Cora ... was an honor student and all-state LB/QB, and lettered in basketball (guard) at South Mountain High.

JAY FIEDLER, QB

College: Dartmouth

Height: 6-1

Weight: 214

Born: 12/29/71

Free Agent: 1994

Year Eagle: 2

11

PRO CAREER: As a rookie free agent in 1994, Fiedler's impressive training camp enabled him to unseat Preston Jones, the Birds' #3 QB in 1993, and earn a roster spot ... as the Eagles' #3 QB/deactivation for all 16 games, Fiedler dressed for each contest but saw no regular season action ... in preseason, played in the first two games (@ Chi. and vs. NYJ) and posted combined passing numbers of 41-19-249-1-OTD.

COLLEGE: While at Dartmouth, recorded career passing totals of 813-456-6,684-58TDs (all Dartmouth records) ... led the Big Green to a 21-7-1 record as a starter, including a 17-2-1 mark in Ivy League play ... earned 1st-team All-Ivy League honors during both his junior and senior campaigns ... was co-offensive player of the game in the 1994 East-West Senior Shrine Game in Tokyo.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and Oceanside, NY, during the offseason ... attended Oceanside High where he lettered in football, basketball, and track ... received the Scholar-Athlete Award from the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame in '89 ... worked as a statistician at Dartmouth's men's basketball games ... is a distant relative of the former Boston Pops conductor, the late Arthur Fiedler (his grandfather was Arthur's 2nd cousin) ... majored in engineering.

DERRICK FRAZIER, CB

College: Texas A&M

Height: 5-10

Weight: 172

Born: 11/29/70

Draft: 3a, 1993

Year Eagle: 3

PRO CAREER: After showing a great deal of potential as a 3rd round draft choice in the Birds' 1993 training camp, this promising young cornerback had his rookie season cut short when he suffered an injury in the preseason opener vs. N.O. in Tokyo ... one series after making an interception vs. the Saints, tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee ... subsequently had reconstructive surgery and spent the rest of the season rehabilitating in Philadelphia ... 1994: Came back strong from his '93 knee injury and, after being deactivated for four of the first five games, was a solid performer as a reserve DB and special teamer ... saw playing time in the Eagles' nickel and dime packages in games 6-9, 11-12, and 14-16 ... recovered a fumble in a win over Hou. on 10/24 ... played well enough to earn a shot at the starting RCB job in '95, replacing Eric Allen who departed for New Orleans via free agency.

COLLEGE: A three-year starter at right cornerback for the Aggies, Frazier finished his career with 146 tackles and 8 interceptions and set the school record for pass deflections with 36, breaking the old mark held by Dallas Cowboy Kevin Smith ... was a consensus All-Southwest Conf. second team pick as a senior after recording 41 tackles and 3 INTs ... also was used as a punt returner in his senior year, fielding 29 punts for 301 yards.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Cherry Hill, NJ, during the season and Houston, TX, during the offseason ... majored in educational kinesiology ... was an all-district quarterback as a junior and senior after earning the same honor as a sophomore cornerback at Clements High in his hometown of Sugarland, TX ... also lettered in track ... was active in Aggies Athletes Involved, a community service program for athletes at Texas A&M ... has one sister, Deitra ... hobbies include bicycling and video games.

PRO CAREER: Throughout his NFL career in Houston and Philadelphia, Fuller, a two-time Pro Bowl selection, has combined his abundant strength and quickness to develop into one of the steadiest defensive ends in the NFL today ... in fact, Fuller has registered 8-or-more sacks in six of the last seven seasons ... Fuller, however, began his pro career not in the NFL but in the fledgling USFL right here in Philadelphia ... a first round pick of the Rams in the NFL's supplemental draft of 1984 (the 21st pick overall), he instead spent his first two seasons as a pro with the USFL's Philadelphia-Baltimore Stars ... granted free agency when the USFL suspended operations on 8/7/86, he signed with the Rams on 9/10 only to be traded to Houston a week later in a package that sent first round pick Jim Everett to the Rams ... over the next 8 seasons, Fuller became a mainstay of the Oilers defense and a participant in 7 straight postseasons before returning to Philadelphia and joining the Eagles as an unrestricted free agent in the spring of '94 ... 1994: Clint Eastwood may have starred in the 1980s film "Sudden Impact," but in 1994 in Philadelphia, William Fuller made a sudden impact ... after signing with the Eagles as a veteran free agent on 3/31, Fuller put together a season that had many experts, players and media types alike, calling him the cream of the '94 free agent crop ... was selected to the Pro Bowl for the second time in his career, this time as a back-up to NFC starters Reggie White (GB) and Charles Haley (Dal) ... as such, Fuller became the 32nd player in history to represent each conference in the Pro Bowl (his previous selection was to the AFC squad in 1991 as a Houston Oiler) ... was also named to UPI's 2nd team All-NFC squad ... set an Eagles record for consecutive games with a sack by recording at least one sack in each of the first 7 games (topping the old mark of 6 shared by Clyde Simmons and Reggie White) ... finished the year with a team-high 9.5 sacks to rank 8th in the NFC ... registered the first safety of his career when he sacked Steve Young @ SF (10/2) ... replaced injured MLB Byron Evans as a Birds' defensive captain after game 10 ... 1993: In his 8th and final season with the Oilers, was a top notch pass rusher who started all 16 games at left end ... tallied 10 sacks, a pair of forced fumbles, and eight passes knocked down ... teamed with fellow Oilers' DE Sean Jones (now with Green Bay via free agency) to be the only AFC teammates with double-digit sacks in '93 ... had his best outing in game 11 @Pitt, where his 4 sacks earned him AFC defensive player of the week honors ... 1992: Enjoyed another productive season for Oilers as he played in 15 games with 14 starts at left end ... missed season's first game and DNS the 2nd due to holdout ... still contributed 52 tackles and ranked 4th on club in sacks ... had 2 sacks in triumph over Cin. (10/25) ... in Oilers 24-21 Thanksgiving Day win @Det., scored his first NFL touchdown by returning QB Erik Kramer's fumble 10 yds ... in 41-38 OT playoff defeat @Buf. (1/3/93), sacked Jim Kelly twice ... 1991: Capped the best season of his career as a starter on the AFC Pro Bowl squad (his 1st selection) ... other honors included first team All-AFC accolades from UPI, Pro Football Weekly, and Football News ... was named by a vote of NFLPA members as the AFC's defensive lineman of the year ... his career-best 15 QB sacks led the AFC and tied for 2nd in NFL (with Eagles' Reggie White, behind New Orleans' Pat Swilling) ... thus became first Oiler to ever lead the AFC in sacks with 2nd highest total in team history (behind Jesse Baker's 15.5 in 1979) ... earned him the nickname "The Fuller Rush Man" from his teammates ... started all 16 games at LDE and made 54 tackles while pacing all linemen in pass knock-downs for fourth year in row ... had three multi-sack games and a streak of 6 games with at least a half sack ... had best game of season in rout of Den. with a then career-best 3 sacks, a forced fumble that was returned by Cris Dishman for TD, and a fumble recovery on the D13 that led to a TD ... in a Monday night loss to Phila. PRO CAREER: After being slowed by a rib injury that sidelined him for most of the preseason and kept him out of the first three games, this 1994 second round draft pick burst onto the NFL scene like a bolt of lightning ... saw his first action when he started games 4-5 @ SF and vs. Wash. and quickly etched his name into the record books ... became only the 7th player in NFL history to rush for 100 yds. in each of his first two NFL games as well as the first Eagle rookie with consecutive 100-yd. rushing games ... ripped off 111 yds on 16 carries, including 1st qtr. TD runs of 1 & 28 yds., at SF before exiting in the 3rd qtr. with sore ribs ... ran for 122 yds. on 28 atts. the next week vs. Wash ... was soon hobbled, however, by a mid-season thigh injury and recurring rib soreness that limited his playing time ... then, in game 14 vs. NYG, suffered a season-ending injury when he ruptured the patella tendon in his left leg ... as a result, he had surgery performed on 12/19 by Dr. Joseph Torg in Philadelphia ... wore #25 as a rookie (when veteran DB Otis Smith had #30) but with the departure of Smith this offseason, Garner will switch to 30, his number at Tennessee.

COLLEGE: One of the most electrifying, big-play makers in Tennessee history, Garner led the Volunteers in rushing in each of his two seasons after transferring from Scottsdale (AZ) Community College ... the speedy and elusive back ran for 1,161 yards and 8 TDs in '93, highlighted by a 186-yard effort vs. Kentucky ... finished his Tennessee career with 2,223 rushing yards and 10 TDs while tacking on an additional 17 receptions for 106 yds ... was a backfield mate of QB Heath Shuler, the Redskins' 1st round draft pick in '94 and James Stewart, the Jaguars' 2nd of two, first round selections in the 1995 draft.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in his hometown and birthplace of Fairfax, VA ... as a senior running back at Fairfax's Jeb Stuart High was named Virginia Player of the Year and garnered all-state honors after rushing for over 2,000 yards and 38 TDs ... has three sisters, Aleatha, Anita, and Glenda ... hobbies include playing EA Sports video games, basketball, fishing, and bowling ... majored in business.

ANDY HARMON, DT/DE

College: Kent State

Height: 6-4

Weight: 278

Born: 4/06/69

Draft: 6, 1991

Year Eagle: 5

PRO CAREER: In 1993, the rest of the NFL was forced to take notice of this quiet, unassuming 6th round pick when he registered 11.5 sacks ... a year later, despite playing with a cast on his broken thumb, 9 more sacks brought national recognition and confirmed Harmon's status among the top young defensive tackles in the game ... perhaps former Eagles defensive coordinator Bud Carson put it best when he said, "Andy's a great example of a guy who's not very flashy, but puts up excellent numbers because he plays every play. He plays, as we used to say in the old days, to the echo of the whistle. You get a full play out of Andy every play. He doesn't slack off like half the players in the league do at one time or another. That's why he gets more late sacks than anyone I've seen, because he's always working. He never, never, thinks a play is over." ... 1991: The Eagles' 6th round pick in 1991 (157th selection overall), Harmon got his feet wet as a rookie by playing on special teams and short-yardage situations and by occasionally spelling Pro Bowl ends Reggie White and Clyde Simmons ... saw considerable action at RDE in preseason (3 sacks) in place of the then unsigned Simmons, including starts against Cin. and Pitt. ... 1992: Displayed a wealth of potential after a move from defensive end to tackle allowed him to best use his strength and quickness ... after breaking his left ulna & radius at Atl. in preseason, played with a cast early on and recorded a sack in each of games 2-4 ... earned his 1st start as a DT in that 4th game (vs. Dal.) and forced a fumble that led to an Eagles' TD ... held down a starting DT spot the rest of the season (RDT in games 4-6 & 14-16 and LDT in games 7-13) and was very impressive ... finished the year with 7.5 sacks, including 2.5 vs. Minn. ... 1993: Overcame early season injuries and posted a team-leading and career-high 11.5 sacks, the most ever by an Eagles' DT ... as such, he bested the mark of 10.5 set by the late Pro Bowl DT, Jerome Brown, in 1989 ... among the league's DTs only Minn.'s John Randle had more sacks (12.5) ... was slowed by a pulled hamstring and a strained achilles in the first 5 games ... came on at midseason, however, registering all of his 11.5 sacks in the last 11 games ... had his best outings vs. playoff clubs, tallying 2.5 & 2.0 sacks in two meetings vs. Dal. and a career-high 3.0 @SF ... after opening the season at the LDT spot, started games 5-6 at LDE for the injured Tim Harris (elbow) ... but it was a return to health and his familiar LDT role in game 7 that started his great run ... 1994: Picked up where he left off in '93 and began to receive the recognition he deserved as one of the NFL's top young defensive tackles ... yet, despite being named 1st team All-NFL by Sports Illustrated's Paul Zimmerman, 2nd team all-pro by Football Digest, the Eagles' defensive MVP by his teammates, and despite having his gritty and tenacious play honored with a spot on FOX-TV analyst John Madden's All-Madden Team, Harmon was overlooked in the Pro Bowl balloting ... registered 9 sacks to rank 3rd in the NFL/2nd in the NFC among defensive tackles behind Min.'s John Randle (13.5) and the Raiders' Chester McGlockton (9.5) ... although hampered by a fractured thumb that occurred when making his first career interception (off Steve Young in game 4 @ SF), Harmon notched 7 of his sacks in the final 12 games while playing with a cast on the injured hand ... registered the fifth 2+ sack game of his career with 2 vs. Ariz. (11/6) ... tied his career-high of 12 tackles vs. Hou. (10/24).

COLLEGE: Was a three-year starter at Kent State who shifted from outside linebacker to defensive tackle in his senior year ... was an All-MAC choice and honorable mention All-America that season with 91 tackles, including 9 sacks ... as a junior, earned All-MAC honors with 71 stops, including 5 sacks.

PERSONAL: Andy and his wife Kristy reside in Marlton, NJ, during the season and Kent, OH, in the offseason ... majored in business ... was voted the top lineman in the Western Ohio Conf. and earned all-state honors at Centerville High in his hometown of Centerville, OH ... born in Dayton, OH ... prior to his junior year of high school, enjoyed 60-100 mile bike tours with his family; no longer takes such trips, however, and explains why with reference to his 6-4, 285-lb. frame saying, "I catch too much wind now" ... has an older brother, Mike.

Height: 5-8

Weight: 195

Born: 10/07/70

Free Agent: 1993

Year Eagle: 3

PRO CAREER: As a rookie free agent in 1993, this quick and shifty running back was called the most pleasant surprise of the preseason by then head coach Rich Kotite ... finished his first preseason as the club's leading rusher (34-234-7.0-1TD) and in the regular season went on to lead the team in rushing TDs and ranked 3rd in rushing yds. (84-297-3TDs) ... early on, was used mostly in the 2nd half of games ... in the opener vs. Phx, had a game-high 66 rushing yds, including a 5-yd. TD he set up with a 33-yd. jaunt ... then saw limited action until re-emerging with a bang in game 9 vs. Mia, leading the club with 61 rushing yds ... earned his 1st starting assignments in games 11-13 ... in that span, had two key runs @Wash - a 1-yd TD jaunt and a tackle-breaking 16-ydr. to the W3 on the game-winning 4th qtr. drive ... 1994: A part-time starter, Hebron finished the year as the Birds' 3rd leading rusher with 325 yards and 2 TDs on 82 carries and chipped in 18 receptions for 137 more yards ... made his first start of the year vs. Cleve. (11/13) and responded with career-highs of 6 catches and 93 yds. of total offense, including a 15-yd rushing TD ... started the season finale @ Cin. and paced the Birds with 58 rushing yards ... did not see backfield action in games 11-14 due to a sprained ankle.

COLLEGE: Finished sixth on Virginia Tech's all-time rushing charts with 2,327 yards and 15th on the school's all-time receptions list with 60 (first among RBs) ... as a senior, injuries forced him to miss four games but he still led the Hokies' in rushing with 579 yds ... also saw action as a kickoff returner, posting a 19.2-yd average on six returns.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Philadelphia and Baltimore, MD ... wore #45 during his first two seasons with the Eagles, however, will switch to #20 in 1995 ... earned All-America honors at Baltimore's Cardinal Gibbons High where, in addition to school marks for career rushing yards (3,003) and touchdowns (62), he also holds track records in the 100 & 200 meters and long jump ... majored in housing, interior design and resource management ... born 10/7/70 in Baltimore.

LESTER HOLMES, G

College: Jackson State

Height: 6-6

Weight: 305

Born: 9/27/69

Draft: 1a, 1993

Year Eagle: 3

PRO CAREER: The first of the Eagles' two 1st round draft picks in 1993, Holmes has rapidly blossomed into one of the top young guards in the NFL today ... 1993: The 19th pick overall in the draft, Holmes turned a slow start into a very strong finish ... was initially set back after missing the first three weeks of training camp while unsigned ... but it was in the final 6 games that Holmes took over the starting right guard spot and showed why he was so highly touted ... early on, was deactivated in games 1, & 3-5 ... got his first taste of O-line play vs. Mia. in game 9 when he replaced Ron Hallstrom for two 2nd half series ... after playing well in that brief stint, was set to continue rotating into the lineup the following week vs. NYG but an injury to starting LT Broderick Thompson early in that game resulted in lineup changes that saw Holmes moved into the RG spot for the rest of that contest and, subsequently, the season ... was drafted by the Eagles with an extra first round pick awarded to the club by the NFL as compensation for the departure of DE Reggie White to Green Bay through free agency (the Eagles actually traded this pick to Houston for the Oilers' first and third round selections and with the former, selected Holmes) ... 1994: Played solid football all year long and continued to show great promise as the club's starting right guard ... after missing the 2nd half of game 7 vs. Hou. due to a fractured right hand, Holmes played the last 9 games with a cast on his hand and still managed to play well ... was selected to Muscle & Fitness magazine's annual All-NFL Strength Team.

COLLEGE: Started at tackle in his last three seasons at Jackson State and was a consensus All-America as a senior as well as an All-Southwestern Athletic Conference first team selection in each of his final two years ... in '92 he was the only Division 1-AA player to be nominated for the Outland Trophy, given annually to the nation's top offensive lineman ... in particular, excelled as a dominating run blocker.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Philadelphia, during the season and Tylertown, MS, during the offseason ... was an all-conference and all-area selection as a two-way lineman at Tylertown High School ... is the youngest of 13 children ... majored in criminal justice.

GAMES PLAYED/STARTED: 1993 (12/6), 1994 (16/16) TOTALS: 28/22.

	Height: 6-2	Weight: 276
	Born: 1/29/68	Draft: 11a, 1990
	Year Eagle: 6	Year NFL: 6

PRO CAREER: The first of the Eagles' two 11th round draft choices in 1990 (the 301st pick overall), Hudson has been a steady performer on special teams throughout his five NFL seasons ... as a rookie, was placed on the Birds' Physically Unable to Perform (PUP) list on 8/2/90 with a lacerated knee suffered while running the Vet Stadium steps ... did not return to the active roster but resumed practicing in late Sept. ... 1991: Earned a roster spot and played in all 16 games on special teams ... rotated series at left guard with Dennis McKnight in games 8-14 ... handled all long-snapping duties ... 1992: Was a reserve center/guard and handled the long snapping duties in games 1-3 before fracturing his right hand in practice on 9/25 ... was then placed on Injured Reserve (9/28) for the rest of the season ... 1993: Was the deep snapper for punts and placekicks in all 16 games and saw action on other special teams units, but did not see playing time on offense ... 1994: Served as the team's long snapper on both punts and field goals ... although he did not see action on the offensive line, was used as a wedge-blocker on the kickoff return unit ... also made 7 special teams tackles.

COLLEGE: Was an honorable mention All-America pick (The Sporting News) and 2nd-team All-Southeastern Conf. selection as a senior ... won the starting center job in 1987 after the graduation of All-America Ben Tamburello (the Eagles' 3rd round selection that year) and long-snapped ... spent four years as a linemate and roommate of Rob Selby, the Eagles' 3rd round pick in '91.

PERSONAL: John and his wife Ginny reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, during the season and in Auburn, AL, during the offseason ... majored in education/history ... born in Memphis, TN, the 3rd of 4 children; brothers Richard and William, and sister Mary ... was an all-state choice in football at Henry County High in Paris, TN, where he also earned district offensive player of the year honors ... enjoys country music and hunting.

	College: LSU
Height: 6-1	Weight: 204
Born: 8/20/66	Free Agent: 1994
Year Eagle: 2	Year NFL: 7

PRO CAREER: A solid, playmaking safety who was a mainstay in the New York Giants secondary from 1990-93, Jackson came to the Eagles in July of '94 ... although he joined the Birds late in the free agency signing period, Jackson proved to be one of the premier free agent catches of the year ... 1994: Bored by the Giants' penchant for 2-deep zone coverage, Jackson opted for the challenging, complex system of then-Eagles' defensive coordinator Bud Carson and indeed blossomed ... signed with the Eagles on 6/30 and emerged as a true big-play maker, leading the club with a career-high 6 interceptions ... those 6 thefts tied him with SF's Deion Sanders for 3rd in the NFC overall and ranked 2nd among NFC safeties behind only SF's Merton Hanks (7) ... made his two timeliest INTs vs. the Redskins — the first coming off Heath Shuler at the E3 with :40 left to play in a 21-17 win (10/9), the second being one off Gus Frerotte @ Wash. that he returned 55 yds. for a TD ... also recorded thefts off Chi.'s Erik Kramer, Atl.'s Jeff George, Cin.'s Jeff Blake, and @ Dal. off Troy Aikman ... made a career-high 15 tackles @ Ariz. (11/20) ... 1993: A defensive stalwart for the Giants, Jackson started all 16 regular season contests and 2 postseason games at both safety positions ... registered 71 tackles and a team-high 4 interceptions (tied with Mark Collins) ... paced the club with 9 tkls, an INT, a forced fumble, and 3 passes defended vs Wash. (11/14) ... 1992: Was a regular in the Giants secondary as he started all 16 games at free safety for the Giants ... finished 2nd on the team with 79 tackles behind only ILB Pepper Johnson (115) ... led the team with 3 forced fumbles and 4 INTs ... also broke up 7 passes and recovered a fumble ... tied his career-high of 11 tkls vs. Sea. ... made his pass thefts @Chi. and in consecutive games vs. GB, @Den., and vs Phi. ... 1991: Missed three games because of an ankle injury but still started 12 of the 13 games he played at strong safety ... finished with 59 tkls, an INT (@Phx.), and 2 passes defended ... 1990: Helped the Giants win Super Bowl XXV by starting 14 games at strong safety and leading the secondary with 83 tkls ... finished 2nd on the team with a career-high 5 INTs, broke up 9 passes, forced 2 fumbles and made 4 QB sacks ... was named NFC defensive player of the week when he recorded 7 tkls and 2 INTs @Wash. off QB Stan Humphries, the second of which ended a Redskins rally ... two weeks later vs. Wash., picked off another Humphries pass in the end zone in a Giants victory ... 1989: Saw action in all 16 games, including one start @Wash. in the season opener ... played as a reserve in the nickel defense and on special teams the remainder of the season ... finished with 19 tkls on defense and 7 on special teams.

COLLEGE: Was a first team All-Southeast Conference and third-team All-America selection following his senior season at LSU where he led the nation with 219 interception return yards on 7 thefts ... returned 2 of those INTs for TDs - 100 yds vs. Mississippi St. and 71 yds vs. Tulane ... finished his career with 199 tackles, and 11 INTs, three of which were returned for TDs ... also saw action as punt returner, avg.'g 10.1 yds. per return ... was a team captain as a senior.

PERSONAL: Single ... as a member of the Giants, was active with local DARE programs, American Cancer Society, and the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation ... also has worked to educate and motivate children with learning disabilities in New Jersey public schools ... majored in communications ... was born in Hialeah, FL, he was an all-city quarterback at American HS in Miami, FL ... hobbies include playing EA Sports video games.

PRO CAREER: Throughout his life, people have been telling the 5'7" McMillian he is too small to play football — all along, however, he has refused to believe them and instead, simply proved them wrong, from his days in high school to his years at Alabama, to now as he enters his 4th NFL season ... indeed this diminutive, but speedy (4.35) cornerback has established himself as one of the best young coverage men in the league; and what he lacks in size, McMillian makes up for in quickness and desire ... 1992: A 10th round draft pick of the Eagles and the 272nd selection overall, McMillian earned a roster spot with his special teams play and excellent pass coverage ... after being primarily a special teamer in games 1-9, came on strong, seeing his first major action on defense @GB as the 6th DB in the "dime" ... then entered games 11-12 as the nickelback, but in the 2nd qtr. of game 12 @SF replaced John Booty as the #1 LCB and started a week later when Booty moved to FS for the injured Wes Hopkins ... started every game after that, including the playoffs ... made his 1st career interception off Stan Gelbaugh @Sea. ... 1993: Despite beginning the year as the starting left cornerback, many observers felt McMillian was just minding the store until a healthy Ben Smith could return ... but by season's end, McMillian had flourished as the starter ... held down the job through the first 6 games (starting all but game 6 @NYG when the Birds opened with 4 LBs) before giving way to Smith, the starter before injuring a knee on 11/10/91 ... by game 10 he was back in the lineup and played brilliantly the rest of the way ... was most impressive in a Monday night clash @Dal., holding 6'3" Alvin Harper to just one catch for 17 yards and knocking down 3 passes ... recorded his 2 interceptions just three plays apart in game 6 @NYG off Phil Simms ... 1994: Started all 16 games at the LCB spot and made 2 interceptions ... registered the first of those thefts off Dave Brown on opening day @ NYG and made the other @ Wash. off Gus Frerotte ... made a huge play to help seal a win over GB on 9/18 when he outleaped 6'1" all-pro WR Sterling Sharpe in the end zone and batted away a Brett Favre fade pass during a late 4th qtr. goal line stand ... one week later he helped shut out WR John Taylor in a 40-8 win @ SF.

COLLEGE: Was the best man-to-man coverage defensive back at Alabama in 1991 according to Crimson Tide head coach Gene Stallings ... transferred to 'Bama after excelling at Glendale (CA) J.C. ... in two seasons at Alabama he was credited with 21 starts, 72 tackles, and three interceptions.

VETERANS

PERSONAL: Single ... pronounced mik-MILL-an ... resides in Voorhees, NJ, during the season and Los Angeles, CA, in the offseason ... during the '94 NFL campaign he hosted a weekly segment on the "Randall Cunningham Show" (local CBS-TV affiliate - WCAU) in which he and fellow teammate Jeff Sydnor selected the NFL's "Little Big Man Plays of the Week." ... excelled in track as well as football at John F. Kennedy High in his hometown and birthplace of Los Angeles ... was an all-city and all-league sprinter in the 100 and 200 meters ... during games, McMillian wears the initials of his grandparents (AJ and CJ) on his shoes and wristbands as a tribute to the two people who gave him the true inner-strength he needed as a youth while growing up in the drug and crime-ridden South Central, Los Angeles ... his uncle, Gary Davis, was a running back for the Miami Dolphins from 1976-79 ... enjoys basketball and running ... majored in broadcasting ... one of five children - has sisters Beverly, Latrina and Regina, and one brother, Raymond.

	EDDIE MURRAY, K College: Tulane Height: 5-11 Weight: 190 Born: 8/29/56 Free Agent: 1994 Year Eagle: 2 Year NFL: 16	3
--	--	----------

ENTERING 1995: Begins the season ranked 9th on the NFL's all-time career scoring list with 1,359 points, six behind 8th ranked Fred Cox (1,365); only the Jets' Nick Lowery (1,559) has more points among active players ... also holds NFL's longest current string of consecutive PATs at 195 ... last missed a PAT on 12/11/88 @ Chi. when kicking for Det. (although the NFL record of 234 straight PATs was set by SF's Tommy Davis from 1959-65, the record for the "modern era" - since the goal posts were moved from the goal line to the end line in 1974 - stands at 213 by Wash.'s Chip Lohmiller from 1988-93).

PRO CAREER: A 16-year NFL veteran and a two-time Pro Bowl selection, Murray is regarded as one of the best, and most accurate, kickers in the history of the league ... enters '95 having made 298 of 392 (76.0%) FG attempts, and 465 of 470 (98.9%) PAT tries ... his 298 successful FGs are 8th most in league history and 4th among active kickers, trailing only NYJ's Nick Lowery, Pitt.'s Gary Anderson, and NO's Morten Andersen ... ranks 9th on the NFL's all-time FG pct. list by kicking at a 72.2% clip ... spent the first 12 years of his career with Detroit and at the time of his release by the Lions prior to the '92 season, ranked - and to this day still ranks - as the top scorer in Lion history with 1,113 pts ... during the '92 campaign kicked for Kansas City in one game and for Tampa Bay in the final 7 ... a year later, he replaced Dallas' struggling Lin Elliott in week 3 and went on to help the Cowboys earn their second straight Super Bowl title ... 1994: Was signed by the Eagles as an unrestricted veteran free agent on 3/22 after helping Dallas win the Super Bowl just months earlier ... was his usual steady self inside 40 yards (a perfect 19-19), a fact recognized by UPI which named him to its 2nd team All-NFC squad ... led the Eagles in scoring with 96 points ... made 21 of his 25 FG atts. and all 33 PAT tries ... was 1-2 on game-winning/tying 4th qtr. FG tries — booted a 30-ydr. with :19 to play for a 31-29 win @ Wash., but missed a 44-yd game-tying FG try in game 15 vs. NYG ... was 3-3 on FGs @ NYG, vs. Chi., and @ Cin ... 1993: Was signed by Dallas on 9/14 to replace the struggling Lin Elliott and went on to help the Cowboys win the Super Bowl ... despite not playing in the first two weeks of the season, finished 3rd in NFC/6th in NFL in scoring with a career-high 122 points ... made a club record and career-high 28 of 33 FGs and all 38 PAT tries ... his 41-yd kick @NYG in OT of the season finale lifted the Cowboys to their 2nd consecutive NFC East crown ... he was then perfect in postseason (6-6 FG, 11-11 PAT) including 3 FGs in Dallas' Super Bowl XXVIII triumph over Buffalo ... made 3 FGs of 50+ yds ... tied a personal best by nailing 5 FGs vs. GB (10/3) ... 1992: After 12 seasons, was released by the Lions following the '92 Draft (4/29) ... for one week at midseason, filled in for injured KC Chiefs kicker Nick Lowery (groin) and hit a 52-yd FG in his only attempt vs. Pitt. on 10/25 ... was then released on 10/27 and spent the final 7 games of the season with TB ... hit 4 of 8 FG attempts, but was 4 for 5 going into the season finale @Phx. where sloppy field conditions led to 3 misses in 3 attempts ... 1991: Led the playoff-bound Lions with 97 points, hitting 19 of 28 FGs and all 40 of his PATs ... pitched in with 3 FGs vs. GB (9/8) and Chi. (11/28), to put up his highest point total since '85 ... also added 12 points in 2 playoff games ... 1990: Was slowed by a hip injury that caused him to miss 5 games, but still hit 13 of 19 FGs and all 34 PATs ... for the first time in his career, did not lead the Lions in scoring, trailing Barry Sanders' 96 points ... placed on Injured Reserve (10/23), but returned on 11/22 vs. Den. and promptly drilled 5 FGs ... surpassed 1,000 pt. career point plateau vs. Chi. (12/16) ... 1989: Earned his 2nd trip to the Pro Bowl by connecting on 20 of 21 FGs for the 2nd straight year ... his string of 19 consecutive FGs made during the '88 & '89 seasons is still a Lion record ... named All-NFC by Football News ... 1988: Paced the Lions in scoring with 82 pts. and tied a then league record for FG accuracy in one season by hitting on 20 of 21 FGs (95.2%) ... 1987: His 81 pts. led Det. and included a 53-ydr. vs. the Rams on 12/6 ... also filled in at punter during the season opener @Minn. and responded with kicks of 46 & 33 yds ... 1986: Surpassed Errol Mann as the Lions' all-time leading scorer ... his 41-yd FG with 0:12 left @Phila. sank the Eagles, 13-11 ... recorded his first NFL punt - a 37-ydr - @Atl. (12/15) while in FG formation ... 1985: Logged his 4th 100-pt. season in 6 years ... his missed extra point vs. Dal (9/15) was his first since 1980 ... 1984: Twice won games for the Lions with a 48-ydr in OT @Atl. (9/9) and a 41-ydr @Min. (10/21) with 0:49 left to play ... 1983: His 113 pts. aided the Lions to their 2nd consecutive playoff appearance ... nailed a career-long 54-yd FG @Cin. (12/11) and matched that feat in the playoffs @SF (12/31), a FG that is tied for 2nd longest in NFL postseason history (Pete Stoyanovich, 58 yds in 1990; Steve Christie, 54 yds in 1993) ... 1982: In the strike shortened season, was good on 11 of 12 FGs while leading the Lions with 49 pts. ... 1981: In only his 2nd season racked up 121 pts., 46 of those coming by way of PATs - still a Lion single season record ... booted 3 of 4 tries from 50+ yds, including a 53-ydr vs. Chi. (10/19) ... 1980: After winning a training camp battle for the placekicking spot as a 7th round pick, turned in a Pro Bowl season by connecting on 27 of 42 FGs ... led the team in scoring with 116 pts. and hit his first NFL FG, a 52-ydr vs. the Rams (9/7) ... in the Pro Bowl, kicked 4 FGs to become the only rookie ever to win the game's MVP award.

COLLEGE: The holder of virtually every kicking record at Tulane, Murray was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1987 ... his school records include 84 career PATs, 45 field goals and 219 points ... also tied a school record with a 52-yd FG as a junior ... was a first-team All-Metro conference selection all four years of his collegiate career ... scored 68 points in his senior campaign and extended a Tulane record with a string of 62 straight successful extra points, earning honorable mention All-America honors along the way.

PERSONAL: Resides in Detroit, MI, with his wife, Cindy, and son, Robert Michael ... a native of Canada, Murray participated in soccer, track, football and rugby at Spectrum High School in Victoria, British Columbia ... spent most of his childhood in England ... an active participant in the Detroit community, was twice nominated for the NFL's Byron "Whizzer" White Award (given to players who make great contributions of time and effort to the community) and also was honored as the Lions' Man of the Year in 1984 and 1985 ... in addition, was chosen the S.E. Michigan Athlete/Citizen of the Year in 1985 by the March of Dimes.

	Height: 6-2	Weight: 293
	Born: 1/24/71	Draft: 3a, 1994
	Year Eagle: 2	Year NFL: 2

PRO CAREER: After being chosen by the Birds' in the 3rd round of the 1994 draft, Panos showed a great deal of potential when he started the final two games of the year at left guard vs. NYG and @Cin. ... in those two games, Panos made enough of an impact that he was named to the NFL's All-Rookie Team by both Football News and Pro Football Weekly ... prior to those starting assignments, Panos saw his most extensive action in game 7 vs. Hou., replacing RG Lester Holmes, who fractured his hand in the 1st half ... was a tackle eligible in some short-yardage situations but had no passes thrown his way.

COLLEGE: An extremely strong and versatile lineman at Wisconsin, playing every offensive line position for the Badgers ... was a first team All-Big 10 and honorable mention All-America selection by Football News following a senior season in which he held down the right tackle spot for the Rose Bowl champions ... also saw extensive duty at center and right guard as well as in the long-snapper role on special teams ... played alongside center Cory Raymer, the Redskins 2nd round draft choice in 1995.

PERSONAL: Married the former Michelle Babler on 6/12/94 ... resides in his hometown and birthplace of Brookfield, WI ... attended Brookfield East High and earned all-conference and Lineman of the Year accolades as a two-way lineman ... given name is Zois Panagiotopoulos ... asked his parents in the first grade if he could change his first name to "Joe" and shorten his last name to "Panos" because he was having trouble spelling Zois Panagiotopoulos in school ... majored in political science ... gained national recognition during his senior year at Wisconsin after a dramatic victory over Michigan — following the game, thousands of fans were trampled when a chain-link fence crumbled under the student-section at Camp-Randall Stadium; Panos, who was still on the field celebrating, rescued fans from the area where the collapse had occurred and in the process helped save countless lives ... hobbies include fishing and weight lifting.

ENTERING 1995: Signed a one-year contract with the Birds on 4/22/95 to be the primary backup to quarterback Randall Cunningham ... as such, Peete replaces Bubby Brister, who had earlier signed with the New York Jets as a free agent.

PRO CAREER: This former two-sport sensation at Southern California has proven to be a solid NFL quarterback with both the Detroit Lions and, most recently, the Dallas Cowboys ... during his career with the Lions, Peete posted 5 consecutive seasons of at least 1,300 passing yards despite being hampered by injuries during each of those five campaigns ... over his career, has thrown for 8,634 yards and 42 TDs on 674-1181 passing, while rushing for 884 yards and 13 TDs on 181 carries ... 1994: Signed with Dallas as an unrestricted free agent on 5/4 and saw action in seven regular season games as the top backup to QB Troy Aikman ... was 56-33-470-1-4TDs passing for the Cowboys, including a 17-10-172-1TD performance @ Phila in his only start of the year; the Cowboys won that game 31-19 and subsequently clinched the NFC East division title ... also guided Dallas to a 4th qtr. come-from-behind win @ Ariz when Aikman went out for the remainder of the game with a concussion suffered in the 1st stanza ... in that outing he went 19-12-186-2TDs passing, including a 65-yd TD strike to Michael Irvin ... also subbed for an injured Aikman (knee) vs. Wash. and went 5-2-20-1TD before suffering a sprained right thumb that sidelined him, too, for Thanksgiving day match-up vs. GB ... in the first postseason action of his career, went 0-2 passing in late-game action of an NFC divisional playoff victory over GB ... 1993: Started 10 games in his final season with the Lions and completed a career-best 62.3% of his passes (157 of 252) ... his best outing came @ Min, where he went 28-20-273-1-1 passing in leading the Lions back from a 27-13 4th qtr. deficit to a thrilling 30-27 triumph — the comeback included a career-long, 93-yd. TD pass to Herman Moore ... was slowed early on by a week 3 hamstring injury that forced him to miss 2 starts ... dressed as the designated 3rd QB/deactivation for the last 4 games but did not play in those contests ... 1992: Returned from a '91 Achilles tendon injury to throw for 273 yds and 2 TDs in the season opener @ Chi ... went on to start a total of 10 games for the Lions and finished the year 213-123-1,702-9-9TDs passing ... threw for a personal career best 323 yards vs. TB, including 3 TDs, one of which was a 78-ydr to WR Jeff Campbell ... left game 13 @ GB with a knee injury and did not play in the remaining 3 games ... 1991: As Detroit's starting QB, led the Lions to a 5-2 record before exiting game 8 vs. Dal with a season-ending Achilles tendon injury ... was subsequently placed on the Injured Reserve list on 10/30 ... prior to the injury, Peete was 194-116-1,339-9-5TDs passing/25-125-2TDs rushing on the year ... enjoyed one of the finest games of his career in a win over GB by setting career highs with 25 completions and 38 attempts for 271 yds. and 1 TD ... extended Det's winning streak to five games by leading three 4th-qtr scoring drives as part of a 38-24-276-2TDs passing day vs. Min ... 1990: Finished the year as the NFC's 5th rated passer (79.8 rating) by going 271-142-1,974-8-13TDs through the air ... posted a miserly 3.0 interception percentage, the 2nd lowest figure in Lion history ... also finished 2nd on the club's rushing charts with 365 yards and 6 TDs on 48 carries ... paced the Lions @ TB with a career-best 97 yards on the ground, including a 9-yd TD ... suffered a hamstring injury vs. GB that sidelined him for the next two contests ... returned to starting role @ NO, where he directed a Lion victory by going 25-16-246-1TD passing ... suffered another hamstring pull during a win vs. Wash. and missed the next 3 games ... returned in week 13 @ Chi., throwing for 316 yards and a personal career-best 4 TD passes ... 1989: As a 6th round draft pick of Detroit (the 141st player selected overall), Peete earned the starting QB job until a knee injury in the final preseason game at the LA Rams sidelined him into October ... as such, made his regular season debut at Pitt. on 10/1 and went 20-15-160-1-1 against the Steelers ... went on to orchestrate Det's first win of the season and garnered NFC offensive player of the week honors by going 31-17-268-1TD passing/10-78-1D rushing @ TB on 10/15 ... at season's end, was named to Football Digest's NFL All-Rookie team by finishing with passing figures of 195-103-1,479-5TDs.

COLLEGE: A first-team All-America and All-Pac 10 Conference selection following his senior season, Peete finished his career as Southern Cal's all-time leader in pass attempts (1,081), completions (630), and passing yardage (8,225) ... was also an All-Pac 10 third baseman for the Trojan baseball team in 1988, when he hit .338 with 12 HRs and 46 RBIs ... in 3 years of college baseball, he compiled a .297 batting avg. with 18 HRs and 84 RBIs, figures good enough to get him drafted by the Oakland Athletics in the 13th round of the 1989 amateur draft.

PERSONAL: Married actress Holly Robinson - a Philadelphia native who stars on ABC-TV's sitcom "Hangin' with Mr. Cooper" - on 6/10/95 ... resides in Beverly Hills, CA, during the offseason ... hails from a family with a rich sports background - his father, Willie Peete, is the running backs coach for the Chicago Bears; his brother, Skip, recently became the wide receivers coach at Rutgers, filling a vacancy created when new Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes plucked Dick Jamieson from the Scarlet Knights' staff; his second cousin, Calvin Peete, is a professional golfer ... attended Sahuaro HS in Tucson, AZ, for his first three years and was named Arizona HS athlete of the year following his junior year ... then spent his senior season at Shawnee Mission (KS) HS, where he earned All-America honors at quarterback ... is involved in charitable work with Athletes and Entertainment for Kids ... graduated with a degree in communications from USC and worked as a baseball color analyst on a California cable station during the 1990 offseason ... enjoys golf, deep sea fishing, and bike riding ... born 3/16/66 in Mesa, AZ.

PRO CAREER: A small, but quick and elusive performer, Sydnor has fought his way onto the roster the last two preseasons with numerous electrifying plays, including 3 TDs ... 1992: After being drafted in the 6th round by the Eagles (the 160th selection overall), Sydnor's brilliant rookie preseason included a 90-yard punt return for a TD @Pitt. and 2 TD receptions ... but the play of Plan B acquisition and two-time Pro Bowl kick returner Vai Sikahema forced Sydnor to take a back seat in the regular season ... still saw some action as a kick returner (17-368-21.6) and punt returner (7-52-7.4) ... also was used in a limited role as a 4th WR ... 1993: Finished preseason with 10 catches but actually earned a roster spot with a 94-yd kickoff return in the 4th preseason game vs. Atl. (8/21) ... made one catch on opening day in the nickel offense before his season ended in game 4 @NYJ when he tore the patella tendon in his left knee on kick coverage ... was then placed on the Injured Reserve list and had surgery performed by Dr. Clarence Shields in L.A. ... 1994: Replaced the retired Vai Sikahema as the Birds' primary punt and kick returner and responded in fine fashion, ranking 5th among NFC punt returners with an average of 9.5 yds. per try on 40 returns ... had three punt returns of 40-plus yards — a career-long 49-ydr. vs. Dal. (12/4), a 47-ydr. vs. Chi. (9/12), and a 40-ydr. @ Dal. (10/16) ... shared kickoff return duty with Herschel Walker and Vaughn Hebronn and was 20-392-19.6-LG34 in that role ... saw limited WR action and made one reception @ Cin.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed a fine career at Hawaii where he displayed exceptional speed and elusiveness as a return specialist and wide receiver ... had 82 and 79-yard punt returns for TDs ... finished his four-year career with 117 receptions for 864 yds and 7 TDs to go along with an 11.9-yd avg. on punt returns and a 23.1-yd avg. on kicks.

PERSONAL: Jeff and his wife, Maya, reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their son, Jeff Anthony (10/26/93) ... during the '94 season, teamed with diminutive Eagles CB Mark McMillian each week on "The Randall Cunningham Show" (local CBS - WCAU) to award the "Little Big Man Plays of the Week" around the NFL ... attended Columbus East (OH) High where he rushed for over 4,000 yards in his career ... has three sisters - Donna, Becky and Tina, the latter of whom is married to Duane Ferrell, a forward for the NBA's Indiana Pacers ... pronounced SIDE-ner.

PRO CAREER: After improving steadily since his rookie year of 1991, Thomas truly burst on the scene late in '93 with a flurry of big games and big plays ... now, in 1995 Thomas looks to take his big-play ability to a higher level and join the upper echelon of outside linebackers in the NFL ... 1991: The Eagles' 4th round draft pick in 1991 (105th selection), he took over the starting right linebacker role in game 9 vs. NYG (11/4) ... had begun pushing for playing time that preseason with a TD on an interception return @Cin. ... earned his keep on special teams before shining vs. the 49ers and stepping into the #1 role ahead of veteran Jessie Small for games 9-15 ... did not start the season finale vs. Wash. as the Birds opened with their nickel unit ... made his 1st career sack on 9/22 vs. Pitt's Bubby Brister ... 1992: In only his 2nd season, served notice that he was quickly becoming a versatile OLB with a penchant for big plays ... made 2 very timely INTs - the first came @GB off Brett Favre at the Eagles' 7 while his 2nd (vs. Wash.) also halted a scoring drive ... recovered fumbles vs. Dal. 10/5 & NYG 11/22 and again @Dal. in the NFC Divisional Playoff ... finished the year ranked 7th on the club with 94 tkls, including 1.5 sacks ... 1993: Established himself as one of the top young outside linebackers in the game ... for the year, finished 3rd on the club in tackles with 107, behind only fellow LBs Seth Joyner & Byron Evans ... in addition, had a career-high 6.5 sacks 2 interceptions, and team-highs of 4 forced fumbles & 3 fumble recoveries ... over the final 7 games, truly displayed his big-play ability ... his totals in that span included 5.5 sacks, 3 FFs, 2 FRs, & 1 INT ... that stellar streak began vs. NYG with a career-high 16 stops, including a sack ... a week later @Wash grabbed an INT, off Rich Gannon ... added a key sack vs. NO's Mike Buck as he forced a fumble that resulted in a safety ... then finished the season strong @SF with 10 tkls and 2 FFs, one of which came on a sack of Steve Young and resulted in a 30-yd TD return by Evans ... 1994: Started all 16 games at RLB and finished 2nd on the club in tackles (126) and 3rd in sacks (6) ... trailed only SS Michael Zordich (130) in the tackle department and only DE William Fuller (9.5) and DT Andy Harmon (9.0) in sacks ... fell just shy of the career-high 6.5 sacks he registered a year earlier ... after MLB Byron Evans was lost for the year with a knee injury in game 10, Thomas took over Evans' role as the sole LB on the field in the dime defense ... big outings included 2 sacks vs. Hou. (10/24), an interception off Dallas QB Rodney Peete (12/4), and a 14-tackle/1-sack effort @ Pit. (12/11) ... inked a contract extension on 10/27 that will keep him with the Eagles through 1996.

COLLEGE: Was voted as the Southwest Conf. defensive player of the year, a consensus 1st team All-SWC choice, and an All-America honorable mention pick as a senior when he led Texas A&M with 13 sacks ... as a junior, received All-America honorable mention acclaim after finishing 2nd on the team with 8.5 sacks ... a three-year starter, he played his final 2 seasons at LB after beginning as a free safety.

PERSONAL: William and his wife, Susan, reside in Sewell, NJ, with their son, Zion Michael (2/15/95) ... majored in sports management ... also lettered in football, track, and basketball at Palo Duro High in his hometown and birthplace of Amarillo, TX ... is a self-proclaimed EA Sports and Nintendo junkie ... is the youngest of three children, brothers Darrell and Charles.

ENTERING 1995: Became the Eagles' first veteran free agent acquisition under new head coach Ray Rhodes as he inked a three-year offer sheet on 2/28/95 that his former team, the Patriots, declined to match.

PRO CAREER: A key component in the offensive success of the New England Patriots in 1993-94 and a favorite receiver of QB Drew Bledsoe in that span, Turner has proven to be one of the league's most dependable pass-catching and blocking fullbacks ... after being a 2nd round selection of New England in the 1992 draft, he played in all 48 of New England's regular season contests during his 3-year stint there and started 19 games ... 1994: Started 9 games for the resurgent Patriots and caught a personal-high 52 of QB Drew Bledsoe's aeriels for 471 yards and 2 TDs ... in fact, Turner, TE Ben Coates (96), WR Michael Timpson (74), RB Leroy Thompson (65), and WR Vincent Brisby (58) enabled the Pats to become the only team in NFL history with 5 receivers all surpassing 50 receipts in a single season ... also went 36-111-1TD rushing ... on opening day @ Mia, snared a season-high 7 passes, and logged a 2-yd TD run ... caught 4 passes for 27 yards vs. Min, including the 14-yd game-winning TD toss from Bledsoe in OT as the Pats overcame a 20-3 halftime deficit ... 1993: Despite not moving into the starting lineup until game 6 vs. Hou., finished as the Pats' 2nd leading rusher with 231 yds on 50 carries ... made an even bigger impact as a receiver as his 39 catches for 333 yds. and 2TDs led all Patriot running backs and ranked 4th on the team ... had a personal-best 63 rushing yds. @ Cleve., including a 49-yd jaunt that led to the winning TD ... registered a career-high 8 receipts. for 61 yds. in an OT win vs. Mia ... 1992: Saw action in all 16 games as a rookie, primarily on special teams ... was 10-40 rushing and 7-52-1TD receiving in limited offensive duty ... led all special teamers with 13 tackles ... made his first NFL start vs. SF in place of injured RBs John Stephens and Leonard Russell ... recorded his first career TD with a 19-yd reception from Hugh Millen vs. Cleveland.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed an outstanding career as a pass-catching and blocking fullback at Alabama where he left as the school's 4th all-time leading receiver, first among running backs ... in fact, his 48 receptions as a sophomore was the fifth-highest single season total in Crimson Tide history and again, tops among RBs ... started all 12 games during his senior season, going 73-432-3TDs rushing and 12-156 receiving, while helping pave the way for backfield mate Siran Stacy's 966 rushing yards ... in 1990, started all 12 games and went 66-269 rushing and 26-240-1TD receiving ... was a teammate of current Eagles Mark McMillian and Derrick Oden.

PERSONAL: Single ... resides in Panama City, FL, during the offseason ... born in Prattville, AL ... was an all-metro running back at Prattville High where he served as team captain and earned player of the year honors as a senior after rushing for 1,077 yards on 165 carries ... also lettered in basketball and track ... majored in finance at Alabama.

ENTERING 1995: One of the most prominent free agent acquisitions in 1995, Ricky Watters officially became an Eagle on 3/25 when San Francisco declined to match the Philadelphia offer sheet signed by the 49ers' former transition player one week earlier ... thus, the two-time Pro Bowl running back joins the Birds along with new head coach Ray Rhodes, SF's former defensive coordinator, both of whom are fresh off the 49ers' Super Bowl XXIX triumph over the San Diego.

PRO CAREER: Despite perhaps being overshadowed by the likes of all-pro performers Jerry Rice and Steve Young in the 49ers potent offense, Watters still managed to establish himself as one of the premier running backs in the NFL today, garnering two Pro Bowl berths following the '92 and '93 seasons ... combining his excellent receiving skills along with his quick moves and running ability, Watters consistently ranked among the league leaders in combined yardage during the past three seasons in the Bay Area ... in fact, Watters has totaled 100-plus yards of total offense in 25 of his 42 career regular season starts and in 5 of his 7 career playoff contests ... after bouncing back from an injury-plagued rookie year in 1991 that put the 49ers' 2nd round pick on the Injured Reserve list for most of that campaign, Watters went on to lead SF in rushing in each of the next three years, going 653-2,840-25TDs over that period ... the sure-handed Watters also enters 1995 having caught 140 passes for 1,450 yards and 8 TDs ... 1994: Compiled a team-high 877 rushing yards on 239 carries, while his personal career-best 66 receptions for 719 yards ranked second on the 49ers' explosive offense ... ranked 5th in the league with 1,596 total yards from scrimmage ... his 11 TDs (6 rush., 5 rec.) placed him 2nd on the club to all-world WR Jerry Rice (15) ... keyed the 49ers' Super Bowl run by going 40-174-1TD rushing and 7-108-3TDs receiving in 3 post-season contests ... capped his excellent playoff run with a 3-TD effort in SF's Super Bowl XXIX win over San Diego, hauling in scoring strikes of 51 and 8 yds from Steve Young and rushing 9 yds for another ... vs. Den, logged a career-best 106 rec. yards and 2 TDs, including a 65-yd TD rec. from Young, the longest play of his NFL career ... had his best rushing performances during 49er wins @ NO (26-105) and vs. TB (14-103-2TDs) ... 1993: Paced the 49ers with 950 rushing yards, tied the club's single-season record with 10 rushing TDs and earned his 2nd consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl despite missing three games late in the season with a knee injury ... accumulated 100-plus yds of total offense on 8 occasions, including three 100-yd rushing games ... saved his best performance for the NFC Divisional Playoff Game, as he scampered for an NFL postseason record 5 TDs as part of a 24-118 rushing/5-46 receiving day in a 44-3 win over NYG ... logged 3 rushing TDs vs. Cin. prior to straining ligaments in his knee that kept him inactive until the season finale vs. Phi ... 1992: Rebounded from the broken foot that sidelined him for all of his rookie campaign and was selected to the Pro Bowl after leading the 49ers with a career-high 1,013 yards, the most ever by a 1st year 49er ... also recorded a team-high 9 TDs on the ground ... his 1,418 total yards from scrimmage tied for 8th in the NFL ... made a smashing NFL debut by going 13-100 rushing/5-50 receiving @ NYG ... in addition to going 19-104-1TD rushing at NE, he made the game winning TD reception from Steve Young ... registered 3 rushing TDs (8, 4 and 1 yds) vs. Atl ... established a career-high with 163 yds on the ground @ LA Rams ... did not see action in games vs. Mia. and @ Min. due to a shoulder injury suffered vs. Phi. ... came back to contribute with 100-plus yds of total offense in playoff games vs. Wash. and vs. Dal ... 1991: Had his inaugural NFL season cut short in the first week of training camp when a broken foot landed him on Injured Reserve ... was added to the practice squad in October, but suffered a broken hand shortly thereafter and was returned to I.R. for the remainder of the season.

COLLEGE: Finished a fine career with the Fighting Irish with 1,814 yards rushing and 21 TDs on 325 carries ... was converted to flanker for one season by Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz in 1988 and paced the Irish's national championship team that year with 15 receptions for 286 yards and 2TDs ... an accomplished punt returner as well, his 97-ydr. for a TD vs. SMU in 1989 is still the longest in Irish history, while his 3 TDs on punt returns tie him for first on Notre Dame's all-time list along with current Raider WR Tim Brown and Nick Rassas.

PERSONAL: Single ... born Richard James Watters on 4/7/69 in Harrisburg, PA ... was a two-time, all-state running back at Bishop McDevitt HS in Harrisburg ... during the '94 season, appeared on 49ers Playbook, a weekly television show that aired on KTVU-TV (FOX affiliate) on Sunday mornings ... is very active with the American Cancer Society and was named their 1994 Humanitarian of the Year ... for every touchdowns he scores in '95, Watters will donate $1,000 to Camp Okizu, a summer camp for children suffering from cancer located in the San Francisco Bay Area ... participated in a charitable event this past June benefitting children left without parents as a result of the Oklahoma City bombing ... has been in the corner of world champion heavyweight boxer and good friend, George Foreman, during some of his recent bouts ... also lettered in basketball and track & field ... has a B.A. degree in design.

PRO CAREER: While he may not be the fastest receiver on the squad, Williams has truly emerged as one of the Eagles' big play performers, leading the club in TD receptions in three of his five pro campaigns ... indeed "productive", "steady", and "solid" are words commonly used to describe the play of this big-time receiver ... 1990: The third of four wideouts drafted by the Eagles in 1990 (taken in the 5th round as the 133rd selection overall), Williams moved ahead of incumbent Cris Carter and claimed the starting WR spot opposite Mike Quick in preseason ... went on to be selected to Football News' NFL all-rookie team after going 37-602-9TDs receiving ... his 9 TDs ranked third in the NFL behind Jerry Rice's 13 and Andre Rison's 10, led the Eagles, and set a Birds' rookie record, surpassing Bobby Walston's mark of 8 set in 1951 ... 1991: Was slowed early on by a dislocated shoulder suffered @Dal. (9/15) ... spent the next four weeks on injured reserve ... was very productive after returning to the lineup in game 9 - caught 3 TD passes in the next six weeks, including a 5-yd game-winner from Jim McMahon @Cle. ... had his best day @Cle. with 6 receipts. for 76 yds, including the game-winning TD ... 1992: Led the Eagles with 7 TD receptions ... started 15 games and finished 42-598-7TDs receiving ... had a big effort vs. Den., going 5-108-2TDs with 24 & 49-yd TDs ... in that game, Williams and teammate Fred Barnett (5-102-1TD) became the 1st pair of Eagle WRs to each top the century mark in receiving yds in the same game since Harold Carmichael and Mike Quick did so vs. Wash. on 9/11/83 ... had the Birds' only TD in the NFC Divisional Playoff loss @Dal. ... 1993: Hauled in a career-high 10 TD catches in '93 to rank 4th in the NFL behind only Pro Bowlers Jerry Rice (15), Andre Rison (15), and Sterling Sharpe (11) ... also set personal career-highs with 725 receiving yards and 60 receptions to rank 1st & 2nd, respectively, on the club ... with 60 points, was the only non-kicker to lead his team in scoring ... earned NFC offensive player of the week honors vs. Wash. in game 3, his best as a pro ... in that game, posted then career-receiving highs of 8 receipts, 181 yds, & 3 TDs, including a career-long 80-ydr, a 9-ydr to tie the game with 8:23 to play, and a 10-yd game-winner with :04 remaining ... vs. Mia., equaled his then career-best of 8 catches, incl. 2 for TDs ... two weeks later @Wash. made 3 of his 4 grabs on the game-winning 4th qtr. TD drive ... starred @Indy with his 2nd 100-yd game of the year, a 6-105-1TD effort ... closed the season with his 10th TD catch @SF ... 1994: Was once again paired with Fred Barnett to give the Eagles a dangerous duo of starting receivers ... registered a career-high 813 receiving yards on 58 receptions, eclipsing the 725-yd. output he had a year earlier ... top receiving efforts included a career-high 9 catches for 122 yds. @ SF (10/2), 2 TD catches in a Monday night clash vs. Chi. (9/12), and a 6-122 game @ Cin (12/24) that included a 53-yd. catch ... did not start games vs. Hou. (10/24) and Ariz. (11/6) when the Birds opened in a 2-tight end set.

COLLEGE: After Purdue switched from the wishbone to a pro-style offense mid-way through his senior season, Williams flourished, tying for 3rd in the Big 10 Conf. that year with 51 receptions (630 yards, 7TDs) en route to team MVP and honorable mention all-conf. acclaim ... was 37-479-3TDs as a junior and 42-585-6TDs as a sophomore ... held a starting job since midway through his freshman year (when he teamed with future Colts and Falcons QB Jeff George before George transferred to Illinois) and finished his career 138-1,855-17TDs receiving.

PERSONAL: Married the former Charese Forrest on 5/13/95 ... together they reside in Voorhees, NJ, during the season and Baltimore, MD, during the offseason ... has a degree in hotel and restaurant management ... enjoys cooking and would like to open a restaurant ... also enjoys basketball, tennis, and music ... has taped public service announcements for the United Negro College Fund and the Philadelphia Boy/Girl Scouts ... attended Dunbar High in Baltimore where he was coached on the gridiron by former Maryland basketball coach Robert Wade and was an all-metro pick as a senior ... also lettered in basketball where he teamed with future NBA players such as Mugsy Bogues and David Wingate (Seattle SuperSonics) and Reggie Williams (Denver Nuggets) as well as the late Reggie Lewis (Boston Celtics) ... born in Baltimore, the 2nd of 5 children; sisters Toni (who is employed by the FBI), Rachel, Michele, and brother Warren.

1994 GAME-BY-GAME REVIEW

Game 1, Sun., Sept. 4
NY Giants 28, Philadelphia 23
Giants Stadium 76,130

New York jumped out to a 21-3 lead from which the Eagles could never recover, as the Giants beat Philly for the third straight time. Special teams miscues hampered the Eagles early on as a muffed punt by Jeff Sydnor set up NY at the P21 and led to a 1-yd Rodney Hampton TD run. Following the Birds' ensuing possession, Dave Meggett returned a short punt 68 yds to make the score 14-0. After Eddie Murray's 21-yd FG put the Eagles on the board, Giants QB Dave Brown hit Chris Calloway with a 51-yard scoring strike. Just before intermission, Randall Cunningham's 93-yd strike to RB Herschel Walker, the 3rd longest play in team history and the NFC's longest pass play of the year, put the Eagles at the NY 1. From there, a Cunningham-to-Mark Bavaro TD pass trimmed the Giants' lead to 11. After NY fumbled on its first possession of the 2nd half, Murray's 39-yd FG brought the Birds within 8, but Meggett's 26-yd TD run put NY ahead 28-13 heading into the 4th quarter. Another Murray FG and a late Cunningham-to-Calvin Williams scoring pass made the score 28-23 but when Philly couldn't recover an on-side kick with 1:17 to play, the Giants escaped with victory.

Game 2, Mon., Sept. 12
Philadelphia 30, Chicago 22
Veterans Stadium 64,890

The Eagles recorded their first victory of 1994 and their first in the Jeffrey Lurie era by defeating the Bears in a Monday night contest at the Vet. In fact, Lurie, the club's new owner, received one of two game balls given out by head coach Rich Kotite; the other went to DT William Perry, a former Bear. Many Birds contributed to the triumph, but none larger than QB Randall Cunningham who went 36-24-311-0-3TD en route to posting the first back-to-back 300-yd passing days of his career. The Eagles exploded with 30 unanswered points to open the game and dominated on both sides of the ball until a late rally by the Bears closed the lead to 8 pts. Two Cunningham-to-Calvin Williams TD passes (9 & 14 yds) gave the Eagles a 14-0 lead early in 2nd qtr. A short time later, Cunningham connected with TE Maurice Johnson on 7-yd TD for a commanding 21-0 bulge. Kicker Eddie Murray finished the first half scoring with a 41-yd FG. After two more Murray FGs, including one set up by FS Greg Jackson's INT off Erik Kramer, Chicago trailed 30-0. But the Bears stormed back in the 4th stanza as Kramer tossed 22 & 85-yd TD passes to WR Curtis Conway and a 16-yarder to TE Marv Cook to cut the lead to 30-22. But an Eagles first down on their ensuing possession enabled them to run out the clock and seal the win.

Game 3, Sun., Sept. 18
Philadelphia 13, Green Bay 7
Veterans Stadium 63,922

Clad in the uniforms of their 1948 NFL championship squad on the NFL's "Throwbacks Weekend", the Philly defense turned in a performance against the Packers that would have made legendary Eagles coach Greasy Neale proud. For the 2nd week in a row, the Eagles' defense held its opponent to just 37 rushing yards while also sacking QB Brett Favre 6 times and forcing 3 turnovers, 2 of which led to Eagle scores. It appeared that the fine effort might go for naught, though, when the Packers recovered a fumble by Randall Cunningham at the E11 with 2:03 to play. But the defense came up big, holding GB to five yards on 4 plays to preserve the 13-7 win.

The Pack, outfitted in their 1937 uniforms, opened the scoring late in the 1st quarter with a 37-yard catch-and-run TD by RB Reggie Cobb from Favre. In his first game back at the Vet since joining Green Bay as a free agent prior to the '92 season, former Eagle DE Reggie White and his teammates held the Birds in check until their last drive of the first half. The Eagles got the ball then when SS Michael Zordich picked off a Favre pass in the end zone to halt a GB drive. Then, with less than a minute until the half, Cunningham marched the Birds' offense to the GB9 where Eddie Murray kicked a 26-yd FG. The big play of the drive came on 4th-n-10 when a scrambling Cunningham stiff-armed White and hit WR Calvin Williams for a 34-yd gain.

On the first play after intermission, DE William Fuller forced a Cobb fumble that Zordich pounced on at the GB27. Seven plays later, Cunningham took a QB sneak into the end zone to put the Birds ahead 10-7. After the defense sent the Pack three-plays-and-out on their next series, the Eagles launched a 9-play, 36-yd drive that resulted in another 26-yd Murray FG - his 8th as an Eagle in as many tries. In that 3rd Q., the Philly D limited GB to minus-16 net offensive yds. and no first downs. On their first drive of the 4th Q., the Pack reached the E34 but were stuffed on a 4th-n-1 run. The Eagles seemed to have the game in hand when they had the ball with 2:13 left and GB out of timeouts. However, when Cunningham lost the ball on a sack by Steve McMichael & Don Davey, the Pack recovered and took over just 11 yards away from the go-ahead TD. After a 5-yd completion on 1st down, CBs Mark McMillan & Eric Allen knocked down passes on 2nd & 3rd downs, respectively, to set up the decisive 4th-n-5 play. It was then that Favre hit RB Edgar Bennett with a swing pass in the flat but he was dropped immediately by DB Otis Smith for no gain and Philly's D had sealed the win.

Game 4, Sun., Oct. 2
Philadelphia 40, SF 49ers 8
Candlestick Park 64,843

While it may not have registered on the Richter Scale, the Eagles sent tremors throughout the Bay area with a 40-8 win over the 49ers that was every bit as one-sided as the score would indicate. The margin of victory was the Eagles' largest since their 52-10 win over St. Louis on 11/8/81 and was SF's worst home defeat since 10/29/67 when they fell to Detroit, 45-3 at Kezar Stadium. Among those leading the way for Philly was WR Calvin Williams (career-high 9 receptions, for 122 rec.), QB Randall Cunningham (29-20-246-0-2TDs) passing to become the 2nd Eagle to top 20,000 career passing yds) and a defense that held the vaunted Bay area offense to just 189 total yards and 11 first downs. However, on a day with many stars, certainly none shone more brightly than rookie RB Charlie Garner, who in his 1st NFL game was brilliant in just over a half of action, going 16-111-2TDs rushing.

After being sidelined since game 2 of the preseason with a stress fracture of his rib, Garner started at RB and put the Birds on the board first with a 1-yd TD run on the game's opening drive. On the Niners' 1st offensive play, Steve Young's pass was intercepted by CB Eric Allen and one play later Garner scampered 28 yds off tackle for his 2nd TD in as many carries. On the 1st series of the 2nd Q., DE William Fuller sacked Young in the end zone for a safety, giving the Eagles an early 16-0 lead. On the ensuing possession, Garner runs of 16, 8 & 4 yds preceded a 28-yd Cunningham-to-Victor Bailey TD that put Philly ahead 23-0. The Niners bounced back on their next drive, capping it with a 1-yd Young sneak, followed by a successful 2-pt conversion on a pass to TE Brent Jones. The Eagles refused to let San Fran back in it, however, as they went 65 yds on their next drive (15 coming on a Garner run, 28 on a Garner receipt.) that ended with a 2-yd scoring run by Herschel Walker and a 30-8 lead.

Although Garner exited in the 3rd Q. with back & shoulder soreness, Philly continued to add to its lead with Eddie Murray's 36-yd FG - his 9th as an Eagle in as many tries. Meanwhile, the defense continued to make life miserable for Young (23-11-99-2INT-0TD), who was eventually pulled at the end of the 3rd Q. (in favor of Elvis Grbac), along with WRs Jerry Rice, John Taylor and most of the 49ers starters. The game's final score came early in the 4th Q. on an 18-yd scoring strike from Cunningham to TE Mark Bavaro.

Game 5, Sun., Oct. 9
 Philadelphia 21, Washington 17
 Veterans Stadium 63,947

The Birds hung on to escape with a 4-point victory over the Redskins in a rain-soaked Sunday night game at the Vet.

Leading the way was RB Charlie Garner, who turned in his 2nd 100-yard rushing day in as many games & QB Randall Cunningham (22-39-261-2-1TD pass/6-23-1TD rush.) Cunningham opened the scoring late in the 1st quarter when he sprinted 20 yards down the sideline and soared head over heels into the end zone to cap a 10-play, 87-yard drive. The Redskins were held in check until just before the half when rookie QB Heath Shuler took over at the Redskins 20 with 1:00 to play and marched 80 yds in 5 plays, the last 27 coming on a scoring strike to rookie WR Tydus Winans. When Chip Lohmiller's PAT sailed right, the Eagles headed to the locker room at intermission with a 7-6 lead.

Midway through the 3rd Q., however, Shuler and Winans again hooked up for a TD, this time on a pass play covering 41 yds. A successful 2-point conversion (Shuler to Desmond Howard) put the 'Skins ahead 14-7. The Birds answered right back on their next possession when Cunningham found WR Fred Barnett on a 49-yd TD pass, Barnett's 1st since the '92 NFC Wild Card game. After Frank Wycheck ret'd the ensuing kickoff to the Phila. 34 - one of three Wash. KOPs of 43 yds or longer - Lohmiller's 47-yd FG put the Redskins ahead 17-14. However, on the opening drive of the 4th Q., the Eagles went 80 yds in 8 plays to score the go-ahead TD on a 2-yd run by Herschel Walker. On that drive, Garner went 5-31 rush, to top the 100-yd mark for the 2nd straight week - the 1st rookie in Eagle history to do so & only the 7th player in NFL history to go over the century mark in his 1st two games - before again exiting with soreness of his ribs. Washington did have a chance for victory, though, taking over at their own 8 with 1:48 to play and marching to the E33 before Shuler's 3rd down pass to Howard was INT'd by FS Greg Jackson at the E3, sealing the win.

While the offense was led by Garner & Cunningham, the defense turned in another solid effort, holding in check a Redskin squad that started 4 drives in Eagle territory. DE William Fuller picked up his 6th sack of the year (incl. one in each game) while LB Bill Romanowski notched another, giving him 2.5 in '94. For the 4th straight game, the NFL's #1 run defense held an opponent to under 60 yards on the ground, surrendering just 55 to Washington.

Game 8, Sun., Oct. 16
Dallas 24, Philadelphia 13
Texas Stadium 64,703

The Cowboys won their fifth straight game against the Eagles with a 24-13 decision.

The Eagles got out of the blocks early and struck first when Randall Cunningham connected with Herschel Walker on a 32-yard TD pass on the Birds' 2nd drive, one which was set up by a 40-yard Jeff Sydnor punt return. The Birds' D also did a good job early, sending the Cowboys 3-n-out on their 1st three possessions, two ending with punts and the 3rd on a Greg Jackson INT off Troy Aikman. In fact, the Eagles dominated the 1st Q. with 106 total yards of offense to Dallas' 6, and led in time of possession by over 8 minutes. However, the Cowboys started clicking midway through the 2nd Q. After an 80-yd punt on a quick-kick by Cunningham, Dallas took over at their own 16 and went 84 yards in 14 plays, capping the drive with a 2-yd TD plunge by Emmitt Smith. On the Eagles next possession, Cunningham was INT'd by DB Kenneth Gant and three plays later, Aikman hit WR Alvin Harper with a 16-yd scoring pass to give Dallas a 14-7 halftime lead.

Early in the 3rd Q, an INT by Cowboy SS Darren Woodson gave Dallas the ball at the PE31. After three Smith runs, a 14-yd Aikman-to-Jay Novacek TD gave Dallas a 21-7 lead. The lead grew to 17 points early in the 3rd with a 37-yd Chris Boniol FG. The Birds cut into that lead with under 6:00 to play on a 34-yd scoring run by RB James Joseph. While the 2-point try failed, LB Marc Woodard recovered the ensuing onside kick, giving the Eagles the ball at their own 31 with 5:27 to play. The Eagles marched to the DC1 but Cunningham's 3rd down pass was INT'd in the end zone by CB Larry Brown, sealing the win for Dallas.

Game 7, Mon., Oct. 24
Philadelphia 21, Houston 6
Veterans Stadium 65,233

The Eagles upped their record to 6-0 lifetime against the Houston Oilers with a Monday night victory at the Vet. Leading the way on offense were WR Fred Barnett (5-187-1TD receiving) and QB Randall Cunningham (24-13-310-2TDs passing) while key defensive contributions came from CB Eric Allen, who set up one TD with his 33rd career interception and RLB William Thomas who chipped in 2 sacks.

The Oilers got on the board first with a 21-yard Al Del Greco field goal, the first score by a '94 Eagles opponent on their opening drive. Midway through the 2nd quarter, the Eagles marched to the Oiler 1-yd line before Cunningham's 4th down pass to FB Brian O'Neal fell incomplete. The Birds got a reprieve, however, when Allen intercepted a Cody Carlson pass and returned it to the Houston 14. Four straight runs by RB Charlie Garner, the last one a 1-yd TD plunge, put Philly ahead 7-3. But the Oilers bounced back on their next drive as Del Greco's 24-yd FG with :21 in the half cut the Birds' lead to one at intermission.

On the opening drive of the 2nd half, the Oilers marched to the PE26 before RB Gary Brown fumbled and Eagles' DB Derrick Frazier recovered the ball to squelch a scoring threat. Two series later, Cunningham and Barnett connected on a 53-yard TD pass to put the Eagles ahead 14-6. While the Houston offense moved the ball well, turnovers continued to haunt them — one drive ended at the PE34 when former Oiler William Fuller notched his 8th sack of the year and forced a Carlson fumble that DT Andy Harmon pounced on; another Houston drive ended at the PE2 with one more fumble by Brown. The Birds sealed the game on RB James Joseph's 35-yd TD catch-n-run from Cunningham with 2:18 to play to make the final score 21-6.

Game 8, Sun., Oct. 30
Philadelphia 31, Washington 29
RFK Stadium 53,530

The Eagles recorded their fifth straight victory over Washington and their 2nd consecutive season sweep of the 'Skins with a win at RFK. The victory did not come easily nor without late-game drama. Eddie Murray's 30-yard FG with :19 left was the game-winner and marked the 5th straight Eagles-'Skins game that was decided in the final minute of play.

The Redskins jumped out to an early 14-0 lead on a pair of touchdown passes by rookie QB Gus Frerotte - a 13-yarder to WR Desmond Howard and a 15-yarder to TE Ethan Horton. Midway through the 2nd Q., though, DE Andy Harmon sacked Frerotte and forced a fumble that he recovered at the W18. Three plays later, RB Herschel Walker caught an 11-yard TD pass from Randall Cunningham that halved the Redskin lead. However, when Chip Lohmiller's 54-yard FG skipped over the crossbar as the half expired, Washington went into the lockerroom at intermission leading 17-7.

On the opening drive of the 2nd half, the Birds trimmed that deficit when FS Greg Jackson intercepted a Frerotte offering and raced 55 yards for the Birds' 1st defensive score of '94 and the 1st TD of Jackson's 6-year career. The 'Skins came right back on their next possession with a 14-play, 63-yard drive that resulted in a 23-yard Lohmiller FG. The Eagles answered, though, with a long scoring drive of their own, going 75 yards in 12 plays and capping it with a one-yard Walker TD dive that put the Eagles ahead 21-20. That lead grew to 8 when RB Vaughn Hebron's 6-yard TD run ended an 8-play, 71-yard drive. Frerotte's one-yard TD pass to James Jenkins on Wash.'s next series cut the margin to two after the 2-pt. try failed. When the Birds' next drive stalled, the Redskins reclaimed the lead on Lohmiller's 3rd FG of the game - this time a 40-yarder with 3:58 to play. Facing defeat, the Eagles took over at their own 24 before Cunningham & Co. marched 63 yards in 11 plays, the key one coming on a 14-yard 3rd-n-10 completion to Calvin Williams that was followed by a 17-yard run by Hebron that took the Eagles down to the Redskin 17. Four plays later, Murray trotted out and, despite missing 49 & 42 yarders earlier in the

Game 9, Sun., Nov. 6
Philadelphia 17, Arizona 7
Veterans Stadium 64,952

In a contest that received much advance hype for the Vet Stadium return of former Eagles head coach Buddy Ryan, now the Cardinals' head man, and a number of former Eagles players now with Arizona, Philadelphia turned in a quietly impressive performance to defeat the visiting Cards.

Leading the way for the Eagles' offense was WR Fred Barnett, who gained 173 yards on a career-high 11 receptions, incl. 47 & 50-yard TD catches and QB Randall Cunningham who, in addition to going 24-15-201-0-2TDs through the air, rushed for a game-high 63 yards on 8 carries.

Though the game was scoreless through nearly two full quarters, each team had scoring chances as the Eagles reached the AC6 before two penalties and a sack were followed by a missed 42-yard FG by Eddie Murray. Arizona returned the favor on their next possession when Greg Davis was unsuccessful from 52 yards away. As a result, the Eagles took over at their own 42 with 1:09 left in the half. Cunningham and Co. then marched 40 yards in 7 plays (27 coming on 3 passes to Barnett, 9 on a Cunningham run) before K Eddie Murray's 36-yard FG with :09 to play in the half broke the deadlock.

On the Cards' 1st possession of the 2nd half, DE Burt Grossman's sack of Beuerlein forced a fumble that CB Mark McMillian recovered at the Arizona 47. On the very next play, Cunningham hit Barnett in stride with a picturesque 47-yard strike down the left sideline that put the Eagles ahead 10-0. That lead grew to 17 points on the Eagles' next possession when Cunningham completed a 6-play, 93-yard scoring drive with another deep TD pass to Barnett. This one, which covered 50 yards, was less artistic but just as effective as Cunningham's loss into triple coverage bounced off the hands of Arizona FS Terry Hoage and into the waiting arms of Barnett. Arizona's next possession reached the PE17 but ended there when Eagles' SS (and former Cardinal) Michael Zordich notched the trifecta on Beuerlein with a sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery. Arizona's only score of the day came with 1:55 to play on a 5-yard Beuerlein pass to WR Ricky Proehl.

Game 10, Sun., Nov. 13
Cleveland 26, Philadelphia 7
Veterans Stadium 65,233

The Eagles lost the game to the Cleveland Browns, 26-7, but the Birds suffered more than just a loss on the scoreboard. They also lost Byron Evans for the remainder of the year when the starting MLB suffered a fractured right leg in the 2nd quarter.

Although Cleveland barely edged the Eagles in total yards (298-288), the visiting Browns dominated on offense, defense, and special teams all afternoon. Cleveland jumped out to a 7-0 lead on their first possession after a 22-yd punt return by Eric Metcalf to the Eagles' 18 set up a 3-yd TD loss from QB Mark Rypien to Mark Carrier. A 3-n-out series by the Eagles was then followed by a 10-play Cleveland drive resulting in a 35-yd Matt Stover FG.

Early in the 2nd Q., the Browns were in position to widen their lead after taking over at the P36 following Bryan Barker's 18-yd punt and a 15-yd penalty. But after reaching the 12, two penalties moved the visitors out of field goal range.

Not until midway through the second stanza did Philadelphia mount a threat. It was then that a 47-yd pass interference penalty on Cleveland's Antonio Langham paved the way for a 15-yd TD run by Vaughn Hebronn as the Eagles narrowed their deficit to 10-7. Undaunted, Cleveland struck back immediately as Randy Baldwin streaked 60 yds with the ensuing kickoff. The big return resulted in another Stover FG and a 13-7 Cleveland lead at the half.

Cleveland started the third quarter with another big runback, returning a short kickoff to their own 39. Two plays later, a 43-yd Rypien-to-Carrier pass set up Stover's 3rd FG of the day, a 22-ydr for a 16-7 advantage. Stover then tied his career-best effort by booting a 4th FG midway through the Q. after an INT off Randall Cunningham by Browns' LB Frank Starns gave Cleveland the ball at the Eagles' 45.

Trailing 19-7, Philadelphia had a chance to cut into the Cleveland lead late in the 3rd qtr. but came up empty. SS Mike Zordich's INT off Rypien enabled the Birds to take over at the C37. But after moving to the 13, Cunningham and center David Alexander mishandled the snap from center and Cleveland's Don Griffin recovered the ball, squelching the threat. The Browns then iced the game with a 9-play, 80-yd drive capped by Earnest Byner's 4-yd TD scamper.

Game 11, Sun., Nov. 20
Arizona 12, Philadelphia 6
Sun Devil Stadium 62,779

Despite turning in their least impressive outing of the season (just 185 yards of total offense), the Eagles still had several chances to defeat the Cardinals. Each time, however, they shot themselves in the foot with penalties, turnovers, and dropped passes and, as a result, lost a game of field goals - four by Arizona's Greg Davis to two by Phila.'s Eddie Murray.

While neither team reached its opponent's end zone, Ariz. got to the Phila. 7 twice in the first half before the Eagle defense stiffened and forced them to settle for a pair of 24-yard Davis FGs. The Eagles finally got on the board at the end of the first half when a strong Eagle defensive stand, followed by a poor Cardinal punt gave Philly the ball at the AC22 with :42 left in the half. Three plays later, Murray's 26-yard FG with :14 left trimmed the Cardinal lead to 3 heading into the locker room. Considering the Eagles' first half futility, they were lucky to still be in the game. While the offense accumulated just 21 offensive yards, the defense surrendered 160, including 91 on the ground, more than Arizona had averaged per game in their first 10 contests.

Arizona increased its lead to 9-3 early in the 2nd half on Davis' 3rd 24-yard FG of the game. The Eagles then appeared to take the lead when Herschel Walker returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a TD, only to have a holding penalty bring it back to the PE24. Still, the offense marched 59 yards to the AC17 before the drive ended when Cunningham's pass to Fred Barnett was intercepted by DB Aeneas Williams at the one. The Eagles then reached the AC13 on their next drive but had to settle for a 30-yard Murray FG that cut the Eagles' deficit to 9-6 early in the 4th quarter. On Philly's next possession a fumble by Walker turned the ball over to the Cardinals at the Arizona 42 and the host team converted the miscue into Davis' 4th FG of the day, a 39-yarder.

Trailing 12-9 with 5:16 to play, the Eagles took over at their own 36 and twice converted 4th down plays - one on a 21-yard run by Charlie Garner and the other on a Cunningham-to-Calvin Williams pass - to reach the AC24. It was there, however, that they turned it over on downs with 1:49 to play. They had one last shot when the defense sent the Cards 3-and-out on their next drive and the offense took over at the PE42 with :40 left. An 18-yard Cunningham scramble got the Eagles to the AC40, but three incompletions and a sack sealed the Arizona win.

Game 12, Sun., Nov. 27
Atlanta 28, Philadelphia 21
Georgia Dome 60,008

The Eagles turned in their third straight lackluster performance and consequently fell to the host Falcons 28-21.

It was obvious early on that the Birds were in for a difficult afternoon as their first series began with a busted play that lost 3 yards; that play was immediately followed by RB Charlie Garner's fumble that gave Atlanta the ball at the PE18. Four snaps later, QB Jeff George hit WR Terrance Mathis with a 9-yard TD strike that put the Eagles in an early 7-0 hole.

When FS Greg Jackson picked off a George pass (Jackson's 5th INT of the season), the offense took over at the AF34 and turned the takeaway into a TD. Randall Cunningham's sneak from a yard out knotted the score at 7 and ended the team's 7-quarter TD drought. Atlanta came right back, though, and added a Norm Johnson field goal on each of its final two 1st half possessions (50 & 40 yds) to take a 13-7 lead.

The Falcons then opened the 2nd half by marching to the PE12 before a George pass bounced off the head of LT Mike Kenn and was snatched by LB Bill Romanowski for an INT at the PE9. On the next play, RB Herschel Walker exploded off right tackle and raced right into the record books with a 91-yard run that gave the Eagles a 1-point lead. It was the NFL's longest run from scrimmage in five years as well as the longest in club history. However, the lead and momentum that resulted from Walker's run was short-lived, as the Falcons marched 67 yards on the ensuing drive, finishing it with the a 9-yard George-to-Mathis TD - the duo's 2nd score of the day. When the pair connected on the 2-point try, Atlanta led 21-14 midway through the 3rd quarter.

Atlanta's lead grew to 14 when FB Craig Heyward capped a 12-play, 87-yard drive with a 5-yard run on the first play of the 4th qtr. The Eagles were still alive, however, with 5:26 to play after Eric Allen INT'd a George pass and gave the Eagles the ball at the AF28. (The theft was the 34th of E.A.'s career, tying the club's career mark set by Bill Bradley). Four plays later, Walker pulled the team within a TD with his 2nd score of the day, a 2-yd run.

After the Philly D sent Atlanta 3-n-out on their next drive, the offense took over at their own 43 with 2:25 to play. However, Cunningham's 1st down pass was picked off by Anthony Phillips, ending the Eagles' last real chance to tie.

Game 13, Sun., Dec. 4
Dallas 31, Philadelphia 19
Veterans Stadium 65,974

For the third straight week, the Eagles found themselves with chances to tie or take the lead late in the 4th quarter. However, they again failed to convert on those opportunities and, as a result, lost their fourth contest in as many tries.

Dallas opened the scoring late in the first quarter when Rodney Peete (starting in place of injured regular Troy Aikman) found WR Michael Irvin with a 19-yard scoring pass to go up 7-0. The Eagles made it 7-3 midway through the 2nd quarter when Eddie Murray hit a 22-yard FG. The Cowboys came right back on their next possession, marching 71 yards in 7 plays, the key one coming on 3rd-n-7 when Peete and Irvin connected on a 46-yard pass that bounced out of the hands of Eagles' SS Michael Zordich. One play later, Emmitt Smith scored from 4 yards away to put Dallas up 14-3. The Eagles made it 14-6 just before intermission as Murray's 19-yarder with '14 left capped a 13-play, 72-yard drive.

Dallas increased its lead to 21-6 midway through the 3rd quarter on a five-play, all-Emmitt drive. The Cowboy RB carried 3 straight times for 23 yards, caught a 23-yard pass from Peete, then waltzed three yards off right tackle for his 19th TD of the year. Philly narrowed the deficit to 8 on their next drive when Cunningham threw a 25-yard scoring strike to Fred Barnett. On the Cowboys' ensuing drive, they had a 1st-n-goal from the three but the Eagle D relinquished only a 19-yard Chris Boniol FG on the 1st play of the 4th quarter.

The Philly offense then moved 69 yards in 8 plays, mostly on Cunningham passes. With Randall's club record-tying 10th straight completion, a 5-yard TD to TE Maurice Johnson, the Eagles had pulled to within 5 (the 2-point try failed). When the Cowboys got the ball back, the defense again came up big by twice sacking Peete and tackling Smith for a one-yard loss. After Jeff Sydnor's career-long 49-yard punt return to the DC12, the Birds were in prime position to take the lead on the two-time defending Super Bowl champs. However, the tide turned quickly for the home team as Cunningham's 3rd down pass to James Joseph was intercepted at the 6 by SS Darren Woodson, who returned it 94 yards for a touchdown. Instead of going up 26-24 with under 7 minutes to play, the Eagles now trailed 31-19. Philly's next drive did reach the DC5, but when their 4th down play failed to reach the end zone, any chance for a Birds' victory was ended.

Game 14, Sun., Dec. 11
Pittsburgh 14, Philadelphia 3
Three Rivers Stadium 55,474

On a cold, snowy afternoon at Three Rivers Stadium, Philadelphia shut out the host Steelers for three full quarters but an anemic Eagles offense could produce just a 3-point cushion heading into the final stanza. When the Steelers scored on consecutive possessions in that 4th quarter, it provided them with more than enough points to send the reeling Eagles to defeat for the fifth straight Sunday.

The Eagles began the game in impressive fashion when Herschel Walker returned the opening kickoff 58 yards to the Steeler 35. From there, the Birds marched to the three-yard line before the drive stalled and Eddie Murray came on to nail a 21-yard field goal. Unfortunately, after that opening drive, the Eagles would cross midfield just three more times and never penetrate further than the Steeler 37. Nonetheless, Philly's D was able to contain the AFC's #1 rushing offense and hold onto the slim lead. In the 2nd quarter, Pittsburgh reached the PE36 before MLB Britt Hager halted the drive when he recorded his 2nd career INT on a pass from Neil O'Donnell to TE Eric Green. The Steelers later marched to the Eagle 24 just before intermission and attempted a FG with :08 left. However, a mis-handled exchange between holder Mark Royals and kicker Gary Anderson thwarted another Steeler scoring chance.

The Steelers reached the Phila. 32 late in the 3rd quarter but again turned it over, this time when DT Tommy Jeter's sack of O'Donnell forced a fumble that DE William Fuller recovered. On their first possession of the 4th quarter, the Steelers finally got on the board and took the lead when O'Donnell capped an 8-play, 83-yard drive with an 18-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Hastings. On the next play from scrimmage, Randall Cunningham overthrew his receiver and was INT'd by FS Darren Perry who returned the theft 38 yards to the PE17. Three plays later, RB John L. Williams' 3-yard TD run quickly put the Steelers up 14-3 with 8:16 to play. The Eagles would get the ball back twice more but could not advance past their own 38 and fell by a final score of 14-3.

Game 15, Sun., Dec. 18
NY Giants 16, Philadelphia 13
Veterans Stadium 64,540

After making a number of offensive lineup changes earlier in the week, it appeared the Eagles may have gotten the spark they were looking for as they scored on a 1st quarter 27-yard strike from Bubby Brister to TE Mark Bavaro. Brister made his 1st start of '94 in place of Randall Cunningham. The score was set up by SS Michael Zordich's 3rd INT of the season, a theft off Dave Brown that he returned to the NY40. Midway through the 2nd quarter, the Philly lead grew to 10-0 on a 32-yard Eddie Murray FG that capped a 10-play, 77-yard drive. The Giants got on the board at the end of the half when kicker Brad Daluiso nailed 47-yarder with :04 before intermission.

Murray's 42-yd FG on the opening possession of the 2nd half gave the Eagles a 13-3 lead that they held until Daluiso trimmed it to 7 with a 19-yarder later in the quarter. Midway through the 4th quarter, a Brister pass was INT'd by Thomas Randolph at the PE44 and 7 plays later, RB Dave Meggett scampered 5 yards off right tackle to knot the game at 13 with fewer than 4 minutes to play. Then, on the ensuing kickoff, Jeff Sydnor fumbled and the Giants recovered at the PE36. While the fumbled kickoff hurt the Birds, they looked as if they might survive when New York faced a 3rd-n-16 play from the PE42. However, a well-designed pass play to Meggett picked up 34 yards and put the Giants at the PE8. Four plays later, Daluiso's 3rd FG of the day - an 18-yarder - put New York ahead by 3 with under a minute to go. Following a Giant squib kick, Brister & the Birds took over at their own 42 with :47 left. Three completions and an offside penalty moved the ball to the NY32 with :13 left. Then, after WR Victor Bailey was tackled in bounds on a 5-yard pick-up it looked as if the clock would expire on the Eagles' season. However, when Giant Jessie Armistead picked up the dead ball and ran with it, the officials signaled for a clock stoppage. After much discussion, 2 seconds were put back on the game-clock, enough time for Brister to kill the re-started clock with an incompleteness and allow Murray to try a FG with 1 second left to play. But Murray's 44-yard attempt to force overtime sailed just left of the up-rights.

Game 16, Sun., Dec. 24
Cincinnati 33, Philadelphia 30
Riverfront Stadium 39,923

The Bengals came out of the gates flying, as they marched 76 yards in six plays, capping the game-opening drive with a 14-yard scoring pass from Jeff Blake to Carl Pickens. The Eagles responded later in the quarter with a 36-yard Eddie Murray field goal that was soon answered by Cincy kicker David Peirce's 28-yarder. Then, on the ensuing kickoff, Herschel Walker fielded the ball at the 6 and raced 94 yards into both the end zone and the record books. Combined with his 93-yd reception in the season opener in New York and his 91-yd TD run in game 12 at Atlanta, the play made him the only player in NFL history to notch that trifecta in one season. In addition, it was the Eagles' first KOR for a TD since Andre Waters did it as a rookie on 11/18/84 vs. Washington.

On their next possession, the Birds scored again as Bubba Brister, starting for the 2nd straight week at QB, capped a 9-play, 88-yard drive with a 7-yard TD pass to James Joseph that put the Eagles ahead 17-10. The lead increased to 10 just before the half on Murray's 2nd FG of the game, a 23-yarder.

Early in the 3rd quarter, SS Michael Zordich made a diving interception off Blake and got up to return the pick 18 yards for a TD that gave Philly a 27-10 lead. Undaunted, the Bengals came right back on their next possession with a 5-yard scoring jaunt by RB Harold Green that was quickly followed by a 36-yard Peirce FG. However, Murray's third FG of the game, a 35-yarder, gave the Eagles a 10-point lead with 5:35 left in the game. Blake and the Bengals quickly trimmed that lead with a 4-play, 65-yard drive that ended on an 8-yard TD pass to TE Tony McGee. After forcing an Eagles punt, Cincy got the ball back at their own 23 with 2:11 left, down by 3 and out of timeouts. The Eagles seemed to be further in control when the Bengals faced a 4th-n-16 from their own 17 with 1:55 to play. However, a Blake scramble picked up the 16 and kept the drive alive. The Bengals eventually reached the PE4 with :07 left and sent out Peirce who hit the game tying 22-yarder. With :03 left, Cincy was content to just squib kick the ball and head to OT. However, when rookie RB Brian O'Neal mishandled the kick, the Bengals recovered at the PE35 with one tick on the clock. It was just enough time for Peirce to come on to boot his 4th FG of the game, a 54-yard game-winner.

EAGLES PRESEASON TELECASTS

The 1995 preseason schedule is highlighted by two, nationally televised Thursday night games - vs. New England (TNT), August 17, and at Pittsburgh (ESPN), August 24. For the third consecutive season, the local television rights to the Eagles' 1995 preseason games are owned by WTXF-TV 29. They will broadcast the first two games of the preseason, vs. Atlanta, August 5, and vs. the New York Jets at Jackson, MS, August 12. In addition, WTXF will carry the broadcast of TNT's nationally televised game vs. New England to the Philadelphia market. The final game of the preseason, at Pittsburgh, will be televised nationally by ESPN while WPVI-TV 6 will carry the broadcast of the game to the Philadelphia market. Due to NFL rules, the two preseason home games (Atlanta and New England) will be aired live in the Philadelphia market only if sold out 72 hours prior to kickoff. If these two games are not sold out in time, they will be shown on a tape delay basis.

THE EAGLES' STORY

1933 — Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal's National Recovery Act. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 — General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in the league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 — Eagles have first choice in the inaugural college draft and select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of the team with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 — Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-America quarterback, signs with the Eagles for a reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and fell to the host Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC from Ebbett's field to the approximate 1,000 TV sets then in Brooklyn.

1940 — Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park (later known as Connie Mack Stadium). Pittsburgh owner Art Rooney buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Steelers franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York, a 30-year old heir to a six million fortune in steel stocks.

1941 — Bell and Rooney swap franchises with Thompson, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earl (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 — Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers to form the "Steagles" due to manpower shortage during World War II. Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 — First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 — Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 838 rushing yards and 110 points.

1946 — Team finishes second for third straight year with 6-5 record.

1947 — Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time but the Chicago Cardinals earn the NFL title with a 28-21 victory at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 — Eagles win their first NFL championship, defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park. Team finishes with overall record of 10-2-1.

1949 — Thompson sells the team to 100 buyers, each of whom paid $3,000 for one of the 100 shares. They were called the "Happy Hundred" or the "100 Brothers". Their leader was James P. Clark, a Philadelphia sportsman and business executive, and the 100 investors included some of the leading names in Philadelphia business, government and politics, including Leonard Tose. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America center-linebacker Chuck Bednarik is a first round draft choice.

1950 — Eagles win third straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. Team finishes with overall record of 12-1.

1951 — Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach after a 6-6 season in 1950. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.

1952 — Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.

1953 — Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.

1954 — Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third consecutive year with second straight 7-4-1 record.

1955 — Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.

1956 — Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.

1957 — Rookie QB Sonny Jurgensen highlights a 4-8 season by passing Eagles to a 17-7 upset of the NFL Eastern Division Champion Cleveland Browns.

1958 — Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.

1959 — With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960 — QB Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay at Franklin Field. Van Brocklin, the league's MVP, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.

1961 — Nick Skorich replaces Buck Shaw as head coach and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season as a passer and a 10-4 record, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions.

1962 — Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles as the team wins only three games and falls to last place.

1963 — RB Timmy Brown sets a then NFL record for total offense (2,436 yards; 841 rushing, 487 receiving, 11 passing, 945 kickoff returns, and 152 punt returns) in a season. With the club's 91 outstanding shares now held by 65 stockholders, club president Frank L. McNamee said it would be put up for sale with an asking price of 4,500,000. Jerry Wolman, a 36-year old builder and self-made millionaire from Washington outbid Philadelphia businessman Jack Wolgin and became the new owner. The sale price was $5,505,000.

THE EAGLES' STORY

1964 — Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 — After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 — Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set team passing and receiving records, respectively, but injuries to other key players contribute to a disappointing 6-7-1 record and a second place finish.

1969 — After Wolman's empire fell into serious financial trouble, a bankruptcy referee in U.S. District Court in Baltimore oversees the team's sale to Leonard Tose, a millionaire trucking executive. The price was a reported $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former Eagles' receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1971 — The Eagles leave Franklin Field for a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams (who had led the club to only a 3-10-1 mark in 1970) as head coach.

1972 — After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. A bright spot, however, is Harold Jackson who leads the NFL in receptions and receiving yards (62-1,048).

1973 — Under new coach Mike McCormick and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but can muster only a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time receiver, Harold Carmichael becomes the second consecutive Eagle to lead the NFL in receptions (67).

1974 — Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire LB Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with TE Charlie Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions (63).

1976 — After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach but the Birds again earn a 4-10 mark. Bergey wins All-NFC and Pro Bowl recognition.

1977 — QB Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to TE Charlie Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl. The Birds show improvement on the field but earn only one more victory than the previous year.

1978 — The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose the NFC Wild Card playoff game in Atlanta, however, 14-13 as the Falcons score two 4th-quarter TDs and Eagles' Mike Michel misses a 34-yard FG try with 1:34 to play. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season.

1979 — With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the Wild Card Game, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17 in a divisional playoff round. Wilbert Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets a then NFL record on Nov. 4, catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Rookie barefoot kicker Tony Franklin boots the second longest FG in NFL history — 59 yards — in a 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 — The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota 31-16, in the divisional playoff round and then upend Dallas, 20-7 at Veterans Stadium, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's then-record NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 — After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games, post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year but are upset at home in the NFC Wild Card Game by the NY Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 — An NFL players' strike takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 — Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first-team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 1,409 yards receiving on 69 catches.

1984 — After a 1-4 start, the Eagles post a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a then club record of 60 quarterback sacks and is the catalyst for the team's improved play. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465) surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-1951. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes an Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL quarterbacks). Mike Quick is selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl for the second straight year.

1985 — On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida for a reported $65 million. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates

Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery does not report to training camp and is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota. Mike Quick, who catches 71 passes to break his own club season record, and Wes Hopkins represent Philadelphia in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

1986 — Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator of the Chicago Bears' Super Bowl XX Champions, is named the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes the sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. The Birds place two players on the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl roster: WR Mike Quick and DE Reggie White. White ties a Pro Bowl record with 4 sacks and is named MVP of the game.

1987 — In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract. The Eagles split their first two games of the season before the NFL was beset by a players strike. After all games of Week 3 were cancelled, the NFL resumed play with replacement teams for the next three weeks. The Birds' replacement team goes 0-3 and sets the stage for a surge by the regular players when they return to work. Philadelphia's regulars proceed to win three straight after the strike and move into a tie for 2nd place in the NFC East. They go on to finish 7-8 overall (7-5 in non-strike games) and due to a tie-breaking system, rank 4th in the NFC East behind Dallas and St. Louis who also posted 7-8 marks. Offensively, WR Mike Quick earns his fifth consecutive trip to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl while QB Randall Cunningham (Pro Bowl 1st alternate) emerges as a rising talent. Cunningham threw 23 TD passes and became the first QB to lead his team in rushing (505 yards) since the Bears' Bobby Douglas did so in 1972. The defense was led by DE Reggie White, who was named the NFL's defensive player of the year. White's 21 sacks set an NFC record and fall one shy of the NFL mark.

1988 — The Eagles' 1988 highlight film was appropriately titled "Living on the Edge," as the Birds took a number of games down to the wire en route to a 10-6 record and the NFC Eastern division title. Under third-year head coach Buddy Ryan, the Eagles post the NFL's best mark (6-1) over the final seven weeks of the regular season. But their playoff fate is not sealed until moments after the conclusion of their 23-7 victory at Dallas in week 16. It is then that N.Y. Jets' QB Ken O'Brien throws a TD pass to Al Toon to defeat the Giants and ensure the division title for the Eagles. Philadelphia then travels to Chicago for an NFC divisional playoff game against the Bears and a place in NFL history. The game, which begins in sunny, 29 degree weather, would later be dubbed "The Fog Bowl," after a thick fog rolls off Lake Michigan late in the 2nd quarter. Due to the fog, visibility on the playing field was extremely difficult and the Bears prevail, 20-12. The shining season included the selection of QB Randall Cunningham, DE Reggie White and TE Keith Jackson as starters in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl. Cunningham, who sets a number of Eagles' single-season passing records and leads the club in rushing for the second straight season, earns Pro Bowl MVP honors. He also wins the Maxwell Football Club's Bert Bell Award as the NFL's top player. White leads the NFL in sacks for the second consecutive year and Jackson sets an Eagles' receiving record with 81 catches en route to earning rookie of the year honors from The Sporting News.

1989 — The Eagles used an aggressive, ball-hungry defense — which led the NFL in takeaways (56) and interceptions (30), and set a team record with 62 QB sacks — to improve their regular season record to 11-5. Philadelphia, however, finished second to the Giants in the NFC East (despite two victories in head-to-head competition) and faced the LA Rams in the Wild Card playoff. Although playing a post-season game at Veterans Stadium for the first time since 1981, the Birds fell 21-7. QB Randall Cunningham posted similar numbers to his superb '88 campaign despite missing receivers Mike Quick and Keith Jackson for most of the season due to injuries. A deeper loss came on December 9, when quarterback coach Doug Scovil passed away. The second alternate to the Pro Bowl, Cunningham started for the NFC squad when injuries kept the other QBs from participating. He was joined by Reggie White, Eric Allen (who led the NFC in interceptions with 8), and Jackson.

1990 — In February, Buddy Ryan hired Rich Kotite as offensive coordinator to improve the Eagles' sluggish attack. At season's end, the offense led the NFL in rushing (2,556) and time of possession (33:19) and the NFC in scoring (396) and TD passes (34). On the other side of the ball the defense led the NFL in stopping the run (1,169), thereby making the Birds the first team to lead the league in both rushing categories since Chicago did so in 1985. A 10-6 record put Philadelphia in the playoffs once again, but the Eagles suffered their third opening round defeat in as many seasons. The 20-6 Wild Card Game loss to Washington signaled an end to the five-year Ryan era. On January 8, 1991, owner Norman Braman announced that Ryan would not be offered a new contract. On the same day, he elevated Kotite to the head coaching position noting that it was time for the Eagles "to reach the next plateau." Under Kotite, QB Randall Cunningham flourished with an NFC-leading 30 TD passes, 942 rushing yards, and a selection to the Pro Bowl while rookie WRs Calvin Williams and Fred Barnett combined to make 17 TD receptions. TE Keith Jackson, DE Reggie White, and DT Jerome Brown also earned Pro Bowl berths but RB Keith Byars, who tied a team record with 81 receptions and also threw 4 TD passes, was overlooked.

1991 — On January 8th, team owner Norman Braman opted not to renew the contract of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles' head coach since 1986. On the same day, Braman promoted then-offensive coordinator Rich Kotite to the vacant position, thus making him the 18th head coach in club history. When the season began, the Eagles opened with a 3-1 mark, their best start since 1981, despite having lost quarterback Randall Cunningham for the year due to a knee injury suffered at Green Bay on opening day. But after coming on to lead the Eagles to their solid start, backup QB Jim McMahon was also injured in game 5. With McMahon sidelined for nearly three straight games, the Birds suffered through a four-game losing streak. By midseason, Philadelphia had used five quarterbacks in eight games and seen its record sink to 3-5. The Eagles regrouped, however, and surged into contention for a playoff spot with a six-game winning streak (the club's longest since the start of '81) that upped their record to 9-5. And while a loss at home to Dallas in game 15 ended Philadelphia's remarkable run for the playoffs, the Birds finished the season with a stirring come-from-behind, 24-22 victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Redskins. With a record of 10-6, the Eagles finished third in the NFC East behind Washington and Dallas and joined the 49ers as the only NFL clubs to post 10 or more wins in each of the last four years. And despite missing the playoffs for the first time in four years, Philadelphia proved to be one of the NFL's hottest clubs, winning seven of its last eight games. Said Braman of Kotite's ability to rally the Birds in the second half of the season despite all the injuries at quarterback, "Richie has been a great leader. He kept the team together when everybody had written us off." Another catalyst during this stretch run was a defensive unit that finished the season ranked number one in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed overall, vs. the run, and vs. the pass. As such, the Birds became only the fifth club in NFL history and the first since 1975 to accomplish this rare triple. In addition, the Eagles' defense led the NFL in quarterback sacks and fumble recoveries, and tied New Orleans for the league lead in overall takeaways. Five members of that defensive unit represented the Eagles in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl - DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons, DT Jerome Brown, and LB Seth Joyner were selected as starters while CB Eric Allen also made the NFC squad. The selection of White, Simmons, and Brown marked only the sixth time in NFL history that three defensive linemen from one team were elected to the Pro Bowl. The offense was led by WR Fred Barnett (62-948-4TDs receiving), multi-talented RB Keith Byars (62 receptions and 383 rushing yards), and QBs Jim McMahon and Jeff Kemp. McMahon was 8-3 as a starter after taking over for Cunningham; Kemp came on in relief of an injured McMahon three times and twice led the Birds to comeback victories while also compiling a 1-1 mark as a starter in the final two games.

1992 — The Eagles were dealt the cruelest of blows before the '92 season even began when all-pro defensive tackle Jerome Brown was killed in an automobile accident on June 25th in his hometown of Brooksville, FL. The tragedy overshadowed the promise of the upcoming season which included the return of QB Randall Cunningham - out almost the entire '91 season with a knee injury - as well as the addition of RB Herschel Walker whom the Eagles acquired as a free agent just three days before Brown's death. A team that had gone through five different quarterbacks in the first eight games of '91 again began the season facing adversity. The Birds, however, got out of the blocks quickly in their second season under head coach Rich Kotite, as they opened with 4 straight wins. Keys to that success were Walker, who topped the 100-yard rushing mark in each of the first two games and Cunningham, the NFC's offensive player of the month for September. Midway through the season, however, the offense struggled and the defense suffered several key injuries, particularly to starting safeties Andre Waters, who broke his leg in game five, and Wes Hopkins, who was bothered by a recurring knee injury for most of the season's second half. Despite these obstacles, the Birds finished second in the NFC East with an 11-5 regular season record. In addition, the team returned to the playoffs after a one-year absence and earned a Wild Card victory over the Saints in New Orleans before dropping the Divisional Playoff to the eventual Super Bowl champion Dallas Cowboys. The win over the Saints was the team's first postseason victory since 1981 and its first road playoff conquest since 1949. Offensively, Walker became only the fourth Eagle ever to top 1,000 rushing yards in a season and the first since Earnest Jackson did it in '85. While the defense slipped from its '91 number one ranking across the board, DEs Reggie White and Clyde Simmons and CB Eric Allen each earned Pro Bowl berths as did WR Fred Barnett. Off the field in '93, a September 24th ruling by U.S. District Judge David Doty paved the way for free agency in the NFL by finding the league's "Plan B" policy in violation of federal antitrust laws and provided the four plaintiffs in the suit with an opportunity to sign with another club. Among those four was Eagles TE Keith Jackson, who four days later inked a deal with the Miami Dolphins.

1993 — In January, lawyers for the NFL and the Players Association reached agreement on a Collective Bargaining Agreement, a seven-year deal that would institute a form of limited free agency to replace the "Plan B" system. The most prominent NFL player affected by the settlement was the Eagles' all-time sack leader Reggie White, who went on to sign with the Green Bay Packers on April 5th. On the field, the Eagles' injury-riddled, roller-coaster 1993 campaign produced an 8-8 record. Despite injuries to key personnel throughout the season, head coach Rich Kotite kept his troops playing hard right through their overtime victory over the playoff-bound 49ers at San Francisco in the season finale. After a flying start in which the Birds jumped out to a 4-0 record on the strength of three consecutive dramatic come-from-behind wins, season-ending injuries to QB Randall Cunningham, Pro Bowl WR Fred Barnett and others were followed by a six-game losing streak. Despite suffering their worst skid since 1983, the resilient Eagles bounced back behind the fine play of backup QB Bubba Brister to win 4 of their final 6 contests — a stretch that kept them in the playoff hunt until the final week of the season. Despite having been dealt the league's most difficult schedule (in terms of opponent's '92 records), and despite the rash of injuries, the Eagles were in nearly every game, including the three against the Super Bowl XXVII foes - Dallas twice and Buffalo once - in which they had opportunities to win in the final quarter. The Birds were represented at the Pro Bowl in Hawaii by CB Eric Allen and LB Seth Joyner.

1994 — A new chapter in Philadelphia Eagle history began on April 6th as Norman Braman, the Birds' owner since 1985, reached an agreement in principle to sell the franchise to Boston native and Hollywood-based movie producer Jeffrey Lurie. Once NFL owners voted to approve the sale on May 6th, Lurie officially took over the club on May 17. Not only were there new faces in the front office, there were many new faces on the field as well as the Eagles, particularly the defense, sported many veteran acquisitions such as DEs William Fuller, Burt Grossman, and Greg Townsend, safeties Greg Jackson and Michael Zordich, LB Bill Romanowski, and K Eddie Murray. Despite losing the season opener to the Giants, the new-look Birds bounced back to soar through the first half of the season, winning 7 of their next 8 contests, including a 40-8 thumping of the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers at Candlestick Park. However, the club went on to drop their last 7 games, finishing 7-9 and out of the playoffs for the second consecutive season. Two days after the season finale, Rich Kotite's 4-year reign as head coach of the Birds ended when he was relieved of his duties. Despite the dismal ending to a one-time promising campaign, several Eagles provided memorable performances throughout the year. RB Herschel Walker etched his name into the NFL record books as he became the first player in the 75-year history of the league to record a 90-plus yard run, reception, and kickoff return in a single season. To appreciate the uniqueness of this feat, note that only one other player - Hall-of-Famer Bobby Mitchell - had previously recorded that trifecta in a career. With back-to-back 100-plus yd. rushing performances at SF and vs. Wash, rookie RB Charlie Garner became only the 7th back in NFL history to eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark in his first two contests. Fuller, a free agent acquisition from Houston, notched at least one sack in 7 straight games and subsequently broke the club record of 6 consecutive games shared by Reggie White and Clyde Simmons. Fuller and CB Eric Allen represented the Eagles in the Pro Bowl.

EAGLES ON FOREIGN SOIL

During their history, the Eagles have played four preseason games outside of the United States, compiling a 1-3 record along the way. The Eagles' three most recent ventures abroad were as participants in the NFL's American Bowl series, a series that has included games in London, Berlin, and Tokyo. In 1989, Philadelphia opened its preseason with a victory over Cleveland in the fourth annual American Bowl in London, England. The Birds returned to London's Wembley Stadium two years later for the sixth American Bowl in Great Britain and fell to the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills in the preseason opener for both clubs. The results of the Eagles' games on foreign soil are as follows:

Aug. 5, 1978	vs. New OrleansL . . .7-14 . .Mexico City (Estadio Olimpico)
Aug. 6, 1989	vs. ClevelandW . .17-13 . .London, England (Wembley Stadium)

EAGLES' CHAMPIONSHIP GAME REVIEW

1947 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chicago 28, Eagles 21

December 28, 1947 at Comiskey Park

A frozen field in Comiskey Park did not prevent an offensive game as the Chicago Cardinals defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 28-21 in their first NFL championship playoff. The Cardinals' Elmer Angsman set a record by rushing for 159 yards in 10 carries, scoring twice on 70-yard runs. Philadelphia's Tommy Thompson set a record for pass completions (27-44-297-1TD) and returned a punt 75 yards for another TD. The Cardinals' Charlie Trippi also scored 2 TDs on a 44-yard run from scrimmage and a 75-yard punt return. Steve Van Buren, the NFL's leading ground gainer with 945 yards during the season, gained only 26 yards on 18 carries due to the slippery conditions.

The Cardinals, who had started the game wearing basketball shoes, had a 7-0 lead after Trippi's 44 yard TD run with 8:38 left in the first quarter. The Eagles themselves changed to sneakers after being penalized for illegal equipment, but trailed 14-0 before scoring on Thompson's pass to William (Pat) McHugh, who caught a 36-yard pass on Chicago's 17 and completed a 53-yard play.

Philadelphia never got closer than a touchdown as the Cardinals held leads of 21-7 and 28-14 in the second half. The Birds did lead 357-336 in total offense, partly because Paul Christman of the Cardinals completed only 3 of 14 passes for 54 yards as the Eagles eight-man defensive line succeeded in pressuring Christman into hurried passes.

1948 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 7, Chicago 0

December 19, 1948 at Shibe Park

After many years of waiting, the Philadelphia Eagles finally won the National Football League championship. Playing in a driving snowstorm at Shibe Park, Coach Greasy Neale's team triumphed over the champion Chicago Cardinals 7-0.

A protective tarpaulin was not removed from the playing field in Shibe Park until 30 minutes before the kickoff but snow blanketed the entire field by game time.

Of the 36,309 persons who bought tickets and assured a sellout, a total of 28,864 braved the storm with the temperature below the freezing mark to watch the title game, which began a half hour later than scheduled because the snow made removal of the tarpaulin a difficult operation. The sidelines were marked by ropes tied to stakes and conditions were so adverse that NFL commissioner Bert Bell decreed that while the 10-yard first-down chain would be used, there would be no measuring; referee Ron Gibbs would be the final judge of all first downs.

The Eagles started the game's only touchdown drive near the conclusion of the third quarter when the Cardinals' Elmer Angsman fumbled a handoff from Ray Malouf that Eagles' lineman, Frank (Bucko) Kilroy, recovered on the Cards' 17. Three plays into the fourth quarter, Steve Van Buren scored on a five-yard run and Cliff Patton kicked the PAT.

Van Buren had pounded out 98 yards in 26 carries. Bosh Pritchard rushed for 67 yards and Thompson ran mainly up the middle for 50 yards. The rugged weather conditions made it almost impossible to complete passes. Thompson was 2 out of 12 for 7 yards while Malouf threw 3 of 8 for 35 yards. Kicking was just as difficult; Patton attempted 3 field goals but made none while Pat Harder of the Cardinals bobbled his only attempt.

1949 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 14, Los Angeles 0

Dec. 18, 1949 at LA Memorial Coliseum

The Philadelphia Eagles, in the NFL title game for the third consecutive year, defeated the Los Angeles Rams 14-0 as halfback Steve Van Buren set records with 31 carries and 196 yards gained. Van Buren achieved the record after a storm, that began 24 hours before kickoff, dropped almost two inches of rain on the muddy Los Angeles Coliseum field. A crowd of more than 60,000, which would have set a playoff record, was expected before the storm but only 22,245 attended the game.

With all-pro Van Buren carrying the ball, the Eagles were able to control possession for 70 plays on 274 rushing yards. The Rams rushed for only 21 yards and did not advance the ball further than the Eagles' 26-yard line. The Birds scored their first TD in the second quarter on a 31-yard pass from quarterback Tommy Thompson to Pete Pihos.

The Eagles' other score came in the third quarter as defensive end Leo Skladany blocked Bob Waterfield's punt from the 5-yard line. The snap of the ball was high and Waterfield had no chance to get the kick away. Skladany picked up the bouncing ball on the 2-yard line and scored.

The victory marked the Eagles second straight shutout in the NFL title game, climaxing the rise that began when Earle (Greasy) Neale was hired as coach in 1941.

1960 NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 17, Green Bay 13

December 26, 1960 at Franklin Field

The Philadelphia Eagles overcame leads of 6-0 and 13-10 by the Green Bay Packers to score a 17-13 victory for their first NFL championship in 11 years. Bill Quinlan intercepted Norm Van Brocklin's pass on the first play of the game and Eagles' rookie Ted Dean fumbled on the Birds second possession. Five plays later the Packers' Paul Hornung kicked a 20-yard field goal. Another Hornung field goal increased Green Bay's lead to 6-0 in the second quarter before Philadelphia got on the scoreboard with a two-play, 57-yard drive. Van Brocklin passed 22 yards to Tommy McDonald, then teamed with McDonald on a 35-yard TD pass.

A Bobby Walston field goal for Philadelphia made it 10-6 at the half, but Green Bay took a 13-10 lead in the first two minutes of the fourth quarter. Bart Starr's seven-yard pass to Max McGee marked the Packers' only touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Dean returned the ball 58 yards to the Packers' 39. Dean then completed the drive with a 5-yard TD run. Chuck Bednarick endured 58 minutes of the contest — playing center on offense and linebacker on defense.

1980 NFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Eagles 20, Dallas 7

January 11, 1980 at Veterans Stadium

With only two healthy wide receivers and a passing game that was hampered by frigid temperatures and blustery winds, the Eagles rode a tremendous defensive effort and Wilbert Montgomery's 194-yard rushing performance to the NFC title. The Birds never trailed after Montgomery's 42-yard scoring burst early in the first period, although Dallas managed a 7-7 tie at halftime after their only long drive of the day in the middle of the second period. The Eagles continued to dominate after intermission as fullback Leroy Harris (10 carries, 60 yards) complemented Montgomery's effort. Dallas managed only 202 yards of total offense and 11 first downs to the Eagles 340 yards and 19 first downs.

SUPER BOWL XV

Oakland 27, Eagles 10

Jan. 25, 1981 at New Orleans Superdome

The Eagles' first Super Bowl appearance was a disappointing one as they fell behind early and could never play the type of football that had made them champions of the National Football Conference. Behind quarterback Jim Plunkett, the game's MVP, the Raiders jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first period. The first score, a two-yard pass from Plunkett to Cliff Branch, was set up by an Oakland interception and return to the Eagles' 30-yard line with less than two minutes elapsed in the opening period. Plunkett followed late in the period with an 80-yard scoring pass to running back Kenny King. The Eagles trailed by 14-3 at halftime and by 24-3 after three periods before Keith Krepfle scored the only Philadelphia touchdown on an 8-yard pass reception from Ron Jaworski. A first period apparent touchdown toss of 40 yards from Jaworski to Rodney Parker was nullified by an illegal motion penalty against the Eagles. That score, if it had stood, would have made the score 7-7 at the time and might have gotten the Eagles untracked.

Veterans Stadium

The Eagles have called Veterans Stadium home since 1971 after previous stops at Municipal (JFK) Stadium, Connie Mack Stadium, and Franklin Field. In their history, the Birds have also played home games at the Baker Bowl, Temple University Stadium, and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field during the 1943 season.

Veterans Stadium, known as "the Vet," is a multi-purpose sports complex located in South Philadelphia. Built on a 74-acre site, the sports complex also includes a recreational park, the CoreStates Spectrum indoor arena, home of the Philadelphia Flyers and 76ers, and the CoreStates Arena, currently under construction at the former site of JFK Stadium.

The Vet, which is celebrating its 25th season in 1995, was opened before the Phillies' 1971 baseball season and was built at a cost in excess of $50 million. The Eagles, 76ers, and Phillies maintain their executive offices in the stadium.

In February, 1995, the field at the Vet was replaced with a new synthetic turf called Astro Turf-8. This new state-of-the-art surface features a vertical drainage system whereby water will drain through holes in the turf, its padding, and the stone and earth sub-base.

In 1986, the Eagles installed two grass practice fields in the north parking lot of the Vet. In 1992, "the Bubble," an inclement weather facility, was moved from the former JFK Stadium site to adjacent to the grass practice fields. The Bubble consists of a synthetic roof supported by currents of air and covers a 70-yard Astro Turf field. It was installed by Air Structures International, Inc.

In 1985, 27 luxurious Penthouse Suites were built atop the south side of the stadium. Twenty-four more Suites were constructed the following year on the north side. Thirty-eight additional Suites on the west side were constructed in 1987 to bring the total number of Suites to 89.

The first Eagles' game at the Vet took place on August 16, 1971, when they defeated the Buffalo Bills in a preseason encounter, 34-28. The first regular season win came at the expense of the New York Giants, 23-7, on October 7, 1971.

In 24 seasons at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles have compiled a 100-86-2 record (including a 3-3 playoff mark). The seating capacity for football is 64,899.

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a procedure by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by one club to other NFL clubs. During this procedure, a club may make a claim to obtain the player or "waive" its right to do so—thus the term "waiver". Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based upon the inverse of won-loss standings. The claiming period is normally ten days during the offseason and 24 hours from July 5, through December 22. In some circumstances, another 24 hours is added on to allow the original club to rescind its action (known as waiver request) and/or the claiming club to do the same (known as a withdrawal of a claim). If a player passes through waivers from July 6 through December 23 they are no-recall and no withdrawal. Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, from February 1 through October 11, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

ACTIVE LIST: The Active List is a status for players participating for a club. It consists of all players under contract, including option, who are eligible for preseason, regular season, and postseason games. Clubs are allowed to open training camp with 80 players but thereafter must meet a series of mandatory roster reductions prior to the season opener. Teams will be permitted to dress a minimum of 42 and a maximum of 45 players and a third quarterback for each regular season game and postseason game during the 1995 season. In addition, each club will have an Inactive List of 8 players. For Active List maximums and dates for 1995, see ROSTER LIMITS below.

RESERVE LIST: The Reserve List is the principle status for players who, for reason of injury, retirement, military service, or other circumstances, are not immediately available for participation with a club. Those players in the category of Reserve/Injured that have been placed on the list prior to the final 53-man roster may not return to the active list that season and are not permitted to practice. For the third season, any player placed on the Injured Reserve List after the 53-man roster has been set also will not be eligible to play for the remainder of the season. This is different from previous years when a player would be eligible to return after a minimum of six weeks missed.

ROSTER LIMITS: No more than 80 players can be under signed contract from June 1-August 21. Rosters must be cut to 60 active players by 4:00 p.m. on August 22 (Tuesday after 3rd pre-season weekend) except for Carolina and Jacksonville who will trim their rosters to 65. Rosters must be cut to 53 active players by 4:00 p.m. on August 27 except for Carolina and Jacksonville who will be allowed to carry 56 players until after their third game of the regular season. Clubs will be permitted to dress 45 players for each regular season game (plus a third quarterback, if desired). Each team must designate a four man inactive squad by Friday at 7:00 p.m. Additionally, the club will then designate 4 more players to their inactive list for that game no later than one hour and 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

PRACTICE SQUADS: On August 28, each club may establish a Practice Squad of no more than five players by signing free agents who do not have a season of free agency credit. This squad includes only rookies and/or first-year players (those whose NFL experience is limited to previous training camp or less than three active games).

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed in 1995 between clubs through October 10 (Tuesday following the sixth regular season weekend), after which trading of the player contract/rights will end until mid-February, 1996.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: News media representatives who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in advance by writing or calling the Eagles' public relations department, 3501 South Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19148-5201 (Phone: 215-463-2500). Credentials reserved in advance can be picked up at the Press Gate/Security Entrance below Gate B off Pattison Ave. (not the Will Call Window) three hours before the scheduled kickoff. Media members who regularly cover the visiting team should arrange to acquire their credentials through that team's PR department.

PRESS BOXES: The Eagles maintain three press boxes, designated A, B, and C, on the fourth level of Veterans Stadium. Admission to the press area is strictly limited to those individuals holding credentials issued by the Eagles' public relations department. No other media identification cards will be honored. All news media should enter the stadium through the press gate (Pattison Ave. side of the Stadium). Those with credentials for the press box should take the elevator to the fourth level.

TELEPHONES: Game day telephones at an assigned seat can be ordered by calling Penny Stevens of Bell Atlantic at 215-466-2163. Instruments can be ordered by calling Brent Sagita at Infocore at 610-768-5231.

TELEVISION AND RADIO: Network television and visiting radio facilities are located on the 4th level between press boxes A and B. Visiting radio credentials will be issued through the visiting team's PR representative. Television announcers may do stand-ups on the field in pregame, half-time, during the last three minutes of play, and post game. Television "announcers" and producers are not allowed on the sidelines except during these aforementioned periods.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline credentials for field photographers are issued by the Eagles' public relations department only. Space limitations make it impossible to accredit free lance photographers who are not on specific assignment by a recognized sports or news publication. Photographers should enter the press gate (B) and take the elevator to the first (field) level. Space on the fourth level photo deck is extremely limited and available only on a reserved basis. All field photographers are reminded that they must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field.

LOCKER ROOMS: Admission to the home and visiting locker rooms after a game is controlled by each team. There is absolutely no admission to the locker room before or during a game. The Eagles' head coach and quarterback will meet with the media in an interview room across the hall from the Eagles' locker room. During the regular season the locker room is normally open to the media on Monday and Saturday for 45 minutes after practice and on Wednesday through Friday from 11:00 a.m.-12 noon. This schedule is subject to change, however.

PRESS CLUB: Admittance to the Press Club before, during, and after the game is limited to working media and Eagles' staff holding appropriate credentials.

DIRECTIONS FROM AIRPORT TO VET STADIUM: Take I-95 north for approximately 6 miles to Broad Street exit. Go straight on Broad for two lights. The stadium is located at the intersection of Broad and Pattison Ave. NOTE: Eagles' practice fields are located in the north parking lot of the stadium....The entrance to the stadium's VIP parking lot is off of Broad Street.
